John Masaredis Waives Hearing in County Court

Greek Who Killed Officer Lowery is Bound Over on Charge of First Degree Murder.

John Masaredis, the Greek, who on the night of February 19 shot to death Officer Edward Lowery of South Omaha, waived preliminary hearing in county court Tuesday morning. He was bound over to the district court to await trial for murder in the first degree and taken to the Douglas county jail.

Masaredis was brought back from Lincoln penitentiary Monday evening by Sheriff Bratley to answer to the information filed against him in behalf of the county attorney's office by F. H. Good, Judge Leslie, the prisoner, Sheriff Bratley, Deputy County Attorney Magney, Good and John Macfarland, counsel for the Greek, were the only persons present in the court room.

The hearing was 5:30 a. m. It is stated that the shooting occurred about 10:30 p. m. because Judge Leslie wished to get away to Lincoln than because a crowd was feared. "Masaredis looked much like he did the second day after the shooting. The bullet wound in his leg pains him somewhat and he can walk, but with difficulty. His disinclination or disability to talk continues and jail officials think that while he may have a slight smattering of English, he is not able to hold an intelligent conversation in that tongue.

WOMAN WINS DIVORCE SUIT

Mrs. Hulda Anderson, Who Said Husband Beat Her, Gets the Decree.

Mrs. Hulda Anderson has won a decree of divorce from Axel W. Anderson, who, she declared, beat her with great frequency. The case was tried last week before Judge Lee Estelle and was hotly contested. The defense claimed that Mrs. Anderson had condoned her husband's alleged abuse and that his extreme nervous state was some excuse for him anyhow.

Judge Estelle has now found for the plaintiff, who was represented by Attorney Alvin Johnson. Mrs. Anderson is given 20 a month alimony.

Having been divorced has not caused either Jerry or Daisy A. Hunt, both of Manila, Ia., to shun the estate of matrimony. They came to Omaha today to wed and in securing a license he confessed to a marital unpleasantness ending three years ago, while her decree was secured one year later. Judge Cockrell performed the ceremony.

C., who is the author of several books, writes: "For several years I was afflicted with kidney trouble and last winter I was suddenly stricken with a severe pain in my kidneys and was confined to bed eight days unable to get up without assistance. My urine contained a thick white sediment and I passed some frequently day and night. I commenced taking Foley's Kidney Remedy and the pain gradually abated and finally ceased and my urine became normal. I cheerfully recommend Foley's Kidney Remedy." For sale by all druggists.

DEPOSIT LAW WHACKS OMAHA

Act Takes Twenty-Five Thousand from Local State Banks.

LATTER WILL GIVE UP PROMPTLY

Prominent Banker Says Another Such Institution is Soon to Be Founded in This City, Making Four of the Kind.

Nebraska's new deposit guaranty law will cost Omaha state banks $25,000, and they are going to pay it whenever anyone calls with the right kind of credentials and a bag to carry it in.

For the most part it will be with a feeling that the Omaha banks, which are strong—two of them having over $1,000,000 of deposits—are contributing to a fund to uphold banks that are weaker. But they are, of course, going to take their medicine, though not instrumental in assisting Mr. Bryan to make Nebraska a political experimental station.

The banks which will pay into the guaranty fund during the next year more than $25,000 are J. L. Brandeis & Sons, which bank has more than $1,000,000 deposits; the City Savings bank, with more than $1,000,000; and the bank of Hayden Bros. with deposits of $450,000.

"The money is paid over not only because the law requires it, but with the feeling that it will be a long time before the banks will be assessed to make up losses because of bank failures in Nebraska," said one of the bankers who will remit between $10,000 and $15,000 during the next year. "We have confidence in the banks of Nebraska and do not believe they will abuse the law even if they could."

Another State Bank Coming. The expectation among bankers is that another state bank will be opened in Omaha before long. It will, of course, have to have a capital of at least $300,000 to start. The state banks already here will in all probability find it necessary to increase their capital to $300,000. The biggest now has only $100,000 capital.

National bankers in Omaha decline to be disheartened over the news that the bank guarantee bill had become a law. "Don't we still have our big gilt letters on our windows, 'United States Depository'?" said a cashier, looking out under the big "U. S." in shining gold. "The guarantee law will have to work overtime if it overcomes the influence of those letters."

Another national banker, who was smiling and rapping his desk with a pencil, said: "The law is not going to take any great amount of money from the national banks and put it in the state banks. That man Taylor of Custer, who went down under the steam roller, was right about what he told his fellow democrats, but it is too late now for his words to do any good."

Butler and Burnam Blame Each Other

Clerk and Attorney Says Other is Responsible for Error of Hour in Proclamation.

Who is responsible for the error in the city primary election proclamation stating that the polls open at 8 a. m. when they open at 12 m. City Clerk Butler says City Attorney Burnam is and Burnam says Butler is. "The city attorney gave me my instructions and I simply followed them out," says Butler.

"I never did anything of the kind," says Burnam. "The fact remains that the polls open at 12 noon, while the proclamation says they open at 8 a. m. We will not run any risk of invalidating the election and no voting will be allowed before the noon hour," says the city attorney. "I do not think it will be necessary to post another set of proclamations, for if any voters present themselves in the morning the law can be explained to them and they can return later."

The primary law, approved April 3, 1907, reads as follows: "The primary election held under this act for the election of city officers where registration is required, the polls shall be opened at 8 o'clock a. m. and closed at 9 o'clock in the evening. In all other cases and at primary elections at all other times when a primary election is held, polls shall be opened at 12 o'clock noon and remain open until 9 o'clock in the evening."

MRS. MONTGOMERY IN COURT

Woman Charged with Keeping Disorderly House. Claim Attempt at Blackmail.

Mrs. Laura Montgomery was in police court Tuesday morning on charge of keeping a disorderly house at 131 Capitol avenue. She denies that her boarding house merits the attention given it by the police, and sets up that an attorney and a furrier who lives next door to her have demanded various sums of money from her, threatening unless she paid they would cause her arrest. Police Sargeants Cook and Samuelson, who made the arrest, say they have been watching a number of places recently closed by the police and that they felt justified in raiding Mrs. Montgomery's place.

THEATERS OF NEW YORK

Leads the World in the Number and Variety of Their Productions

ST. REGIS CONVENIENT TO ALL

In the number, beauty, and convenience of its theaters New York leads the world. The volume, variety and magnificence of New York's theatrical productions are all magnets that daily attract to the metropolis a vast army of strangers. These strangers must be housed and fed; and New York has risen to the occasion and has provided mammoth and palatial hostleries that are among the wonders of civilization. Some of these hotels—perfect, but mechanical and almost automatic in their service—are cold, even depressing in their atmosphere. There is one hotel, the St. Regis, located at Fifth Avenue and Fifty-fifth Street, which has retained "homelikeness" with its other advantages. Equalled in its appointments and furnishings, with a cuisine unsurpassed by even the famed foreign restaurateurs, the stranger is here surrounded by "home" atmosphere and "home" refinements, and his stay in New York, whether for a night or "the season," is thus made infinitely more enjoyable. With all these advantages the rates are low: A large sumptuously-furnished single room for $2 and $1 a day; the same with private bath for $5 a day; for $8 for two people; or an elegant parlor, bedroom and private bath for $12 a day and upwards.

The Gotzian Shoe Health and Walk Easy Line For Men and Women

The objection to most health and comfort shoes is this: They are clumsy in design and betray the purpose for which they are worn. For many years we have been making a shoe, whose sole of leather, wool, cork, felt and canvas, as shown in the diagram above, is soft as a cushion. But we make it in all shapes and styles and in all kinds of leather. As far as appearance goes it does not differ from other shoes, but it has all the advantages of any health shoe, and gives a new pleasure to walking. We call it the Gotzian Health and Walk Easy Shoe, and it is made for Women's wear as well as for Men's. Ask Your Dealer to Show It to You C. Gotzian & Co. St. Paul, U. S. A.
