

SOLDIERS PLAY GOOD BALL

Fort Crook Nine Gives Omaha Lively Tussle.

CADMAN'S SLIDE PROVES FATAL

Catcher Snaps Home in Foot Trying to Stretch Double into Three.

OMAHA, 15: Fort Crook, 4.

Cadman broke a bone in his foot sliding into third base Wednesday afternoon in the game between the Bourke family and the representatives of the Sixteenth Infantry, which is stationed at Fort Crook. He hit a long fly, which drove in a couple of runs ahead of him and was spearing up, trying to stretch a double into a triple when he slid to third feet first. A cleat on his shoe caught in the ground and a bone in his foot snapped so it could be heard all over the grounds.

Cold and high winds made a good game out of the question, but in spite of this the players put up a good exhibition of ball playing after a first inning for both teams. Penderly is out of the game temporarily with a lame heel and Vastbinder played third. Graham was in the stand, not wishing to take chances in the cold. Helden played center and Jarrott left field.

For Crook had some first-class ball players and except for errors by Caruthers in the first part of the game played a fine game of ball. Waller, who is an athlete of renown, caught a game good enough for any team. Murphy in center field was all over the ground and made some astonishing catches. Killmurry and Decker did good work with the willow, each making a pair of hits.

The soldiers had a good chance to tie the score in the last inning, as the first three men up hit safely. McQuaid went to bat for Washington, struck out. Pennell batted for Birch and did likewise. All reliance was then placed on Waller, but he only hit an easy one to King.

Some of the soldiers' regular players were at the fifth range and some on a practice range. The team wore the bright red uniforms of Company K, as the regiment's suits have not come. Birch pitched all the way through for the soldiers and had speed and some good curves as well as control. The crowd played as lively as if it had been warm. Creighton plays the Bourke family this afternoon.

NEBRASKA TRIMS THE INDIANS

Haskell Defeated by Score of 4 to 1 at Lawrence.

LAWRENCE, Kan., April 14.—(Special Telegram.)—Nebraska won from the Haskell Indians today by the score of 4 to 1. This makes four games won by Nebraska out of five played on this trip. The Cornhuskers did some sensational hitting today and were sure and prompt. Cooke pulled down seven high ones and Dodger reached out for four. Means pitched good ball for the Indians and let the Cornhuskers down with two hits.

AUTREY MAY COME BACK

PA HOURKE GOES TO CINCINNATI TO TRY HIS LUCK WITH CLARK GRIFFITH.

Pa Hourke, president and owner of the Omaha Western league team, left Tuesday night for Cincinnati to try to get Autrey to fill out the hole in the Omaha team. Chickie was the best hitter for the position of first base on the Reds, but was nosed out by Hoblitzel, who is of about the same caliber as Chickie, but who had the advantage of having played with Cincinnati last fall and making good.

While Pa Hourke has had no encouragement from Clark Griffith, manager of the Reds, he has taken the trip in the hope of securing Autrey for this year at least. The first base position on the Omaha team is up in the air. LeBrand, a sub-catcher, is now filling the job, but he lacks the experience of Chick, and cannot hit as well. Chick was the best hitter in the western league last year and spent most of the season at the top of the Western league batting list.

The case of Autrey is a most peculiar one. He has made good in Cincinnati; in fact he has more than made good, but the proposition does not end there. Hoblitzel was last year's first baseman. He too had made good, and while not a higher grade player than Autrey, is as high. Why, then, should Clark Griffith throw off an older man for a newer when the two were about on par so far as their playing goes?

Other Big Teams Need Him. But Griffith may never let Hourke have Autrey back. Other big league teams would undoubtedly give snug sums for the Chickie. Several of them have first basemen not anywhere near as good as Autrey. So far as Autrey personally is concerned, it was unfortunate for him that he was not bought by one of these other teams that needed a first baseman and not Cincinnati, which had a working good one.

Pa's chief claim lies in the fact that Cincinnati, which bought him, was to pay over a certain sum of money by May 1 or return the player. He thinks that claim will take precedence over any demand made by an outside team. Yet Griffith may simply hand Pa the money and keep Autrey.

In that case Pa will depart for other big league cities in search of a big league first baseman. He has the promise of Roger Bresnahan that he can have a chance at any surplus material that might be available from the St. Louis Nationals, and he also has the promise of Murphy, president of the Chicago Nationals, that he may have a player or two from that team. This trip of the president of the Omaha team in a way seal the fate of Omaha in the base ball world this year.

In the first place, Pa relied upon the magnificent record Hobby made last fall and fully expected to get Autrey back. Autrey, however, surprised them all and for a time it looked as though he would crowd the crack first baseman of the Cincinnati team out of his job. Clark Griffith wrote Pa to expect Autrey.

Several Tried Out. Eberlein was signed and he was touted as one of the best prospects of the year. Eberlein, however, is an ambitious youth and preferred to finish his term at school than to play ball for $200 a month, and wired Pa that he could not report until late in June.

Claire was tried, and while he fielded well, he could not hit quite fast enough, and to cap it all turned an ankle, which put him out of the running.

Captain Frank returned with reports of a wonderful first baseman in California who had hit .311 all winter against all the crack pitchers of the west. Long, who was sent for. He cost Pa over $100, but proved a failure. While he could hit, he was about the most awkward player ever seen on Vinton street park.

Graham is back in the game and the catching staff is working fine, with Sanders yet to report, but first base is open. If Pa can get Autrey back the fans will take heart and expect Omaha to start at the top and stay there.

OMAHA MAN SUFFERED WITH PROGRESSIVE PARALYSIS TWO YEARS

Mr. G.W. Phelps of 1902 North 26th street, Omaha, had suffered with partial paralysis for two years, when he commenced the Austro-American treatment. Before starting the treatment he was unable to button his coat without assistance.

He had given up working at his trade as carpenter, and, having been an active man all his life, this ailment was a heavy burden to him. He showed rapid improvement the first few weeks of his treatment and is now a well man and working at his trade every day.

This is only one of the many marvelous cures which the Austro-American Doctors have effected for people of Omaha and surrounding territory. They have only been in Omaha a few months, but during that time have successfully treated numerous cases of Rheumatism, Gout, Epilepsy, Gall Stones, Diseases of the Liver, Kidneys, Stomach, Blood and Chronic and Nervous Diseases of men and women.

Dr. Milen, the physician in charge, is a diagnostician of thirty years' experience in chronic diseases. He asks no questions of the patients and never makes mistakes in his diagnosis. All those who cannot be cured are frankly told and such cases are not accepted. The wonderful cures and fair treatment which these doctors dispense to all patients are making them hosts of friends and their offices are crowded daily.
