

PE-RO-U USED FOR KIDNEY CATARRH.

Gen. A. F. Hawley, of Washington, D. C., writes: "I have used Peruna and find it very beneficial for kidney trouble, and especially good for coughs, colds and catarrhal troubles."

Gen. A. F. Hawley.

Kidney Trouble for Nearly Thirty Years.

William Bailey, Past Col. Enc. No. 49, Union Veteran Legion, and prominently identified with many of the great labor protective associations in Chicago and New York, and secretary of one of the largest associations in the former city, had for nearly thirty years been afflicted with kidney troubles.

Kidneys Affected—Back Weak.

Mr. M. Broderick, Secretary and Treasurer Local Union No. 406, International Brotherhood of Teamsters, writes from 425 E. 46th St., Chicago, Ill., as follows: "I have been suffering from a weak back and kidney trouble for some time, and have been able to find relief only through the use of Peruna."

Cold Settled in Kidneys.

Mr. Joseph Klee, 215 East 4th Street, Topeka, Kan., writes: "My wife took Peruna for liver trouble and a run-down condition incident to the same. A few bottles built up her health and strength."

OMAHA IS SECOND IN CORN

Next to Largest Primary Market in the World.

THIS IS RECORD FOR FEBRUARY

Gate City Stands Third in Wheat and Fourth in Oats, According to Report of the Government.

Omaha—second largest primary corn market in the world!

This is the record earned by Omaha during the month of February—not altogether an abnormal month—when both in receipts and shipments of corn the city stands next to Chicago as the next largest of all the primary markets to which the grain makes its initial move on the way from the fields to the consumers.

Omaha is now third in wheat and fourth in oats, according to the government reports, which caused rejoicing on the floor of the Grain Exchange Saturday.

To grain dealers the nearest markets on the Missouri river—nearest to the production—are the coming markets of the world, and the decline and fall of those which have existed and been built up by an arbitrary system of rates is only a question of time.

In total receipts of grain Omaha was tied, the always large receipts of wheat at Minneapolis making that city second regardless of the big receipts of corn at Omaha.

The record of the four largest markets for the month of February in receipts of corn follows:

Table with 2 columns: City, Bushels. Chicago: 7,138,410; Omaha: 2,850,100; St. Louis: 1,982,250; Minneapolis: 1,837,284.

In wheat receipts the cities stand as follows:

Table with 2 columns: City, Bushels. Minneapolis: 1,183,000; Kansas City: 2,479,000; Omaha: 1,254,000; St. Louis: 1,038,000.

The data receipts reported by the Department of Agriculture are as follows:

Table with 2 columns: City, Bushels. Chicago: 5,250,000; St. Louis: 1,200,450; Minneapolis: 976,800; Omaha: 721,400.

Total grain receipts at the four largest primary markets follow:

Table with 2 columns: City, Bushels. Chicago: 11,432,250; Minneapolis: 8,960,250; Omaha: 8,227,700; St. Louis: 4,303,315.

LAWYERS REAP A REVENGE

Smith and Smith Even Up with R. W. Breckenridge Through Damage Verdict.

John Lynn has secured a verdict in district court of $1,200 against the Omaha Packing company for the loss of the use of his arm while working as a butcher for the company. Lynn sued for $2,000.

The verdict is a turnaround between Smith & Smith, who represented the plaintiff, and R. W. Breckenridge, the same lawyers appearing just before this case on opposite sides of the Fitzgerald suit against the Union Stock Yards company, which Judge Kennedy took from the jury on a motion by Breckenridge.

At least that is the word that is passing around among the water board promoters of the proposition. Jim is said to have been persuaded to believe that he can have help financially and otherwise toward floating his damaged political fortunes by joining in with the R. Beecher Howell crowd and that by so doing he can also get the water board organettes to deal more gently with him.

It is pretty generally understood that the mayor could have had a lift for his campaign fund from the water board boosters during the primary fight if he had needed it. He was confident he could win, however, and stood off the intermediaries who approached him. Now that he is the nominee, and handicapped by the ill closing bill signed by the democratic governor, the wise ones "on the street" are freely canvassing his attitude on the $6,500,000 bonds to buy the water works. It is the general impression he will make the deal and declare for the bonds.

Mayor Jim is going to jump in for the $6,500,000 water works bonds.

At least that is the word that is passing around among the water board promoters of the proposition. Jim is said to have been persuaded to believe that he can have help financially and otherwise toward floating his damaged political fortunes by joining in with the R. Beecher Howell crowd and that by so doing he can also get the water board organettes to deal more gently with him.

It is pretty generally understood that the mayor could have had a lift for his campaign fund from the water board boosters during the primary fight if he had needed it. He was confident he could win, however, and stood off the intermediaries who approached him. Now that he is the nominee, and handicapped by the ill closing bill signed by the democratic governor, the wise ones "on the street" are freely canvassing his attitude on the $6,500,000 bonds to buy the water works. It is the general impression he will make the deal and declare for the bonds.

Mayor Jim is going to jump in for the $6,500,000 water works bonds.

At least that is the word that is passing around among the water board promoters of the proposition. Jim is said to have been persuaded to believe that he can have help financially and otherwise toward floating his damaged political fortunes by joining in with the R. Beecher Howell crowd and that by so doing he can also get the water board organettes to deal more gently with him.

It is pretty generally understood that the mayor could have had a lift for his campaign fund from the water board boosters during the primary fight if he had needed it. He was confident he could win, however, and stood off the intermediaries who approached him. Now that he is the nominee, and handicapped by the ill closing bill signed by the democratic governor, the wise ones "on the street" are freely canvassing his attitude on the $6,500,000 bonds to buy the water works. It is the general impression he will make the deal and declare for the bonds.

Mayor Jim is going to jump in for the $6,500,000 water works bonds.

At least that is the word that is passing around among the water board promoters of the proposition. Jim is said to have been persuaded to believe that he can have help financially and otherwise toward floating his damaged political fortunes by joining in with the R. Beecher Howell crowd and that by so doing he can also get the water board organettes to deal more gently with him.

It is pretty generally understood that the mayor could have had a lift for his campaign fund from the water board boosters during the primary fight if he had needed it. He was confident he could win, however, and stood off the intermediaries who approached him. Now that he is the nominee, and handicapped by the ill closing bill signed by the democratic governor, the wise ones "on the street" are freely canvassing his attitude on the $6,500,000 bonds to buy the water works. It is the general impression he will make the deal and declare for the bonds.

Mayor Jim is going to jump in for the $6,500,000 water works bonds.

At least that is the word that is passing around among the water board promoters of the proposition. Jim is said to have been persuaded to believe that he can have help financially and otherwise toward floating his damaged political fortunes by joining in with the R. Beecher Howell crowd and that by so doing he can also get the water board organettes to deal more gently with him.

It is pretty generally understood that the mayor could have had a lift for his campaign fund from the water board boosters during the primary fight if he had needed it. He was confident he could win, however, and stood off the intermediaries who approached him. Now that he is the nominee, and handicapped by the ill closing bill signed by the democratic governor, the wise ones "on the street" are freely canvassing his attitude on the $6,500,000 bonds to buy the water works. It is the general impression he will make the deal and declare for the bonds.

Mayor Jim is going to jump in for the $6,500,000 water works bonds.

At least that is the word that is passing around among the water board promoters of the proposition. Jim is said to have been persuaded to believe that he can have help financially and otherwise toward floating his damaged political fortunes by joining in with the R. Beecher Howell crowd and that by so doing he can also get the water board organettes to deal more gently with him.

It is pretty generally understood that the mayor could have had a lift for his campaign fund from the water board boosters during the primary fight if he had needed it. He was confident he could win, however, and stood off the intermediaries who approached him. Now that he is the nominee, and handicapped by the ill closing bill signed by the democratic governor, the wise ones "on the street" are freely canvassing his attitude on the $6,500,000 bonds to buy the water works. It is the general impression he will make the deal and declare for the bonds.

Mayor Jim is going to jump in for the $6,500,000 water works bonds.

At least that is the word that is passing around among the water board promoters of the proposition. Jim is said to have been persuaded to believe that he can have help financially and otherwise toward floating his damaged political fortunes by joining in with the R. Beecher Howell crowd and that by so doing he can also get the water board organettes to deal more gently with him.

It is pretty generally understood that the mayor could have had a lift for his campaign fund from the water board boosters during the primary fight if he had needed it. He was confident he could win, however, and stood off the intermediaries who approached him. Now that he is the nominee, and handicapped by the ill closing bill signed by the democratic governor, the wise ones "on the street" are freely canvassing his attitude on the $6,500,000 bonds to buy the water works. It is the general impression he will make the deal and declare for the bonds.

Mayor Jim is going to jump in for the $6,500,000 water works bonds.

At least that is the word that is passing around among the water board promoters of the proposition. Jim is said to have been persuaded to believe that he can have help financially and otherwise toward floating his damaged political fortunes by joining in with the R. Beecher Howell crowd and that by so doing he can also get the water board organettes to deal more gently with him.

It is pretty generally understood that the mayor could have had a lift for his campaign fund from the water board boosters during the primary fight if he had needed it. He was confident he could win, however, and stood off the intermediaries who approached him. Now that he is the nominee, and handicapped by the ill closing bill signed by the democratic governor, the wise ones "on the street" are freely canvassing his attitude on the $6,500,000 bonds to buy the water works. It is the general impression he will make the deal and declare for the bonds.

Mayor Jim is going to jump in for the $6,500,000 water works bonds.

At least that is the word that is passing around among the water board promoters of the proposition. Jim is said to have been persuaded to believe that he can have help financially and otherwise toward floating his damaged political fortunes by joining in with the R. Beecher Howell crowd and that by so doing he can also get the water board organettes to deal more gently with him.

Cudahy is to Sell Thirty Thousand Acres of Land

Every Buyer a Settler, Who Gets Eighty Acres in Scott's Bluff County.

E. A. Cudahy, president of the Tri-State Land company, has signed a contract with the Payne Investment company of Omaha for the sale of 30,000 acres of land in western Nebraska for approximately $2,500,000.

The land is largely in Scott's Bluff county, much of it under irrigation ditches of the fertile North Platte valley. It has been held for a number of years as range, but some of it has been cultivated.

The entire tract of 30,000 acres is to be divided into farms and the contract which Mr. Cudahy has made with those who will take over the land requires that it be sold to actual settlers and not in big tracts to speculators nor land agents.

The tract will make 275 farms of eighty acres each, which are considered large enough, as Scott's Bluff county is doing some intensive farming.

The land is near Mitchell and Scott's Bluffs, comparatively new towns in the west which are experiencing a rapid growth.

Mayor Jim is for Water Bonds

Takes Hunch to Go In for That Six Million as Good Thing for Campaign.

Mayor Jim is going to jump in for the $6,500,000 water works bonds.

At least that is the word that is passing around among the water board promoters of the proposition. Jim is said to have been persuaded to believe that he can have help financially and otherwise toward floating his damaged political fortunes by joining in with the R. Beecher Howell crowd and that by so doing he can also get the water board organettes to deal more gently with him.

It is pretty generally understood that the mayor could have had a lift for his campaign fund from the water board boosters during the primary fight if he had needed it. He was confident he could win, however, and stood off the intermediaries who approached him. Now that he is the nominee, and handicapped by the ill closing bill signed by the democratic governor, the wise ones "on the street" are freely canvassing his attitude on the $6,500,000 bonds to buy the water works. It is the general impression he will make the deal and declare for the bonds.

Mayor Jim is going to jump in for the $6,500,000 water works bonds.

At least that is the word that is passing around among the water board promoters of the proposition. Jim is said to have been persuaded to believe that he can have help financially and otherwise toward floating his damaged political fortunes by joining in with the R. Beecher Howell crowd and that by so doing he can also get the water board organettes to deal more gently with him.

It is pretty generally understood that the mayor could have had a lift for his campaign fund from the water board boosters during the primary fight if he had needed it. He was confident he could win, however, and stood off the intermediaries who approached him. Now that he is the nominee, and handicapped by the ill closing bill signed by the democratic governor, the wise ones "on the street" are freely canvassing his attitude on the $6,500,000 bonds to buy the water works. It is the general impression he will make the deal and declare for the bonds.

Mayor Jim is going to jump in for the $6,500,000 water works bonds.

At least that is the word that is passing around among the water board promoters of the proposition. Jim is said to have been persuaded to believe that he can have help financially and otherwise toward floating his damaged political fortunes by joining in with the R. Beecher Howell crowd and that by so doing he can also get the water board organettes to deal more gently with him.

It is pretty generally understood that the mayor could have had a lift for his campaign fund from the water board boosters during the primary fight if he had needed it. He was confident he could win, however, and stood off the intermediaries who approached him. Now that he is the nominee, and handicapped by the ill closing bill signed by the democratic governor, the wise ones "on the street" are freely canvassing his attitude on the $6,500,000 bonds to buy the water works. It is the general impression he will make the deal and declare for the bonds.

Mayor Jim is going to jump in for the $6,500,000 water works bonds.

At least that is the word that is passing around among the water board promoters of the proposition. Jim is said to have been persuaded to believe that he can have help financially and otherwise toward floating his damaged political fortunes by joining in with the R. Beecher Howell crowd and that by so doing he can also get the water board organettes to deal more gently with him.

It is pretty generally understood that the mayor could have had a lift for his campaign fund from the water board boosters during the primary fight if he had needed it. He was confident he could win, however, and stood off the intermediaries who approached him. Now that he is the nominee, and handicapped by the ill closing bill signed by the democratic governor, the wise ones "on the street" are freely canvassing his attitude on the $6,500,000 bonds to buy the water works. It is the general impression he will make the deal and declare for the bonds.

Mayor Jim is going to jump in for the $6,500,000 water works bonds.

At least that is the word that is passing around among the water board promoters of the proposition. Jim is said to have been persuaded to believe that he can have help financially and otherwise toward floating his damaged political fortunes by joining in with the R. Beecher Howell crowd and that by so doing he can also get the water board organettes to deal more gently with him.

It is pretty generally understood that the mayor could have had a lift for his campaign fund from the water board boosters during the primary fight if he had needed it. He was confident he could win, however, and stood off the intermediaries who approached him. Now that he is the nominee, and handicapped by the ill closing bill signed by the democratic governor, the wise ones "on the street" are freely canvassing his attitude on the $6,500,000 bonds to buy the water works. It is the general impression he will make the deal and declare for the bonds.

Mayor Jim is going to jump in for the $6,500,000 water works bonds.

At least that is the word that is passing around among the water board promoters of the proposition. Jim is said to have been persuaded to believe that he can have help financially and otherwise toward floating his damaged political fortunes by joining in with the R. Beecher Howell crowd and that by so doing he can also get the water board organettes to deal more gently with him.

It is pretty generally understood that the mayor could have had a lift for his campaign fund from the water board boosters during the primary fight if he had needed it. He was confident he could win, however, and stood off the intermediaries who approached him. Now that he is the nominee, and handicapped by the ill closing bill signed by the democratic governor, the wise ones "on the street" are freely canvassing his attitude on the $6,500,000 bonds to buy the water works. It is the general impression he will make the deal and declare for the bonds.

Mayor Jim is going to jump in for the $6,500,000 water works bonds.

At least that is the word that is passing around among the water board promoters of the proposition. Jim is said to have been persuaded to believe that he can have help financially and otherwise toward floating his damaged political fortunes by joining in with the R. Beecher Howell crowd and that by so doing he can also get the water board organettes to deal more gently with him.

It is pretty generally understood that the mayor could have had a lift for his campaign fund from the water board boosters during the primary fight if he had needed it. He was confident he could win, however, and stood off the intermediaries who approached him. Now that he is the nominee, and handicapped by the ill closing bill signed by the democratic governor, the wise ones "on the street" are freely canvassing his attitude on the $6,500,000 bonds to buy the water works. It is the general impression he will make the deal and declare for the bonds.

Mayor Jim is going to jump in for the $6,500,000 water works bonds.

At least that is the word that is passing around among the water board promoters of the proposition. Jim is said to have been persuaded to believe that he can have help financially and otherwise toward floating his damaged political fortunes by joining in with the R. Beecher Howell crowd and that by so doing he can also get the water board organettes to deal more gently with him.

It is pretty generally understood that the mayor could have had a lift for his campaign fund from the water board boosters during the primary fight if he had needed it. He was confident he could win, however, and stood off the intermediaries who approached him. Now that he is the nominee, and handicapped by the ill closing bill signed by the democratic governor, the wise ones "on the street" are freely canvassing his attitude on the $6,500,000 bonds to buy the water works. It is the general impression he will make the deal and declare for the bonds.

Mayor Jim is going to jump in for the $6,500,000 water works bonds.

At least that is the word that is passing around among the water board promoters of the proposition. Jim is said to have been persuaded to believe that he can have help financially and otherwise toward floating his damaged political fortunes by joining in with the R. Beecher Howell crowd and that by so doing he can also get the water board organettes to deal more gently with him.

It is pretty generally understood that the mayor could have had a lift for his campaign fund from the water board boosters during the primary fight if he had needed it. He was confident he could win, however, and stood off the intermediaries who approached him. Now that he is the nominee, and handicapped by the ill closing bill signed by the democratic governor, the wise ones "on the street" are freely canvassing his attitude on the $6,500,000 bonds to buy the water works. It is the general impression he will make the deal and declare for the bonds.

Mayor Jim is going to jump in for the $6,500,000 water works bonds.

At least that is the word that is passing around among the water board promoters of the proposition. Jim is said to have been persuaded to believe that he can have help financially and otherwise toward floating his damaged political fortunes by joining in with the R. Beecher Howell crowd and that by so doing he can also get the water board organettes to deal more gently with him.

It is pretty generally understood that the mayor could have had a lift for his campaign fund from the water board boosters during the primary fight if he had needed it. He was confident he could win, however, and stood off the intermediaries who approached him. Now that he is the nominee, and handicapped by the ill closing bill signed by the democratic governor, the wise ones "on the street" are freely canvassing his attitude on the $6,500,000 bonds to buy the water works. It is the general impression he will make the deal and declare for the bonds.

Mayor Jim is going to jump in for the $6,500,000 water works bonds.

At least that is the word that is passing around among the water board promoters of the proposition. Jim is said to have been persuaded to believe that he can have help financially and otherwise toward floating his damaged political fortunes by joining in with the R. Beecher Howell crowd and that by so doing he can also get the water board organettes to deal more gently with him.

It is pretty generally understood that the mayor could have had a lift for his campaign fund from the water board boosters during the primary fight if he had needed it. He was confident he could win, however, and stood off the intermediaries who approached him. Now that he is the nominee, and handicapped by the ill closing bill signed by the democratic governor, the wise ones "on the street" are freely canvassing his attitude on the $6,500,000 bonds to buy the water works. It is the general impression he will make the deal and declare for the bonds.

Mayor Jim is going to jump in for the $6,500,000 water works bonds.

CHINA AND AMERICA MIX

Four Orientals Go to Mat with Convivial Yankees.

JUDGE CRAWFORD ARBITRATOR

Scene of Conflict is Chop Suey Emporium and the Battle Rages Until Neutral Powers Arrive.

An Sue, Sing Lung, Joe Chee and Pen Yi, four yellow men who work at the chop suey and yokamame emporium known as the Golden Eagle at Twelfth and Douglas streets, from the profits of which Chiu Joe Lee buys his hair oil and income, are firm believers in the fitness of things.

When things weren't fit Friday morning they determined to make them so, even if they had to cross racial lines. Before they were through they crossed the law and landed in jail, almost stopping the flow of traffic—and still on their feet.

That did not please those members of the Golden Eagle's staff and suey choppers whose color is yellowish-brown and who reverse the length of their pigtails. So Harris decided that he was too tired to work and straightway asked for his "time."

He got it—and a hot time, too. Demands for more cash than the manager gave him only started a wordy battle that soon took on the form of a fusillade of cups and saucers. And when the Lincolnite found the door, the righteous wrath of the Chinamen had led them out to the sidewalk after him.

Yankee on the Bottom.

When the calm settled upon the place after the final charge, it looked as if the American had almost been defeated by the Orientals, who retired to their posts of duty to discuss the engagement in syllables of classic Manchu. Harris went to the police station where he was given a made-to-order skull cap of absorbent gauze to shield his perforated scalp from the zephyrs of spring.

In police court Saturday morning Harris told the story of the battle of Eagle Run and how he had been forced to lower his colors by a flow of blood from his battered head, all because four yellow perils had objected to his having a good time.

Warrants for the arrest of the quartet were sworn out and served while the court was in session, but it was found that a piece of paper with printing and writing on it was not sufficient inducement for a true native of the land of the rising sun or golden dragon to leave his kettle of bird's nest soup, or "mess" of sea weed. The patrol wagon was necessary.

"That may be so," remarked the judge in reply to the explanations of the white man, "but I'll fine you $5 and costs each for fighting."

For fifteen long minutes, while the proprietor of the Golden Eagle scraped together as many golden eagles as were needed to pay the fines and while impatient patrons of the restaurant hammered upon the counter with their spoons, poor Alvin Sing Lung, Joe Chee and Pen Yi sneered through the windows of the "bull pen" or remarked in untranslatable phrases upon the horrors of liquor and the dolours of certain policemen and judges until they were finally released, after each had handed over $7.50 to Court Clerk Mahoney and had been told not to battle with the true man rum while there was a police station within call.

Funeral of Mark Jones—The funeral of Mark Jones, the old soldier who died at the County hospital Thursday, is to be held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Braly & Dorrance chapel, Nineteenth and Cumings streets. Burial will be in the West Lawn cemetery. Mr. Jones is survived by his widow, a daughter and three sons.

Alimony of Twelve Hundred Dollars—Alimony amounting to $1,200 was ordered by Judge Troup Saturday morning to be paid Claire Helms by Arnold Helms. The man is given a decree of divorce. It is stipulated by Miss Zora Shales, Miss Ella Phelps, Miss Mary A. Hanting and Miss Susan Faxon. Most of them are expected to be in their places Monday.

Miss Wilson, whose case is the most serious of the six, and whose recovery from a five weeks' illness from an attack of the grip was doubtful, is reported as being some better. Dr. J. H. Vance, member of the school board, the attending physician, says he now has hopes for her recovery.

Grip was the ailment in the other five cases, in some instances being complicated with other troubles. Miss Paxon was out of school on account of the death of her mother, and was also on the verge of collapse herself as a result of her mother's illness and her own overwork.

Sister of Omaha Lawyer a Suicide

Mrs. Caroline Pritchett of Utica, N. Y., Kills Herself at Massachusetts Sanitarium.

WORCESTER, Mass., April 10.—Miss Caroline M. Pritchett of Utica, N. Y., committed suicide at a local sanitarium last night by inhaling illuminating gas. Miss Pritchett, who was 66 years of age, had been suffering from melancholy. She leaves a brother, George E. Pritchett, of Omaha.

Mr. Pritchett, 224 Cass street, received word of his sister's death Saturday morning. He said she had been ill for some time. Miss Pritchett had never lived in Omaha. She had been making her home with a niece at Worcester.

Sidewalk Not for Private Use

Court Rules City Cannot Divert Public Property for Individual Purposes.

The Loose-Wiles company's loading dock in front of its new factory received its coup de grace Saturday morning, when Judge Troup of the district court made permanent the temporary injunction against building this platform. Michael Glausser represented by J. A. C. Kennedy, was the opponent of the cracker company in the latter as well as the first proceedings.

Judge Troup's ruling covered the same ground as in his first decision, that the legislature has no power to empower the city to divert for the private use of an individual, streets or alleys.

FITCH IS STILL IN ILLINOIS

Will Return Next Week, Says His Sister, Who Went to Meet Him.

Miss Julia Fitch has returned from Chicago, where she spent several weeks ago to meet her brother, Edward P. Fitch, who recently returned from Europe. Mr. Fitch is still in Illinois visiting friends and will not return to Council Bluffs until next week.

"He has nothing further to say of his recent visit to Europe," said Miss Fitch, "than has appeared in his letter to the press explaining the causes of his absence. His health is excellent."

Miss Fitch resides with her mother and brother and sister in Council Bluffs and is employed by the McQuigg Investment company of Omaha.

BRIEF CITY NEWS

1909 APRIL 1909

SUN MON TUE WED THU FRI SAT

1 2 3

4 5 6 7 8 9 10

11 12 13 14 15 16 17

18 19 20 21 22 23 24

25 26 27 28 29 30

THE BEE OFFICE

The Counting Room and Business Office of The Bee is temporarily located on Seventeenth street, in the room formerly occupied by Hastings & Meydan. Advertisements and subscription matters will be attended to until the new quarters are ready.

Have Root Print It. Mahogany Clocks—Edholm, Jeweler.

Volmerez, expert clothes fitters, 197 E. 16.

Rudolph F. Swoboda, Public Accountant. Mieshart, photographer, 18th & Farnam.

Quintable Life—Policies, sight drafts at maturity. H. D. Neely, manager, Omaha.

W. M. Thomas, 503 First National Bank Bldg., lends money on Omaha real estate in sums of $50 to $50,000. Prompt service.

The Nebraska Savings & Loan Ass'n loans on homes only in Douglas county. Service prompt, terms reasonable. Board of Trade building.

The Original Fidelity and Casualty Co. of New York, through their general agents for Nebraska, H. E. Palmer, Son & Co., have donated to the Elks fair a one-hundred-dollar-a-week accident policy.

Fashion Play—Dramatic reading and personal impressions by F. T. Rouse. Interpretation by vested choir and organ. Vespers at First Congregational church at 4:30 p. m. Easter Sunday.

Petit Federal Jury Monday—The federal petit jury will be empanelled Monday for the trial of jury cases. The grand jury will convene Tuesday, April 20.

Practice of Medicine—Dr. R. J. Midgeley will address the Omaha Philosophical society Sunday at 3 o'clock p. m. in Bagright's hall, Nineteenth and Farnam streets, on "The Practice of Medicine."

Fire Starts at Moving Time—While the family of G. W. Homan was packing his