DIETZ CLUB MAY BE REVIVED

Looks for Other Quarters and Will Reorganize If Successful. The Dietz Athletic club, wnich went out of existence a week ago because suitable arrangements could not be made for grounds for the coming year, may be reorganized, with a new location on the lake front. Some of the members were taken by surprise when the club decided to disbend. An active crusade was made for money to purchase grounds, but too many of the members were lukeworm, and the proposition fell through. As soon as these members found they were without a club and club house because of their inactivity they immediately began to bestir them selves, and negotiations are now under way for some land on the lake front at Cut-Off take. If arrangements can be made to secure this land the club will be reorganized.

A meet of this kind was suggested last year, but never got beyond the suggestion stage for various reasons. This year there are no Clympic games to interfere with the scheme, and as the English champions ships are to be held in July, the Oxford-Cambridge athletes would not be obliged to continue in training much longer than they would ordinarily.
