

WILL ENFORCE ANTI-TRUST LAW

Departments of Justice, and Interior and Commission to Co-operate.
WICKERSHAM CALLS CONFERENCE
Informal Discussion of Plans to Establish Closer Relationship.
PLAN OF PRESIDENT TAFT
Amendments to Existing Laws Will Be Suggested.
RUMORS OF FRICTION ARE DENIED
Cabinet Members and Officials of Commission Say There is No Foundation for Reports of Conflict.

WASHINGTON, April 14.—An important conference was held today at the Department of Justice, the parties to it being Attorney General Wickersham, Solicitor General Bowers, Secretary Nagel of the Department of Commerce and Labor, Secretary Ballinger of the Interior department, Chairman Knapp and Commissioner Prouty of the Interstate Commerce commission and Representative Townsend of Michigan. The idea of the conference was to form among the Department of Justice, the Department of Commerce and Labor and the Interstate Commerce commission a close co-ordination in the work of the three. Ten days ago Attorney General Wickersham indicated to those who were present at today's conference that he desired to consult with them concerning President Taft's plan to effect a closer relationship among the departments, particularly with respect to the consideration of cases involving alleged violations of the anti-trust law. In the view of President Taft, it may be possible to frame amendments to the existing law that will bring about the desired co-ordination. The discussion today was purely academic and informal. No reference was made to the letter of Attorney General Wickersham concerning the Morris Packing company of Chicago or to any other specific case now pending before the Department of Justice. It can be said authoritatively that rumors of friction between the Department of Justice and the Interstate Commerce commission are without substantial foundation. This statement is made directly by the attorney general, by Secretary Nagel and by the commissioners representing the Interstate Commerce commission. Chairman Knapp of the commission and Commissioner Lane, in charge of the prosecutions by the commission, unite in the declaration that the relations between the commission and the Department of Justice are friendly and not the least disquieting is felt by the commission at any action taken by the Department of Justice. It is the desire of the administration to work out a plan of reference that will be satisfactory to the departments and will promote the interests of the public. It is asserted that the three departments will work in consonance in the carrying out of this general scheme initiated by President Taft.

Ten Riot Leaders Are Put to Death

Execution Ends Religious Trouble Back of Street Battle in Mexico.
EL PASO, Tex., April 14.—The Herald's correspondent at Torreón, Mexico, thirty miles from Valdemera, where the riots occurred on Saturday last, resulting from an order preventing a religious parade, has returned from the scene of the trouble and reported that one rural, one woman and three other men were killed in the street fights. Ten of the leaders of the rioters were taken prisoners and executed. On arriving at Valdemera Sunday night, the correspondent says, the soldiers compelled the leader of the band engaged to furnish music for the procession to give the names of the men who had contracted for the music. He gave a list of fifteen names and ten of this number were arrested. Upon the order of the governor the men were summarily executed at dawn Monday. The remaining five men are being searched for. The town is still in control of the troops and order is being maintained. The riot was directed solely against the authorities and none of the property of Americans was damaged.

Brown Asks Free Lumber, Burkett Duty on Hides

Nebraska Senators Will Offer Amendments to the Tariff Bill According to Their Views.
(From a Staff Correspondent.)
WASHINGTON, April 14.—(Special Telegram.)—Senator Brown will tomorrow offer amendments to the pending tariff. One of these out sections is the lumber schedule, having relation to the lumber from the free list. The other amendment will put a specific duty of half a cent per pound on pumestone, manufactured or unmanufactured. Later Senator Brown will address the senate in support of these amendments. Senator Burkett said today he was strongly in favor of a duty on hides and would probably make a speech in support of such a duty, which is in the interests of the cattle growers of the country, free hides being only in the interests of the tanners.

Former Representative Pete Hepburn closed his Washington home today and left tonight with his family for Clarinda, Ia., to remain during the summer. Colonel Hepburn is either unprepared to say whether he will seek the nomination for the Sixty-second congress or does not consider it politic to discuss the matter just now. He merely smiled when it was suggested that he might again seek a seat in the House from his old district.

Night Riders Are Terror to Renters

Make Threats Against Tenants Who Pay More Than One-Third Crop Rent.
WASHINGTON, Ind., April 14.—"Night riders" are terrorizing land owners and tenants in the vicinity of Harrison's Ferry, south of this city. William Schrock, owner of 700 acres in that neighborhood, reported that twenty men on horseback visited all his tenants and informed them that if they paid greater rent than one-third of the crop raised, their crops would be mowed before they became ripe. A riding party was destroyed with an axe. Farming machinery belonging to three tenants on another farm were destroyed. Thomas Taylor, a wealthy land owner, received by mail a package containing powder and matches, with a note of warning of what he might expect if he insisted on a one-half crop rental. A few days ago a stranger entered a store at Ivy and asked the merchant for reduced price on all the carriage whips in stock. This is taken that the riders intend to administer floggings.

Is Helen Boyle Runaway Maid?

St. Louis Couple Think She Resembles Servant Who Absconded with Jewelry.
ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 14.—In the hope of discovering their missing house maid, "Clara," who disappeared September 30, 1907, on the same morning that $2,100 worth of jewelry was stolen from a small cabinet at their home, 19 Lenox place, Mr. and Mrs. H. Chouteau Dyer have gone to Sharon, Pa., to look at Mrs. Helen Boyle. The girl who disappeared was a new employee, Mrs. Dyer knowing her only as "Clara." She was about 25 years old and had "blue-gray eyes, with a cast in one of them." Mrs. Dyer has seen published photographs of Helen Boyle, and has read newspaper descriptions of the woman. She came to the conclusion several days ago that the picture resembled "Clara" also, and that the description fitted "Clara" also. Accordingly she and Mr. Dyer have gone to Sharon to look at the famous prisoner there.

Lavelle Jobless May Now Go and Get Crazy Snake

Eureka: "Just as The Bee said," remarked Patsy Heafey as Martin Lavelle, patrolman No. 34, turned up from being lost. "I knew, too, that he was around town somewhere and would stroll in like that." Martin Lavelle did not go gunning for Chief Crazy Snake. He was not the man who laid low that warrior bold who has terrorized the southwest and landed on the front page for days in succession. But Martin Lavelle is at liberty to go and hunt for Crazy Snake or any other snake, for Chief Donahue has given him a suspension from police duty in Omaha. This suspension will continue in force and effect until Martin Lavelle gives satisfactory explanation for his sudden disappearance from his post April 2. Police officers who peremptorily quit their posts of duty are not the ones that catch the thief, so the chief believes. Possible dismissal from the police force

NEW CABINET TAKES CHARGE

Peace Reigns in Turkey Following Change in Ministry Demanded by Army.

TEWFIK PASHA GRAND VIZIER
Soldiers Disperse Quietly to Quarters When Announcement is Made.

RELIGIOUS PARTY IN CONTROL
Imperial Proclamation Orders Observance of Sheri Laws.

NIGHT IS ONE OF ALARM
Volleys Fired by Troops in Celebration of Victory of Young Turks is Mistaken for Populace for Fighting.

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 14.—The members of the new cabinet have been installed in office. Immediately after the ceremonies, which were followed by the reading of the imperial proclamation, ordained the observance of the Sheri laws and the preservation of the constitution, the troops, who since yesterday have surrounded Parliament building, dispersed quietly and returned to their quarters. On their way they fired volleys from their rifles as a sign of rejoicing. The cabinet, as definitely constituted, is as follows: Grand Vizier—Tewfik Pasha. Minister of War—Edhem Pasha. Minister of Marine—Vice Admiral Adjem Pasha. Minister of the Interior—Adil Bey. Minister of Justice—Haan Fehmi Pasha. Minister of Finance—Nury Bey. The other posts are filled by the previous incumbents.

City Quiet in Morning.
Constantinople was quieter this morning after the exciting occurrences of yesterday and business gradually resumed. A majority of the garrison, however, still occupied a position in front of the Chamber of Deputies and the War office, where it awaited the formation of a new cabinet.

The night, however, was one of alarm. The troops celebrated the overthrow of the young Turks by firing continuous rifle volleys. This alarmed the entire population of the city. The people were ignorant of the cause of the firing and thought a fight was going on. The sultan granted practically all the demands of the riotous troops, namely, the adoption of the Sheri laws as the basis for new laws; the dismissal of the grand vizier, the minister of war and marine, and Ahmed Risa, president of the Chamber, the latter to be replaced by Ismail Kemal, provisional leader of the liberal union; the removal from Constantinople of Hussein Jahid, chief editor of Tanin, and of Rahmi and Javid, deputies of the Salimki; the appointment of Zohrab, an influential member of the liberal union, to be vice president of the Chamber of Deputies, and the removal of the officers of the Salimki battalions of chasoures.

The casualties resulting from the rioting of yesterday include Nezim Pasha, minister of justice in the late cabinet, who was mistaken for the grand vizier, the minister of marine and killed; Rafi Pasha, minister of marine, who was wounded, and Sadik Pasha, who was killed. There also were several casualties among the troops. Upheaval was expected. The events of yesterday surprised nobody in Constantinople. An upheaval was expected as a result of the recent developments and the increasing dictatorial methods of the committee of union and progress. The incentive to the movement appears to have emanated from the recently formed Mohammedan league. The efforts of this organization were aided by a general order from the commander of the First Army corps insisting that the troops must fire, when so ordered by their officers, even upon theological teachers and students when these individuals participated in demonstrations. The issuance of this order inflamed the popular opinion and the soldiers, under the direction of the commissioned officers, revolted. They seized and bound their commissioned officers and marched to the mosque of St. Sophia, where they voted the demands that since have been acceded to. Notwithstanding the absence of the commanding officers, the general order of discipline. The deputies arriving at the House of Parliament were saluted by them, a fact that showed that the movement was not hostile to the constitution. There was a certain amount of desultory firing during the day, but mostly into the air. When it was learned that their demands had been granted, the mutineers, headed by a band, marched to Yildiz Kiosk for the purpose of acclaiming the sultan. They requested his majesty to repair to Stamboul and wear the "green turban" in order to testify his respect for religion. On their way to Yildiz Kiosk the troops were cheered by the people and with cries of "Long live the Mohammedan religion." Constantinople was in a state of panic all day long and business was at a standstill.

LOGAN, Ia., April 14.—(Special Telegram.)—Mrs. William Egan died at her home in Modale early yesterday morning. PROHIBITION IN MISSOURI

House Votes to Submit Constitutional Amendment to People.

IT NOW GOES TO SENATE
If that Body Approves, Election Will Be Held Next Year—If Adopted It Will Be Effective in 1916.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., April 14.—The lower branch of the Missouri legislature today passed by a vote of 35 to 11, a resolution to submit the prohibition constitutional amendment to the vote of the people at the regular election in November, 1916. The measure is yet to be acted on by the senate and if it passes that body the governor's signature will not be necessary. Many republicans voted for the resolution, but as a rule they opposed the submission. The democrats with the exception of the members from the cities, voted for submission. The anti-saloon forces were led by Mrs. Carrie Lee Stokes of Kansas City and Mrs. F. R. Ingalls of St. Louis. For many weeks they have been working with the doubtful members and tomorrow they will transfer their energies to the senators. If the amendment is adopted by the voters of the state it will stop the sale of intoxicating liquors in Missouri and will close all saloons, breweries and distilleries in the state. It is said the senate is friendly to the resolution which the house passed. Before the final vote was taken letters from many religious organizations were read on the floor. If the senate votes favorably on the resolution and the people of the state adopt the amendment it will become effective January 1, 1912.

Ohio River Boat Goes Down After Striking a Rock

Seventy-Five Passengers Rescued in Drenching Rain and High Wind.

PITTSBURGH, April 14.—Following a remarkable series of accidents and a tempestuous voyage, the steamer Virginia, from Cincinnati to Pittsburgh, was finally wrecked late last night in the Ohio river at Wellsville, O. The boat, the largest plying the upper Ohio, went down close to here after striking a rock and tearing a hole three feet long in the hull. The passengers, numbering fifty, in a highly nervous condition as a result of minor accidents earlier in the evening, became panic stricken when the vessel met with the last accident and it was with difficulty that a crew of seventy-five men restrained them. Although handicapped by darkness, a high wind and drenching rain, the crew managed to place the passengers safely in boats and put them ashore. From here they were taken, scantily clad, to a fire engine house in Wellsville, O., and later reached the warmth of a hotel by means of a police patrol wagon.

Scarcely a member of either house escaped a feminine request that he add his vote to those pledged to support the cause.

BRYAN PLANS EASTERN VIEW

Washington Times Says He is Determined to Stand for Senate.

SAYS HE IS WEAKER THAN PARTY
Burkett Mentioned as His Opponent Among Republicans—Attitude of Other Democrats Not Mentioned.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
WASHINGTON, April 14.—(Special Telegram.)—The Times of this city prints tonight the following regarding the political situation in Nebraska and Bryan's decision to run for the senate: "That William Jennings Bryan has actively resolved that he will make the race for United States senator in Nebraska next year is the latest information which comes from his state. "After the presidential election last autumn it was commonly accepted that his home state having gone democratic, Mr. Bryan would become a candidate for the senate. His party had complete control of the legislature and set about to put into the statute books various measures which Mr. Bryan had advocated, especially the bank guaranty law and the Oregon senatorial primary law. "Later came a report that Mr. Bryan had about decided to change his plans and keep out of the senatorial race. It was explained that he had small interest in making a political fight for control of the state, with serious chances of being defeated and thus humiliated as a national leader. The result was that his closest friends for several months were of the opinion that he had given up all thought of running. This impression was strengthened when it was announced that he had bought a farm in Texas and arranged to have a fine winter home built there. "But now comes from Nebraska a report, so definite as to amount almost to the announcement, that Mr. Bryan has decided to run to the senate. It is supposed that he believes he can win and that, coupled with this impression, there is a strong idea that he could maintain a hold on his party and make it more effective for the furtherance of his future plans by getting a place in the senate. "Mr. Bryan's run in Nebraska last fall is being analyzed with a good deal of interest. It is suggested on one side that his strength was responsible for carrying through the state and legislative tickets and three of the six congressmen. On the other hand, it is declared that the plurality of Mr. Bryan in the state was smaller than the aggregate democratic pluralities for the legislature and for the congressional tickets for governor. In short, that by this comparison Bryan appears weaker, instead of stronger, than his party. "Mr. Bryan would have to defeat Senator E. J. Burkett, who is serving his first term in the upper branch, and is considered likely to have no serious opposition for the republican nomination. Burkett is a politician of resource, energy and uniform success. He is a great organizer, which Mr. Bryan is not, and

Uncle Sam Will No Longer Arm Cheap Revolutionists

WASHINGTON, April 14.—No more will cheap revolutions in neighboring countries be encouraged by the easy manner in which it was possible to purchase old arms of the United States.

Orders have been issued at the War department stopping the practice of selling the discarded arms. It has been reported at various times that revolutionists in Central and South America obtained arms from the United States. It remained, however, for the police of Chicago to complain that the sale of the old Springfield rifles recently discarded was causing trouble for them. That complaint was followed by an order against the sale of the remaining 9,000 rifles by auction. These rifles may be sold to patriotic organizations only.

NORMAL BOARD DECIDES TO ACT

Disregards Adverse Opinion of Ex-Commissioner Calkins Auditor Barton Presents.

TREASURER BRIAN WILL NOT SIT
Though Member of Board Under Law, Holds it Invalid.

NO WARRANTS FROM AUDITOR
Legal Opinion is Two Subjects Clearly Contained in Bill.

BUSINESS IS NOT INTERRUPTED
T. J. Majors Elected President and Superintendent Graham of South Omaha Secretary—Junior Normal Principals.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
LINCOLN, April 14.—(Special Telegram.)—Notwithstanding Auditor Barton presented to the new State Normal board a decision by former Supreme Court Commissioner E. C. Calkins that the law under which it was appointed was unconstitutional, the board proceeded to meet in the office of the governor this afternoon and organize. Treasurer Brian refused to meet with the board. The following officers were elected: T. J. Majors, president. N. M. Graham, secretary. President Majors appointed the following committees: Auditing—Treasurer L. G. Brian, N. M. Graham, W. H. Green. Executive—Fred A. Nye, T. J. Majors, W. H. Green. Teachers and Employees—E. C. Bishop, N. M. Graham, T. J. Majors. Text Books and Library—Fred A. Nye, E. C. Bishop, E. L. Adams. Fred A. Nye, L. G. Brian. Printing—W. H. Green, E. L. Adams, N. M. Graham. On recommendation of State Superintendent Bishop the following were reported as principals of junior normals: O'Neill—Dr. H. K. Wolfe. Alliance—Superintendent D. W. Hayes. North Platte—Dr. J. A. Battelle. McCook—Superintendent C. W. Taylor. Geneva—Superintendent R. W. Eaton. Some Yet to Follow. The committee on teachers will select the heads of the other junior normals after a conference with the state superintendent. These are located at Valentine, Broken Bow and Alma. The junior normals are to begin June 7 and continue eight weeks. The board proceeded with routine work just the same as if there was no other board in existence. President J. W. Crabtree of the Peru normal asked permission to arrange for the summer school session. This was referred to the committee on teachers and employees, the Kearney Normal school to be included. President A. O. Thomas of the Kearney normal was not present. The members of the new board met in the office of the governor this afternoon and though Treasurer Brian was invited to attend he refused to do so, holding that the law which created the board was invalid. Auditor Barton was called before the board and he read to the members Judge Calkins' opinion of the law and informed the members that he would not issue a warrant on his vouchers until the board had established its legality. Judge Calkins' Opinion. In his opinion Judge Calkins recited the history of the various laws which provided for the establishment of the Peru normal school, the normal school at Kearney which was established under an act of 1903 and the Oregon senatorial primary law, which provided for the establishment of the junior normal schools, passed the same year. The Kearney normal, he recited, was to be under the direction of the State Board of Education, the same as the Peru normal school, while the junior normals were to be under the direction and control of the state superintendent. Under the junior normal school law, the opinion says, students who had completed the elementary course of the normal schools should be granted an elementary state certificate by the Board of Education, the same as graduates of the state normal schools. The opinion says the apparent purpose of the legislature was to abolish the State Board of Education and to provide for a new board under another name. "The Normal Board of Education," which should exercise the powers of the State Board of Education, and in addition thereto have control over the junior normal schools. This was sought to be done by amendments to sections 1 and 22 of the subdivision II, chapter 79, of the statutes. One Subject in a Bill. Judge Calkins quoted article 2, section 11, of the constitution to the effect that no bill shall contain more than one subject, and the same shall be clearly expressed in its title; no act shall be amended unless the new act contains the section or sections so amended and the sections so amended repealed. "Where the title of a bill is, as in this case, to amend a particular section, no amendment is permissible which is not germane to the subject matter of the original section indicated," says the opinion, and Judge Calkins quoted several cases to confirm that decision. The section sought to be amended, the opinion says, provides for the creation of a board of education for the management of the state normal schools to consist of the state treasurer, state superintendent and five others. As amended the section provides for the creation of a new board, to be composed of the same two state officers and five members appointed by the governor and confirmed by the senate and the members shall not be of one political party. It is also provided that no person so appointed shall hold any office under the government of the United States or of any state and that no member shall serve upon the committee of any political party. The opinion says: "The last two qualifications are the only ones sufficiently definite to be enforceable; but treating them all seriously and not as political bores, they relate to the qualifications of members for appointment to such board, and may, we think, be regarded as within the subject matter of the original section. Junior Normal Schools. "The junior normal schools were authorized by an independent act of the legislature; their direction and expenditure of the money appropriated for their maintenance was confided altogether to the state superintendent of public instruction, and the only function that the State Board of Education was to perform in connection
