In addition the following are members of the new committee:

The other new committee is entitled, "On Conservation of Natural Resources," and is composed of the following: Dixon, chairman; Clark of Wyoming; Beveridge, Dooliver, Dillingham, Heyburn, Dick, Briggs, Guggenheim, Jones, Newlands, Overman, Davis, Bankhead and Smith of South Carolina.

The new members of the committee on finance are Culberson, Lodge, McCumber, Smoot and Flint, the republican representation having been increased by one, and Simmons, democrat. From the committee on appropriations Mr. Cullom retired and Messrs. Keens, Burckett and Curtis were appointed as new republican members, while Mr. Culberson took the democratic vacancy. On commerce the new members are Messrs. Bourne and Burton, republicans, Mr. Crane retiring.

No changes were made in the democratic list. On foreign relations the republican representation was increased by one, and Smith of Michigan and Root were named as new republican members, while Shively became the new democratic member. From interstate commerce Mr. Dooliver retired in favor of his colleague, Mr. Cummins, and Mr. Nixon also was appointed, no change being made in the democratic list. On judiciary the new republicans are Sutherland, Pile, Warner, Brandegee and Borah, and Mr. Paynter was named as an additional democratic member.

Changes in Chairmanships.
There were quite a number of changes in chairmanships of committees, including: Dooliver, agriculture and forestry; Cummins, civil service and retrenchment; and Gamble, enrolled bills. The membership of the committees on interoceanic canals has been almost entirely changed and is made up of the following: Flint, chairman; McCumber, Brandegee, Dooliver, Dick, Borah, Richardson, Crawford and Bristol, republicans; and Tallaferris, Simmons, Johnston of Alabama, Smith of Maryland and Hughes, democrats. Several changes were made in the chairmanships of small select committees, which are headed by democratic senators. The changes were made by the senate without debate. Mr. Aldrich stated that he would later submit a resolution fixing the powers and duties of the new committee on public expenditures.

Kansas Owns Goose Island

Supreme Court Decides Jurisdiction of Small Tract of Land in Missouri River.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—That Goose island, lying in the Missouri river between Kansas City, Mo., and Kansas City, Kan., belongs to the state of Kansas was adjudged today by the supreme court of the United States. The suit involving jurisdiction over this small bit of territory was begun by the state of Missouri in December, 1906, as an original action in the supreme court. The controversy grew out of a difference of opinion regarding the location of the Missouri state line by the original surveys, and both states have claimed sovereignty over the island, with the result that there has been no little conflict of authority.

CHARGE BRIBERY OF COUNCILMAN

Councilman Klein, Convicted Grafter Now in Jail for Refusing to Testify. Also Among Those Named.

PITTSBURG, March 22.—The councilmanic graft scandal was given a sensational turn today when Judge Davis authorized District Attorney William A. Blahely to prepare indictments against the following: Dallas C. Byers, a millionaire iron manufacturer and head of the A. M. Byers company; F. A. Griffin, vice president of the Columbia National Bank of Pittsburg; Henry L. Bolger, a Water street saloon keeper; Common Councilman John F. Klein, Select Councilman Dr. F. H. Weber, Select Councilman Charles Stewart. The grand jury is again in session under orders from Judge Davis, and it is said further developments are expected. The indictments to be prepared against Byers and Councilmen Klein and Weber grew out of the vacation of South Seventh street and they are to be charged with conspiracy to bribe. Councilman Stewart is to be charged with soliciting $2,500 from A. A. Vilasack, former cashier, and William W. Ramsey, former president of the German National bank, who were arrested during the early stage of the graft investigation.

Banker Paid Bribe

Vice President Griffin of the Columbia National bank is to be charged with having authorized the payment of $2,500 and $2,500 to a clerk in the bank, who was to pay the same to a person when he called. Griffin was called recently before the grand jury and, according to the grand jury report, his answers were vague and so contradictory that a charge of perjury is recommended. The court so ordered.

SANTA FE, N. M., March 22.—Governor George Curry today telegraphed to President Taft his resignation as governor of New Mexico.

Governor Curry stated that although he had contemplated taking this action for several months past, the immediate cause of his resignation was that he had requested a leave of absence to go to Washington to talk with President Taft and the secretary of the interior on matters of great importance to New Mexico, not pertaining to statehood, but that Secretary of the Interior Ballinger had answered that he should take up the business by letter.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., March 22.—No word has come from the six men in the balloon "America." It is feared they have been lost in the mountains in the midst of a terrific blizzard now raging there.
