

POYNTER DIES AT SALOON HEARINGEx-Governor Stricken Just After Making Speech in Favor of Daylight Bill.

EXPIRES WITHIN FIVE MINUTES

Exertion at Meeting Believed to Have Overtaxed Heart.

DEATH FOLLOWED BY PRAYER

Short Service Held in Corridor of State House.

FURTHER HEARING POSTPONED

Ex-Governor Elected as Populist and One of Pioneers in Organization of Old Farmers' Alliance.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, Neb., April 5.—(Special Telegram.)—Ex-Governor W. A. Poynter of Nebraska died in the office of Governor Shallenberger this morning following a talk in favor of the 5 o'clock closing law for saloons.The former governor had talked briefly and then stepped back into the crowd and Mrs. Frances B. Heald had started her talk in favor of the measure. Suddenly the ex-governor began to breathe hard and then gradually collapsed, those close to him catching him as he fell.Bill breathing he was carried across the corridor to the office of the adjutant general, where he died immediately, living probably five minutes from the time he was stricken.Mrs. Birkman and Carr, who were present at the hearing, waited upon the stricken man, but could do nothing for him.
Governor Shallenberger's office was cleared and the immense crowd of temperance advocates blocked the corridor on the outside of the office of the adjutant general.T. M. Wimberly mounted a radiator in the corridor of the state house, at the door of the adjutant general's office, and announced the death of ex-Governor Poynter, and suggested that a committee be appointed to draft suitable resolutions and take action in honor of the man who had been doing when he was stricken.Dr. Roach Offers Prayer.
This was followed by a prayer by Dr.
L. F. Roach, pastor of St. Paul church, during which Governor Shallenberger stood in the corridor beside the minister.The office of the governor, both the private room and the reception room, was crowded to the doors and a large number of people stood on the outside unable to gain entrance when the hearing began this morning. Owing to the crowded air was close and it is supposed this helped to bring on the attack, presumably of heart disease. The former governor appeared unusually well when he began to talk and made a clear statement of his position.For some time the ex-governor has been a sufferer from heart disease and the unusual excitement this morning was too much for him.Dr. C. W. M. Poynter, a son, reached the state house a short time after his father's death.Nebraska's Populist Executive.
Governor Poynter served as chief executive of the state from 1899 to 1901. He was a populist and elected on a fusion ticket.
He leaves a widow, son and daughter.
Governor Poynter was 46 years of age and came from Albion, N. Y. He was engaged in the insurance business.Mr. Poynter was born in Eureka, Ill., in 1848. At the age of 19 he graduated from the Eureka college and then taught school until coming to Nebraska in 1878. He remained in Nebraska until 1898, when he lived until elected governor in the fall of 1898, moving to Lincoln the first of the year, 1899.In 1901 he was defeated for re-election for governor by a republican victory and then he settled in Lincoln, being the head of an insurance company. At the time of his death he was at the head of the Security and Savings Loan company. Governor Poynter was married to Miss Maria Mc-Corkle, who, with son and daughter, survive him.The governor was one of the pioneers in the organization of the Farmers Alliance, and previous to that he served in the legislature. The body was taken in charge by Coroner Mathews and removed to the family home on South Twenty-seventh street. No inquest will be held.MOB TAKES NEGRO FROM JAIL AND HANGS HIM TO POLETwenty-Five Men Take Vengeance for Murder of Policeman Carter.PENSACOLA, Fla., April 5.—Dave Alexander, a negro, was lynched here at 4 p. m. today, for the murder of Policeman Carter, whom the negro stabbed to death Sunday morning while resisting arrest.While the police station was comparatively deserted, a crowd of twenty-five men, at the point of revolvers took the black man from his cell and hanged him from an electric light pole half a block from the jail. As the body swung in the air forty bullets were fired into it.

ROADS WIN KENTUCKY CASE

Supreme Court Restrains Commission from Putting Low Rates Into Force.WASHINGTON, April 5.—The injunction suit of the Kentucky railroads in which the roads asked that the railroad commission of Kentucky be restrained from carrying into effect the order of the commission of June 20, 1908, fixing rates on intra-state business in that state was decided today by the supreme court of the United States in favor of the roads.The case came to the supreme court on appeal by the commission from a decision by Judge Cochran of the United States circuit court for the eastern district of Kentucky, in which he held to be unconstitutional the Kentucky statute known as the McChesney law, and issued an order perpetually enjoining the enforcement of the law. The lower court was affirmed, but the supreme court, holding that the statute did not authorize the wholesale creation of schedules, avoided dealing with the constitutional questions involved. The decision was announced by Justice Peckham.Says Mosher Was Insane Through Fear of ExposureChicago Lawyer Asserts Banker Was Deranged When He Passed Worthless Checks.CHICAGO, Ill., April 5.—(Special Telegram.)—That Charles W. Mosher, the former Lincoln banker, who disappeared from here after passing $30,000 worth of worthless checks, was driven insane by fear of exposure of the fact that he is an ex-convict is the belief of Mrs. Mosher and Mosher's attorney, Edward Everett.
Mr. Everett says he believes Mosher will return eventually. He is said to be involved to the amount of $25,000.
"There isn't a court in the country that would convict Mosher of the act he committed the day before he disappeared," Mr. Everett. "His actions were those of a man. I believe he was temporarily deranged by the threatened exposure of his secret that he was an ex-convict. I expect him to return in a few months, though we have received no word from him."Hearst Papers Stolen at DepotDocuments for Use in Haskell Libel Suit Lost by Scott Mac-Reynolds.TOLEDO, O., April 5.—The Toledo police today took a hand in the Governor Haskell libel case when they began a search for papers valuable to Hearst which were stolen Sunday in the depot at Hastings, Mich.For several days Scott MacReynolds of Chicago and E. A. Freshman of New York, representing Hearst, and O. T. Smith of Guthrie, Okla., representing Haskell, have been in Toledo taking depositions. Sunday MacReynolds and Freshman went to Hastings in the station at that place the grip containing all papers in the suit were stolen.Dry Weather Boosts CottonMarket Advances Fifty to Sixty Points on Bad Crop Conditions and Good Demand.NEW YORK, April 5.—New high records were made for the season in the cotton market today on active general buying.
With May contracts selling at 22 1/2 and October at 25 1/2, or 50 to 60 points above the low level of two weeks ago. Dry weather in the southwest and reports of an improved trade demand seemed to be attractive to investment buying, and while realizing was very heavy it was well taken.
With the market holding a net gain of 4 to 5 points at midday.WET OR DRY THE ISSUE IN ARKANSAS AND MICHIGANState-Wide Bill Up at Little Rock and Twenty-Seven Michigan Counties Vote.LITTLE ROCK, Ark., April 5.—The state wide prohibition bill pending before the senate will be in the limelight on the same legislative date this week, which will probably bring either the victory or defeat of state wide prohibition in Arkansas.
Many believe the two branches of legislature will be unable to agree on the same prohibition measure. There are now two state wide measures pending before the senate which have been passed by the house.DETROIT, Mich., April 5.—"Wet" or "dry" is the question of the hour today in twenty-seven counties in the lower peninsula of Michigan, where the voters on local option. There are more than 1,000 saloons and fourteen breweries and wholesale liquor houses in these counties which will be driven out of business if the campaign of the anti-saloon league results in success in all of the counties.

ON TRAIL OF CRAZY SNAKE

Military Ordered to Stay in the Field Until He is Cap-HICKORY GROUNDS, (Ch. Henryetta), Okla., April 4.—Colonel Hoffman, head of the state troops hunting Crazy Snake and his roublesome Indians, received orders tonight from Governor Haskell to remain in the field until he captured the chief. Colonel Hoffman had planned to break camp tomorrow.A scouting party led by Jim Ekraw, a fugitive from justice and a member of the Creek council, is thought to be close on the trail of Crazy Snake.

WHEAT HITS NEW FIGURE

May Advances to $1.26 1/2 in New York Amid Excite-NEW YORK, April 5.—The local wheat pit was thrown into a state of excitement this afternoon by a sudden rush of May shorts to cover, advancing the price to $1.26 1/2 the highest figure in several years.
July sold at a new high record, selling at $1.16 1/2.Wife on Trial for Murder of Sampson's NephewLYONS, N. Y., April 5.—Calmy asserting her innocence and belief in her ultimate acquittal, Mrs. Georgia Allen Sampson was placed on trial today before Justice Ad-bert T. Rich of the supreme court on a charge of shooting and killing her husband, Harry Sampson, a nephew of Admiral Sampson, at the Albany homestead, near Macedon, N. Y., on November 1, 1908.
A large throng of townspeople gathered in the Wayne county court house to attend the opening of the case, which promises a deal of mystery.
Harry Sampson was shot following a quarrel with his wife over a letter she had received from a young man in Rochester and it is the state's contention that Mrs. Sampson killed her husband with theVOTE ON TARIFF BILL FRIDAYHouse Adopts Rule Closing General Debate and Providing for Certain Amendments.

FORMAL BALLOT ON APRIL 9

Measure Will Be Placed on Its Passage April 6 at 3 P. M.

HIDES, LUMBER AND BARLEY

Provisions Made for Separate Votes on These Schedules.

BRYANISM ROUNDLY DENOUNCED

Florida Member Declares He Will Vote for the Payne Tariff Bill if It Contains What His Con-WASHINGTON, April 5.—Three o'clock p. m. April 5 was the time set by the house today for a vote on the Payne tariff bill.
The long expected resolution from the committee on rules closing general debate for certain committee amendments and a full and free opportunity to alter the lumber and hides schedules, was reported late in the day and adopted with sixteen votes to seven, notwithstanding the desertion of twenty republicans.
Four of the sixteen votes came from the Louisiana delegation who likewise broke away from their party. Previously to the adoption of the resolution, there was some severe criticism of it from the democratic side.Aside from the interest which attached to this proceeding was the speech of Mr.
Clark of Florida, who denounced Bryan and Bryanism, populists and populism and who declared that he would support the Payne bill if it contained what his constituents wanted—a duty on sea island cotton and protection for citrus fruits, pineapples, etc. His remarks led him into an exciting colloquy with Mr. Randall, Texas, and other democrats, but he declared that having been instructed by the legislature of his state and his constituents as to the stand he should take, on the articles mentioned, he would not violate his solemn obligation to them. His whole attitude was one of defiance to the democrats of the house. Before the rule was reported there were numerous speeches on the bill, those occupying the floor being Messrs. Bartlett (Ga.), Calderhead (Kan.), Burgess (Texas), Stanley (Ky.), Robson (Ala.), Gillespie (Texas), Thistlewood (Ill.), Saunders (Va.), Reeder (Kan.), and Madden (Ill.).

Provisions of the Rule.

The order reads, as follows:
"Resolved, that immediately upon the adoption hereof general debate on H. R.
1438, a bill to provide revenue, equalize duties and encourage the industries of the United States and for other purposes, shall be closed and the house shall resolve itself into committee of the whole house on the state of the union for the consideration of said bill for amendment under the five-minute rule, but committee amendments to any part of the bill shall be given in order at any time and also preference shall be given to amendments to paragraphs 194, 197, 708 (cotton), 881, 1074 (hides), 227, (barley), and 228 (barley malt); that an amendment shall be voted on to section 1074, strikes out the provision and inserts as a new paragraph No. 364, the following: "Crude petroleum and its products, 25 per cent ad valorem."
"That said specified amendment shall take precedence of committee amendments."
"That consideration of said bill for amendment shall continue until not later than Friday, April 9, at 3 o'clock p. m., at which time the said bill, with all amendments that shall have been recommended by the committee on the whole house on the state of the union, shall be reported to the house and the previous question shall then be considered as ordered on said amendments and said bill to its enactment, third reading and final passage."A separate vote may be had on the amendments relating to hides, lumber, oil, barley, barley malt, tea and coffee or any of them, irrespective of their adoption or rejection in committee of the whole and the vote upon all other amendments in gross.
"That the daily hour of meeting hereafter shall be 12 o'clock noon."Payne Defends Rule.
Answering all the arguments against the rule, chairman Payne declared that the republican party would be held responsible for the bill before the country; that fact, he said, had weighed upon the committee in the preparation of the bill. He asserted that every fact and every source of information had been sought in order that a bill might be presented that would be simple justice to the people of the United States, the consumer and the laborer. Responsibility on the democratic side, he said, was different. "It is theirs to criticize, not to construct," he declared. If the democrats had shown some diligence, courage and patriotism, he said, they would have presented to the country their idea of a tariff bill. He defended the glove and hooley schedules, and declared that under the bill they would be sold as cheaply as they were today, with American workmen and better workmanship. He pleaded with his colleagues to look beyond their dis-

(Continued on Second Page.)

Small Craft Through Harbor.
The harbor police had taken every precaution to prevent these small boats getting too close to the liner, but in spite of these measures several managed to reach the side of the incoming vessel and proffer their offerings of fruits and flowers. Other boats had on board bands of musicians, who sang Neapolitan songs to an accompaniment of guitars and mandolins. The rails of the Hamburg were lined with passengers, who showed every evidence of enjoying the novel welcome. They applauded the singers heartily and Mr. Roosevelt himself could be seen smiling and expressing his appreciation.In the meantime crowds were gathered on shore at every point in the city where it was thought Mr. Roosevelt would be in the course of his brief visit. Stringent police measures are being enforced to keep the people back, not only from the dock where Mr. Roosevelt is expected to land, but from the American consulate and the

(Continued on Second Page.)

"I'm delighted
with your new woman's column on the want ad page," said one of our women readers:"My hairdresser was sick and looking over the 'Everything for Women' column I found there was one near my husband's office on the same floor, whom I knew nothing about."For the convenience of our women readers, many small ads are run together under this head. It makes it easy to find what you want.Have you read the want ads, yet, today?

From the New York Herald.

NAPLES' TRIBUTE TO TEDDY

Harbor Mass of Gay Color When Hamburg Anchors.

PARTY TO BOARD THE ADMIRAL

Transfer Will Be Made to Steamer
Which Will Bear the Expedition to the East-African Coast.

BULLETIN.

NAPLES, April 5.—Mr. Roosevelt landed at Arsenal docks at 4:30 this afternoon. He came from the Hamburg in the launch of the Scorpion, accompanied by Ambassador Griscom and the members of the ambassador's party.NAPLES, April 5.—Naples is intent today on extending an enthusiastic welcome to Theodore Roosevelt, former president of the United States, who arrived here at five minutes past one this morning on board the steamer Hamburg on his way from New York to Mombasa. It is calculated that fully 50,000 foreigners have come into the city, especially from Capri, Sorrento and Amalfi, in the hope of catching a glimpse of the distinguished traveler.The harbor was given a holiday and beauty greeting from ashore and there as it steamed into the bay and dropped anchor.
American flags were flying from the con-sulate, all the hotels and many private houses in honor of Mr. Roosevelt, and the ships in the bay are gaily decorated. Prominent among the yachts in port is the Nahana, with Mrs. Robert Goodell on board.
The American gunboat Scorpion makes a brilliant showing with lines of fluttering flags from stem to stern.Mr. Roosevelt will leave the Hamburg at this port and transfer to the steamer Admiral, on board which he will continue his journey to the East African coast.As soon as the Hamburg was sighted around Capri the interest of the waiting crowds became intense. The people had congregated along the docks and at various points in the city whence a view of the bay could be obtained, and when the Hamburg was identified a general roar of welcome went up from thousands of throats.
Handkerchiefs were waved, hats were flung on high and numerous craft of all kinds put out from the shore to surround the incoming liner.Small Craft Through Harbor.
The harbor police had taken every pre-
caution to prevent these small boats getting too close to the liner, but in spite of
these measures several managed to reach
the side of the incoming vessel and proffer
their offerings of fruits and flowers. Other
boats had on board bands of musicians,
who sang Neapolitan songs to an accompaniment of guitars and mandolins. The
rails of the Hamburg were lined with passengers, who showed every evidence of
enjoying the novel welcome. They applauded the singers heartily and Mr. Roosevelt himself could be seen smiling and ex-
pressing his appreciation.In the meantime crowds were gathered
on shore at every point in the city where
it was thought Mr. Roosevelt would be in the course of his brief visit. Stringent
police measures are being enforced to keep
the people back, not only from the dock
where Mr. Roosevelt is expected to land,
but from the American consulate and the

(Continued on Second Page.)

"I'm delighted
with your new woman's
column on the want ad page,"
said one of our women readers:"My hairdresser was sick and
looking over the 'Everything for Women' column I found there was
one near my husband's office on
the same floor, whom I knew nothing
about."For the convenience of our women
readers, many small ads are
run together under this head. It
makes it easy to find what you want.Have you read the want ads, yet, today?Many Missing in Lost SteamerBritish Vessel Strikes Derelict and Crew and Passengers Forced to Abandon It.

PARTY TO BOARD THE ADMIRAL

Transfer Will Be Made to Steamer
Which Will Bear the Expedition to the East-Afri-
can Coast.

BULLETIN.

NAPLES, April 5.—Mr. Roosevelt landed
at Arsenal docks at 4:30 this afternoon. He came from the Hamburg in the launch of
the Scorpion, accompanied by Ambassador
Griscom and the members of the ambassador's party.NAPLES, April 5.—Naples is intent to-
day on extending an enthusiastic welcome
to Theodore Roosevelt, former president of
the United States, who arrived here at five
minutes past one this morning on board
the steamer Hamburg on his way from
New York to Mombasa. It is calculated
that fully 50,000 foreigners have come into
the city, especially from Capri, Sorrento
and Amalfi, in the hope of catching a
glimpse of the distinguished traveler.The harbor was given a holiday and
beauty greeting from ashore and there as it
steamed into the bay and dropped anchor.
American flags were flying from the con-sulate, all the hotels and many private
houses in honor of Mr. Roosevelt, and the
ships in the bay are gaily decorated. Prominent among the yachts in port is the Nahana, with Mrs. Robert Goodell on board.
The American gunboat Scorpion makes a
brilliant showing with lines of fluttering
flags from stem to stern.Mr. Roosevelt will leave the Hamburg at this port and transfer to the steamer Admiral, on board which he will continue his
journey to the East African coast.As soon as the Hamburg was sighted
around Capri the interest of the waiting
crowds became intense. The people had
congregated along the docks and at various
points in the city whence a view of the
bay could be obtained, and when the Ham-
burg was identified a general roar of welcome went up from thousands of throats.
Handkerchiefs were waved, hats were flung
on high and numerous craft of all kinds
put out from the shore to surround the incoming liner.Small Craft Through Harbor.
The harbor police had taken every pre-
caution to prevent these small boats getting too close to the liner, but in spite of
these measures several managed to reach
the side of the incoming vessel and proffer
their offerings of fruits and flowers. Other
boats had on board bands of musicians,
who sang Neapolitan songs to an accompaniment of guitars and mandolins. The
rails of the Hamburg were lined with passengers, who showed every evidence of
enjoying the novel welcome. They applauded the singers heartily and Mr. Roosevelt himself could be seen smiling and ex-
pressing his appreciation.In the meantime crowds were gathered
on shore at every point in the city where
it was thought Mr. Roosevelt would be in the course of his brief visit. Stringent
police measures are being enforced to keep
the people back, not only from the dock
where Mr. Roosevelt is expected to land,
but from the American consulate and the

(Continued on Second Page.)

"I'm delighted
with your new woman's
column on the want ad page,"
said one of our women readers:"My hairdresser was sick and
looking over the 'Everything for Women' column I found there was
one near my husband's office on
the same floor, whom I knew nothing
about."For the convenience of our women
readers, many small ads are
run together under this head. It
makes it easy to find what you want.Have you read the want ads,
yet, today?

VOTE OF NEBRASKA AND IOWA

Delegations Divide on Support of Rule Closing Tariff Debate.

PARTY TO BOARD THE ADMIRAL

Transfer Will Be Made to Steamer
Which Will Bear the Expedition to the East-Afri-
can Coast.

BULLETIN.

NAPLES, April 5.—Mr. Roosevelt landed
at Arsenal docks at 4:30 this afternoon. He came from the Hamburg in the launch of
the Scorpion, accompanied by Ambassador
Griscom and the members of the ambassador's party.NAPLES, April 5.—Naples is intent to-
day on extending an enthusiastic welcome
to Theodore Roosevelt, former president of
the United States, who arrived here at five
minutes past one this morning on board
the steamer Hamburg on his way from
New York to Mombasa. It is calculated
that fully 50,000 foreigners have come into
the city, especially from Capri, Sorrento
and Amalfi, in the hope of catching a
glimpse of the distinguished traveler.The harbor was given a holiday and
beauty greeting from ashore and there as it
steamed into the bay and dropped anchor.
American flags were flying from the con-sulate, all the hotels and many private
houses in honor of Mr. Roosevelt, and the
ships in the bay are gaily decorated. Prominent among the yachts in port is the Nahana, with Mrs. Robert Goodell on board.
The American gunboat Scorpion makes a
brilliant showing with lines of fluttering
flags from stem to stern.Mr. Roosevelt will leave the Hamburg at this port and transfer to the steamer Admiral, on board which he will continue his
journey to the East African coast.As soon as the Hamburg was sighted
around Capri the interest of the waiting
crowds became intense. The people had
congregated along the docks and at various
points in the city whence a view of the
bay could be obtained, and when the Ham-
burg was identified a general roar of welcome went up from thousands of throats.
Handkerchiefs were waved, hats were flung
on high and numerous craft of all kinds
put out from the shore to surround the in-
coming liner.Small Craft Through Harbor.
The harbor police had taken every pre-
caution to prevent these small boats getting too close to the liner, but in spite of
these measures several managed to reach
the side of the incoming vessel and proffer
their offerings of fruits and flowers. Other
boats had on board bands of musicians,
who sang Neapolitan songs to an accompaniment of guitars and mandolins. The
rails of the Hamburg were lined with passengers, who showed every evidence of
enjoying the novel welcome. They applauded the singers heartily and Mr. Roosevelt himself could be seen smiling and ex-
pressing his appreciation.In the meantime crowds were gathered
on shore at every point in the city where
it was thought Mr. Roosevelt would be in the course of his brief visit. Stringent
police measures are being enforced to keep
the people back, not only from the dock
where Mr. Roosevelt is expected to land,
but from the American consulate and the

(Continued on Second Page.)

"I'm delighted
with your new woman's
column on the want ad page,"
said one of our women readers:"My hairdresser was sick and
looking over the 'Everything for Women' column I found there was
one near my husband's office on
the same floor, whom I knew nothing
about."For the convenience of our women
readers, many small ads are
run together under this head. It
makes it easy to find what you want.Have you read the want ads, yet, today?NO ACTION ON CLOSING BILLGovernor Shallenberger Defers Decision on Proposition Until Today.

PARTY TO BOARD THE ADMIRAL

Transfer Will Be Made to Steamer
Which Will Bear the Expedition to the East-Afri-
can Coast.

BULLETIN.

NAPLES, April 5.—Mr. Roosevelt landed
at Arsenal docks at 4:30 this afternoon. He came from the Hamburg in the launch of
the Scorpion, accompanied by Ambassador
Griscom and the members of the ambassador's party.NAPLES, April 5.—Naples is intent to-
day on extending an enthusiastic welcome
to Theodore Roosevelt, former president of
the United States, who arrived here at five
minutes past one this morning on board
the steamer Hamburg on his way from
New York to Mombasa. It is calculated
that fully 50,000 foreigners have come into
the city, especially from Capri, Sorrento
and Amalfi, in the hope of catching a
glimpse of the distinguished traveler.The harbor was given a holiday and
beauty greeting from ashore and there as it
steamed into the bay and dropped anchor.
American flags were flying from the con-sulate, all the hotels and many private
houses in honor of Mr. Roosevelt, and the
ships in the bay are gaily decorated. Prominent among the yachts in port is the Nahana, with Mrs. Robert Goodell on board.
The American gunboat Scorpion makes a
brilliant showing with lines of fluttering
flags from stem to stern.Mr. Roosevelt will leave the Hamburg at this port and transfer to the steamer Admiral, on board which