HOWELL DIPS IN ON WATER BILL
house passed it. The position was in harmony with his ruling as food commissioner through Chief Deputy Mains.

sixty days before the old license expired; that parties signing petition might wear they were freeholders and then it would be up to the protestants to prove they were not freeholders. It also provided a saloon keeper could retire his license before the end of the year and get a rebate on the same providing the license had not been cancelled because of an infraction of the law.

While the governor is receiving a check on the two telephones on his desk are usually ringing and he answers classically. Friends out in the state who want to tell him who is the man for the place. Then when he waves aside the impatient caller who has told him why the man on the telephone line was wrong, he receives his waiting secretary loaded down with communications telling him other things about other men, and he cannot escape from his office by the front or side door without being stopped by a telegraph messenger with a dispatch.

CLARK AND RICHARDSON SAT DOWN BY THE SPEAKER.
(From a Staff Correspondent.)
LINCOLN, March 31.—(Special.)—Amid cheers and jeers the house adjourned tonight following a riling by Speaker Pool that a resolution presented by Clark of Richardson was out of order. Clark had secured unanimous consent to have it read. The resolution provided that inasmuch as the law provided that the regents of the state university may accept gifts or donations for the university that the regents may do as they deem wise regarding the Carnegie pension fund for the teachers.

Constipation the Cause of Disease
Nature's Own Remedy.
Constipation is not only disagreeable, it is dangerous. If it is chronic, it will prove the forerunner of disease. Nature intended the bowels to move regularly once a day. The delicate stomach and bowels are the keystone of the physical organization and should be kept in normal working order to preserve health.

RECORD RUSH FOR PIE CENTER
Governor Is Easily the Busiest Man in Nebraska.
(From a Staff Correspondent.)
LINCOLN, March 31.—(Special.)—All persons who are seeking state jobs are invited to visit the office of Governor Shallenberger at once, to send a telegram announcing their candidacy, or to write him a letter and to induce their friends to write letters of recommendation. The work would better be done right away, for the bills with the fat plates are being rushed through, and the early bird gets the worm and one angie worm makes but one mouthful.

Sunderland Fire Sale of Coal is No Joke
It is costing us a lot of money but is saving our customers the same amount.
Hundreds have examined the coal at our North Yards and have bought their entire supply for next winter.
Our sacrifice is made because the coal must be moved before we can commence building our immense new storage house. Will pay you to look at the coal—for if you do YOU WILL BUY.
