MUSIC FOR A JOYFUL DAY

Easter Services Are to Be More Elaborate Than Usual.
ALL CREDS PRAISE RISEN LORD
Pulpit, Choir and Few Send Up Their Songs to Savior Who Conquered Death and Sit on High.
Probably never before have the Easter musical programs arranged by the churches of Omaha been so elaborate as those prepared for the present sacred festival.
All denominations and creeds have vied in making the day one which will be remembered at least until another Easter rolls around. All forms of music are represented in the programs—sops, quartets, cantatas, and, in several of the churches, that greatest of all, the wonderful Hallelujah chorus.
The addresses and sermons by the pastors of the city all have for their central theme the resurrection and the thoughts which are associated with it, and if Easter weather is at all what it should be there probably will be a church attendance which will mark a high-water mark in the religious life of the city.

The choir of the Immanuel Baptist, Twenty-fourth and Pinkney, will render the following music Easter Sunday, morning and evening:
Processional—Hail to the Brightness of Zion's Glad Morning.....Macon
Anthem—Awake, for the Golden Glories Break.....Kirkpatrick
Response—Holy Holy, Holy (Emmelar).....Barby
Anthem—The Resurrection.....Hughes
Anthem—Christ, the Lord, is Risen Today.....Lewis
Response—Now the Day is Over (Emmelar).....Barby
The special feature of Easter at the First Congregational on Easter day will be the story of the Passion play, in word and song, at the 4:30 vesper service. Rev. W. T. Young, who visited Oberammergau, will render the story, interspersed with music by choir and organ.
The beautiful Easter cantata "Death and Life," by Harry Rowe Shelley, to be given at the North Side Christian church Sunday evening is one of this American composer's most effective cantatas, representing the crucifixion, burial and resurrection of Christ. The strong choruses of the Jews mocking Jesus, of the lamentations of the multitude and the final rejoicing over the resurrection, are connected by the solo reciting Christ's giving up the ghost, "the world in sorrow weeping" and the visit of Mary, with the bass solo singing the words of Jesus. The chorus will be supported by piano, violin and organ, and will be directed by the direction of Mrs. H. J. Kirshstein.

First Baptist, Twenty-ninth Avenue and Harney—Special Easter music under direction of Margaret Boulter, organist, and choir of sixteen trained singers, including the following soloists: Mrs. Lester T.
