GOVERNOR HAS HANDS FULL

Politics Dished Up by Legislature Causes Him to Seek Aid.
BANK SECRETARY FINEST PLUM
With Vital Interests at Stake He May Call on Republican Incumbent Royce to Remain in Position.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
LINCOLN, April 8.—(Special.)—Some of the most prominent demagogues in the state have applied for the position of secretary to the State Banking board, which pays a salary of $2,000 a year. This is the very best job created by the late organization for the relief of jobless demagogues and naturally it is very much sought after. E. Royce at present holds the place at a salary of $2,000 a year, and it is freely predicted that he will land the same job with the increased salary whenever the governor gets around to making his selection.

Under the provisions of the banking law the auditor and the attorney general are mere figureheads on the board, inasmuch as the right to assist in making appointments is taken from them and the power vested solely in the governor. But the governor has his hands full and it is believed he is not overly anxious to assume all of the responsibility which goes with the enforcement of the new law. For that reason he likely, so some of those close to the governor say, will not disturb the secretary of the board.

Commission Buys Motorcycles.
The State Railway commission is preparing to begin work under the provisions of the physical valuation bill and very shortly will ask the governor to permit the appointment of experts to discover the physical valuation of railroad property. The commission has placed an order for a $1,100 car to be run on the railroad tracks propelled by a twenty-horse gasoline engine, in which its members and its experts will take rides over the tracks and inspect railroad property.

The commission has not yet figured what plan it will adopt when it starts in on its work, but it will likely take up one railroad system and finish with that before going into another.

New Law to Reduce Oil Cost.
State Oil inspector Mullen has received word that the Standard Oil company intends to reduce the price of gasoline 2 1/2 cents a gallon, due to the operations, he says, of the new oil inspection bill. The new law reduces the tax on gasoline from 6 to 5 1/2, which will permit the introduction of Colorado, Wyoming and Kansas products. He figures this will save to the people of the state at least $175,000, based on the number of barrels of gasoline inspected and tested during the last year.

Under the new law it is set out plain that all highways, except a railroad, shall be private use or for sale, must be tested, and under this clause he expects to catch the railroads, which use a great quantity of oil, and which have heretofore refused to pay for the test inasmuch as they used it themselves. The attorney general has now in his hands for collection a bill against the testing of a railroad, which he will endeavor to collect under the old law through the courts.

Knotty Question for Auditor.
It will very shortly be up to State Auditor Barton to pass on the question of whether a member of the state senate can be interested in a contract in which the state is a party.

A firm of Miller & Pains of Lincoln has secured from the state board of purchase and supplies several contracts for supplies for the state institutions let at the recent meeting of the board. In addition during the month of January this firm sold to the state supplies for the executive mansion. J. E. Miller, a member of the first state officer from being interested in any contract in which the state is a party.

Rock Island Shows Decrease.
The report of the Rock Island railroad to the State Board of Assessment of its value shows the road has done business in this state during the last year amounting to $1,414,455, as against $1,559,829 for the year 1907.

The earnings for the entire system for the year 1908 amounted to $5,435,837, against $5,228,307 for the year 1907. This was for operation alone. The road's surplus for the year 1908 amounted to $994,364, against a surplus of $2,426,122 for the year 1907.

The following table shows the earnings of the Rock Island in Nebraska by months for the years 1907 and 1908.

Gets Cowboy Fever.
Joseph S. Kupa, Jr., of 763 Sawyer avenue, Chicago, is very anxious to be a real cowboy and eventually own a ranch in the wild and woolly west. To attain his ambition he has written the following letter to Deputy Labor Commissioner Maupin:

"In reply to your advertisement in an Omaha paper I beg to offer my services. I worked for two years in the city and I just now get out and become a cowboy on a ranch or work on a farm. I like animals, especially horses and cattle. I can take care of a horse and ride a little, and know something about a lasso. This is the chance I long have hoped for, for this is the line of business I have chosen to follow. I have a horse and I have chosen to become a ranch owner some day. When I get of age I am going to get some government land and paddle my own canoe, for my father says he will start me in.

Watch for Hawkinson.
In recognition of his presence of mind in climbing over a pile driver to an engine cab and bringing the locomotive to a stop the Burlington railroad has given Fred W. Hawkinson, 18, a handsome gold watch. The watch is a handsome engraved, bearing the name of the receiver, and the purpose for which it was given.

On February 15 an accident occurred near Lincoln. Young Hawkinson was on the piledriver at the time and for some reason remained there. The engineer and fireman left their cab and the engine began to "run wild." It started along for a time and then wondered what was the matter. Climbing over into the cab he saw that it was empty. Though he was supposed to know nothing concerning the running of engines the lad closed the throttle and stopped the machine within a few yards of the North Platte bridge.

Waugh Again in Jail.
Charged with wife desertion, Edgar J. Waugh occupies a cell in the county jail, where he was taken Thursday afternoon after a failure to furnish bond. He was arrested at Fifteenth and O streets late Wednesday afternoon by Officer Schmidt on a warrant sworn out by Waugh's father-in-law, Thomas Little of Denton, and the purpose for which it was given.

When Waugh was searched at the police station letters were found on his person that told the story of unrequited love and the admiration for another. The letters told of a divorce that was expected and of another home that would be occupied in Spokane by a younger woman as the wife that was to be.

The girl mentioned in the letters was Miss Emily Gammage of 1020 South Tenth street, who has been working as a stenographer in a Lincoln law office.

Edgar Waugh had told her, she said, that he had been married, but that his wife was soon to secure a divorce. She said that he had never mentioned the term that he had served in the state penitentiary for alleged embezzlement of Lancaster county funds, while he was deputy in the office of the county treasurer about five years ago.

Woman's Mind Unbalanced.
Mrs. Emma Handrock, wife of Ernest Handrock, who lives in Cass county, was brought up from Walton in Lancaster county Thursday evening by Deputy Sheriff Dawson and is held at the county jail as an insane person, pending negotiations in progress to turn her over to the custody of the Cass county authorities.

Mrs. Handrock has conceived the idea that she had bought the Lowry farm of a quarter of a section at Walton. Some time ago she walked from Eagle over to Walton, a distance of about eight miles, and looked over the house which the owner of the farm, Mr. T. A. Gierens of this city had been occupying, and in the temporary absence of the tenant, J. T. Wright, went into the barn and throw down a lot of feed for the stock into the mangers. At that time Mr. Hobby, a neighbor, induced her to go back home.

Wednesday afternoon she again walked over the eight miles and again started in to take possession of the place, until the neighborhood became alarmed and telephoned the sheriff to come and get her. Deputy Sheriff Dawson started with an assistant, and the two had a brisk wrestle all the way to Lincoln in bringing her to this city.

Mrs. Handrock has a brother in the asylum for the incurable at Hastings. Sheriff Hoagland received word Thursday afternoon from the sheriff of Cass county that an officer from that county would start for Lincoln immediately to take Mrs. Handrock back.

Home for Commercial Club.
Circulars have been sent out by Secretary Whitten of the Lincoln Commercial club announcing the meeting of the club members which will be held on June 2 for the purpose of ascertaining whether the club will erect its own building or accept the proposition to take rooms on the top floor of the Bankers' Life Insurance company building that will be erected at Tenth and O streets.

If the members decide in vote against the accepting of rooms in the new insurance building, plans will be begun at once to erect a new structure. The letters were written to the members asking them to submit to the secretary their wishes in the matter so that he make plans for the June meeting, as well as know what is wished in regard to the proposed building.

Requestion for Carter.
Governor Shallenberger today ordered a requisition issued for J. L. Carter, a business man of Kansas City, Mo. The complainant is T. R. Zimmerman of Gage county, who charges misrepresentation in a land deal involving $9,000. A Kansas City attorney argued with the governor against the requisition.

County in Nevada Gets Trick Mule From W. J. Bryan

Announcement Made That Emeralds Will Take Consolation Prize of Last Election.

LINCOLN, April 8.—Announcement was made today at the office of W. J. Bryan that Emeralds county, Nevada, having made the greatest democratic gain in the election last November, has been awarded the prize mule. The mule, Major Minnesmascott, was presented to Mr. Bryan during the campaign by Minnesota admirers, and the then candidate offered it as a prize to the county making the best showing in the election. Emeralds county, it is announced, showed a gain of 94 per cent.

Talk of Contest in Wymore.
WYMORE, Neb., April 8.—(Special.)—There is considerable talk of contesting the recent election. It is said that there was some illegal voting done, principally by men who did not live in the city. Quite a number were challenged Tuesday, but most of the men swore in their votes. The Civic league has a standing offer of a reward of $50 for the conviction of an illegal voter, but no one seems to want to earn it.

Baggage Car on Fire.
VALPARAISO, Neb., April 8.—The combination mail and baggage car on the Union Pacific train, reaching here this evening, was all ablaze as the train pulled in, and was totally destroyed, with its contents. The mail agent was the only occupant of the car and he escaped without injury.
