Grip Knocked Out.

"Some weeks ago during the severe winter weather both my wife and myself contracted severe colds which speedily developed into the worst kind of the grip with all its miserable symptoms," says Mr. J. S. Eggleston, of Maple Landing, Iowa. "Knees and joints aching, muscles sore, head stopped up, eyes and nose running, with alternate spells of chills and fever." We began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, adding the same with a double dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and by its liberal use soon completely knocked out the grip."

COUNCIL STIFLES INDUSTRY

Brick Yards Cannot Locate on Trackage if Ordinance Passes.

CITIZENS AFRAID OF SMOKE

Would Rather Pay Several Dollars Per Thousand to Get Brick from Kansas Than Have Kiln Nuisance Here.

The brick making industry in Omaha will be limited and the more brick yards will be allowed within the city limits providing the council concurs in the report of the committee of the whole and passes an ordinance prohibiting extending this industry. The committee yesterday afternoon recommended the ordinance for passage. Councilman Bridges voicing the only objection.
J. Herman Kritzenbrink, a South Omaha manufacturer of brick, applied for a permit to establish a yard at Thirty-sixth and Wright streets, Omaha, but he was met with the objections of about 20 property owners who sent a petition to the council protesting against the proposed yard, which, they declared, would be a nuisance.
This protest was received, but instead of refusing a permit to establish a brickyard at Thirty-sixth and Wright streets or the immediate vicinity, the council decided to prohibit the same anywhere in the city.
There is no ex-post facto provision in the ordinance, and those kilns now established will be allowed to operate.
Councilman Bridges exerted himself tremendously in behalf of the brick manufacturer, made a strenuous speech in the council chamber but all for naught.

Business Sense Assessed.

"Here we are trying to build a greater Omaha, but whenever anyone comes along and attempts to spend his money in establishing a new enterprise which would give employment to scores and scores of men, we shut the door of the city in his face and tell him to clear out," said the councilman. "How in the name of Caesar are we going to build up a city with tactics of this sort? Brick is shipped to Omaha every day from Kansas and Missouri. If we had more kilns in this city so that the supply could meet the demand, we would not need to send our money out of the city and it would stay in Omaha and go into the pockets of Omaha workmen."

Citizens, some of whom lived a mile from the proposed brick yard, objected on account of the smoke which would issue from the plant, but Mr. Bridges declared the smoke would not be half as dangerous as the gas tank which the council refused to move. "And gas tanks blow up every little while and kill scores of people, but no one ever heard of a brick kiln blowing up," said the councilman.

$145,000 for Engine Houses.

The committee of the whole also recommended for passage the ordinance submitting to a vote of the people the proposition of issuing bonds in the sum of $145,000 to buy sites and erect fire engine houses.
This came up in the council last week, but Councilman Zimmerman succeeded in getting it referred to the committee of the whole for further investigation. This he did in the hope that the council would agree to a saving of $15,000 and erect house No. 2 on the land adjacent to the city jail and owned by the city. Mr. Zimmerman is out of the city and Mr. Bridges attempted to fight the battle alone yesterday, but lost.
The committee failed to coincide with the view of Mr. Bridges, backed by plans, that a fire engine house could be erected on the vacant city property adjacent to the jail and decided to buy a new site. Mr. Bridges then endeavored to have the bonds read:
"For the purchase of sites and the erection and equipment of fire engine houses." Instead of just for sites and the houses. If the word "equipment" was included any balance could be used in buying apparatus, otherwise it must go into the sinking fund, where it cannot be used. But the council squashed him again.

IOWA MAN NOT GUILTY

OF ILLICIT LIQUOR SELLING Discharged by Commissioner Anderson, Before Whom He is Hailed as a Fugitive.
R. W. Griffith was arrested Monday night by Deputy United States Marshal Proctor on a warrant sworn out before United States Commissioner Anderson, charging him with being a fugitive from justice from Iowa, where he was alleged to have been wanted for selling liquor at Red Oak without first procuring the special government license to do so.
Griffith was lodged in jail over night and given his hearing before Commissioner Anderson Tuesday morning. No evidence was adduced to indicate that Griffith was guilty as charged and Commissioner Anderson discharged him. It was shown in the evidence that Griffith had a government license to sell liquor at retail in Iowa, but nothing was introduced to show that he had sought to sell liquor in Red Oak.

ELKS' FAIR ABOUT TO OPEN

Long Talked-Of Festival Will Start with Big Spectacle, Wednesday Night.
The long talked-of and widely advertised Elks' fair begins Wednesday evening, to continue ten days. The doors of the Auditorium when the fair will be held, will be thrown open at 8 o'clock and the fair will start off with a "big splash," as one of the committeemen expressed it.
The committeemen and other Elks not employed worked like beavers all day Tuesday, and another hard day's work will be put in Wednesday in getting things in readiness and in the hope of all to have everything as it should be when the doors are opened.
Two airships loaded with tickets of admission were sent up by the Elks Tuesday noon. One of them floated to the east and came down somewhere in Iowa. The other lighted in Omaha and a small boy captured and its freight. This and other fair enough tickets to take himself and all his playmates to the fair. More airships will be sent up Wednesday.
"Elks' Guests, Welcome," will be displayed on the welcome arch across Farnham street Wednesday night, and Fifteenth street, from Farnham street to Howard street, will be brilliantly lighted with festoons of incandescent lamps strung on both sides. The arch and street will be lighted on every night during the fair.
The Union Pacific is preparing a big show booth which it will have at the Auditorium at the Elks' fair and also for the Electrical show, which will be at the Auditorium in May.

AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

Paving Firm Now Free to Act on Q Street Contract.

PETITION TO EXTEND STREET

Residents Along South Forty-Fourth Ask that it Be Stretched Out to the County Line.

The city council in session Monday approved the contract and bond of the National Construction company for the paving of Q street from Twenty-fourth to Twentieth streets. The company can now proceed with the work as soon as convenient.
The bonds for the pavement of this street were sold a year ago.
A lengthy petition was received from citizens living on South Forty-fourth street asking that that street be opened south of Q street to the county line. The undertaking involves the opening of a street through a large tract of land where the right of way would have to be purchased.
The owner has signified that he would sell the right of way for the street. N. P.
Dodge appeared before the council and made an argument in favor of the street.
Some members thought the project was not feasible on account of scarcity of funds which might be used to such a purpose.
The poundmaster's ordinance was recommended to second and third reading without amendment. Two members of the council argued against the rating of the fee for licensing dogs.
The Omaha & Council Bluffs Street Railway company was ordered by resolution to use the automatic sprinkler during the summer season on the L street streets.
A bond sale of the L street paving bonds and the E street paving bonds amounting to $1,150 was fixed for May 3, 1909.
L street was ordered repaired from the western termination of the viaduct to Thirtieth and Boulevard. The city engineer's estimates for the north branch of the N street gulch sewer in favor of Hannon & Craig to the amount of $1,190 were allowed; $1,290 was also allowed for work on the Mud Creek sewer.
The flagman's ordinance to compel the Rock Island to place a flagman on the crossing in Albright was passed.
A resolution was passed advising the South Omaha Board of Fire and Police Commissioners to instruct the Police Department that, in cases of accident, no one except the city physician should be called unless a positive emergency existed and the city physician was out of reach.
A large batch of sidewalk ordinances were introduced and were referred to the committee on judiciary.
