Business conditions in the east are not as bright as with us in the west." said Mr. Hart. "Manufacturers generally are waiting to see what the outcome will be in the tariff bill now before congress This is natural and inevitable. Nevertheless the situation throws many working people out of employment for the time being and business conditions are generally unsettled throughout the east. There is every reason to anticipate, howevere, that as soon as the tariff bill is passed busi- H. ness will be adjusted to new conditions and the situation will brighten.

Besides their stay in Washington, Mr. and Mrs. Hart visited Philadelphia, New York and other eastern cities.
