In speaking of the Moon bill, which limits the number of saloons in cities and towns to one for each 1,000 inhabitants, State Senator Saunders, who addressed the meeting of the Methodist Brotherhood at the Broadway church last evening on "The Work of the Last Legislature," said:

DES MOINES, April 12.—George Dunleavy, an Iowa telephone company lineman, was instantly killed and Benjamin Sicker, his helper, seriously injured by a live wire today. They were repairing damage wrought by last night's thunderstorm. Dunleavy's body was held to the pole until the current was turned off.

Financial Managers at Capital.
Quite contrary to the general impression that has gone out the three financial representatives under the new Board of Education will not live, one at each institution, but will all be required to live in Des Moines and from their offices at the state house all three will look after the financial department of the three colleges.

The meeting of the Associated Charities, to have been held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Lewis Cutler, was postponed for one week.

This is the law that provides that houses of ill repute may be enjoined, just as saloons are now enjoined, for failure to observe the law. The law places within the hands of persons aggrieved by the presence of such places, a remedy which can be easily and effectively applied.

A building permit was issued yesterday to Myrtle brothers for a two-story brick house, structure at 22 and 23rd and North Main street to cost $5,000.
A permit for a one-story frame cottage at 25 South Fifteenth street to cost $300. A permit for a frame store building at 223 1/2 Avenue 42 to cost $400 was issued to J. J. Smith.

Judge Wheeler, of the district court, announced yesterday that he would hand down this morning his decisions in the twenty-two saloon injunction cases brought by the Anti-Saloon league in the name of Joseph Roder of Oakland as plaintiff, which had been taken under advisement by him. In practically all of these cases the injunctions are sought on alleged technical violations of the law. In some cases, it is alleged that the defendant saloonkeeper violated the law by failing to post the multet tax promptly on the first day of January. In other cases, it is alleged, the saloonman was in violation of the law when he filed a renewal merely of his bond, and not a new one at the beginning of the year.

DES MOINES, April 12.—(Special.)—W. Ellis, a salesman for a local grocery, has disappeared, leaving a killer and several small children in destitute circumstances. Ellis has not been heard from for some weeks.

Curator High and Dry.
Prof. Schambaugh of the State university at Iowa City, has handed Governor B. F. Carroll his resignation as curator of the State Historical department. Mr. Schambaugh was appointed to succeed the late Charles Aldrich, shortly before convening of the legislature. He immediately commenced lobbying the legislature for a bill that would give him a salary of $3,000 per year and some high-grade assistants. This, the legislature refused to pass and instead placed the supervision of all the departments under State Librarian John B. Brigham, providing for a historical curator at $1,500 per year.

Improvements at Fair Grounds.
It is expected that the State Fair association will soon begin making improvements at the state fair grounds, including the construction of the new steel grandstand for which the legislature appropriated $100,000. It is hoped to have this grandstand completed for the state fair this year. According to plans it will be a big improvement at the race course, giving it a good grandstand with a sward in front of it.

CHICAGO, April 13.—An advance abstract of statistics of American railroads for the year ending June 30, 1908, as compiled by the Bureau of Railway News and Statistics of the Salvation Army, was read Monday at a remarkable celebration in Carnegie hall in honor of his eightieth birthday of the founder and commander of the Salvation Army in America, read the message to the packed hall. It was as follows:

WASHINGTON, April 13.—Samuel Gomper, president of the American Federation of Labor, has arranged for an important labor conference at the White House next Friday afternoon, when matters affecting the interests of organized labor will be discussed between President Taft and the members of the executive council of the American Federation of Labor, which began its sessions here today. The matter which will be considered at this conference were informally discussed at today's meeting. In the absence of Vice President Duncanson, Alpine, Morris, Hayes and Hallentine, who are expected tomorrow, the consideration of the reports of President Gomper and Secretary Morrison was deferred until that time.

CHICAGO, April 13.—The two-cent passenger fare legislation is shown to have been $125,540,480 instead of $111,001,000, as given in the commission statement.
The two-cent passenger fare legislation, which would result in a loss of $200,000,000 in gross earnings, although more passengers were carried. This is accounted for by a reduction in average receipts per passenger mile on 81 per cent of the mileage from 2,044 cents in 1907 to 1,932 in 1908.

Calhoun Jury Completed.
SAN FRANCISCO, April 12.—The jury which will try Patrick Calhoun, president of United Railways, on a charge of offering a bribe, was completed today.

CHICAGO, April 12.—Another murder of a peculiarly desperate character, attributed by the police to the Black Hand society, occurred here Monday. Joseph Fillipoli, a grocer, was shot in front of his store by an Italian who was caught and identified later as having left a letter demanding $1,000 on a saloonkeeper's bar in the neighborhood two weeks ago.

BOSTON, Mass., April 12.—That President Taft will occupy a house on Woodbury Point at Beverly, owned by Robert D. Evans of this city, and adjoining the Evans summer residence, was the announcement made here today. It is expected that some of the Taft family will be in Beverly during the next weeks in June.

"About two years ago I was troubled with my head being scaly, like dandruff but heavier—although I wash my hair every day with Cuticura a week always, it never gave me any trouble such as itching or itching. After that I had an attack of typhoid fever and I was out of the hospital for possibly two months when I first noticed the loss of hair, my scalp being scaly. I started to use a dandruff cure to no effect whatever. And I used a quinine preparation quite freely which did no good either. Whether it was the effect of the fever or some scalp disease I don't know, but I had actually lost half of saving my hair at all. I could brush it off my coat by the handful. It got so bad that I didn't need to comb it any more—in fact I was afraid to. My brother, who had used two boxes of Cuticura Soap and advised me to try them. After using two cakes of Cuticura Soap and nearly a box of Cuticura Ointment, the change was so rapid, my scalp is now clear and healthy as could be and my hair thicker than ever, whereas six months ago I had my mind made up to be bald in a short time. I will have a photograph taken later and send you one. William F. Stone, 5812 Broadway, Pittsburg, Penn., May 7 and 21, '08."
