JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., March 20.-A renewal of the report that Herbert S Hadley, governor of Missouri, is to resign n order to accept a federal judgeship, was current here today. On the authority of a Missouri congressman, whose identity is not revealed by his friends here, it is said that President Taft has promised Senator Warner that Governor Hadley will be given the first vacancy that occurs on the federal bench in the west or northwest. Governor Hadiey's resultant resignation would make Jacob F. Gmellch, now lieutenent governor chief executive of the state. He is a republican and was declared elected only after a long contest in the legislature and the recount of ballots by a special committee. A report that Governor Hadley was to resign and take a federal position was circulated in December when the contest for lieutenant governorship was on. The rumor was promtly denied by the governor who said that he had no present intentions of resigning. The congressman who was responsible for the present renewal of the rumor asserts that the strictest secrecy has been enjoined upon him and thus far it is believed that the governor has

SEVERAL CASES OF POCKET PICKING ON FARNAM CARS Victims Fail to Report Their Losses

in Time to Aid Police in Arresting Robbers.

Pocket picking on Farnam street cars is secoming quite the fashion. W. T. Howard, who lives at 1710 Manderson street, s the latest man to tell the police how he was robbed. He says five men on the rear end of a car at Fourteenth and Farnam streets crowded him as he was boarding the car on March 9. He says when he had occasion to use his pocketbook shortly after, he found it had gone. It contained $43.10 and a few papers.

Chief of Detectives Savage declares that such cases as Mr. Howard reports are almost impossible to work on, for, although meagre descriptions of the suspected persons are given, the report is made over a week late, giving the pickpockets a chance to rob hundreds of other men and then leave the city before the police get after CAR SHOPS IN CITY POLITICS them. Besides Mr. Howard, three or four other men have told the police of being
