NEW YORK, March 24.—George Slosson of this city outplayed A. G. Cutler of Boston in tonight's game of the international 18.2 billiard championship at Madison Square garden.

Slosson from the break gathered a string of thirty-eight Cutler sending back a single carom. Slosson made eleven on his second turn and Cutler responded with two. Slosson went to the table with a confident air in the inird and by clever nursing and beautiful open table play rolled 2%. The 26th shot, a bazardous five cusoion attempt, with the balls widely separated, only failed through a kiss. Cutler's effort buty metted six caroms, the score at the end of the inird lining being Slosson, 274; Cutler, 9.

FIELDER JONES OUT OF GAME Indications Are Sox Lender Will Not

Don Uniform Again. PORTLAND, Ore, March 26.—Fielder Jones, the once grest leader of the White Sox, probably will not be seen in uniform by Chicago fans this year. There seems to be more of a misunderstanding between Jones and Comiskey than the public has generally supposed. For three days Jones has been talking of plans to entertain Comiskey while here, yet the pair had not yet met and Comiskey left today for British Columbia.
