BOARD OF CONTROL ON TRIP

Members Will Make Careful Inspection of State Institutions.

DRYS PLAN THEIR CAMPAIGN

Will Lose No Opportunity During Next Year to Gain Advantage.—Tax Levy Stays Same.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) DES MOINES, Ia., April 14.—(Special.)—The State Board of Control has gone on its semi-annual visit to the state institutions of Iowa under its management. The members will, probably, be gone for two weeks as they will visit the penitentiary, the insane hospitals, the schools for unfortunate, etc. At the penitentiaries the members of this board will encounter the members of the State Board of Parole, who are giving hearings to the 14 men charged with crime who must have their time of release fixed by the board.

It is quite likely that the board will make thorough investigation of the help at the institutions this time because of the claims made by the committee of the house in the recent legislature that patients had been treated cruelly by attendants. The board, under the law, must at these visits to the institutions hear all complaints of inmates of the institutions. This includes insane inmates as well as others and it was at these institutions the house committee claimed that patients had been treated cruelly and that they will undoubtedly give careful hearing to all complaints and exert extra diligence to discover if there be any attendant who is not conducting himself properly.

Cosson to Practice Law.

State Senator Cosson, who fathered the radical liquor enforcement laws, that passed the recent legislature, is planning to enter the general practice of law. Just before beginning his term as member he was an assistant to Attorney General Myers and stepped from that office right into the senatorial chair. He has for some time been making Des Moines his home. He now proposes to enter general practice, but has not definitely decided whether it will be in Des Moines, Audubon or some other place.

Drys Are to Organize.

There will be a meeting of the allied temperance organizations in Des Moines tomorrow, for the purpose of perfecting the "dry" organization, opening new headquarters and outlining the campaign for the coming year to defeat the legislators who voted with the "wets" so they will not return and try to get the passage next year at the general election of the proposition to hold a constitutional convention.

Hamilton Urged to Run.

An additional name is now added to the many mentioned as possible candidates for governor at the next election. In view of the temperance agitation it is urged by some that John J. Hamilton of Des Moines, who ran last election, receive a large complimentary vote, will be a strong candidate for the office of chief executive.

To Fix Tax Levy.

The executive council of the state will meet in the course of a few days to fix the state tax levy. While the legislature made increased burden upon the treasury it is expected there will be no increase in the size of the tax levy because of the greatly increased value of property during the last year.

Acting Curator Harlan of the State Historical building has made a suggestion that there be formed a society for the purpose of raising funds with which to purchase life-sized statues of Iowa's really great men to place in the corridor niches of the new State Historical building. He urges that this would be a fine way of honoring the memory of former Iowa men. The sculptorship should be such, he urges, as would bear the criticism of the most scrutinizing who visit the new Iowa building.

Banker in Trouble Known in Nebraska

ABILENE, Tex., April 14.—(Special Telegram.)—In United States district court at this place John A. Wisner and T. F. Baker are on trial for alleged violation of the United States banking laws. The indictment charges that Baker, as cashier of the First National bank of Snyder, Tex., misappropriated $50,000 of its funds, and that Wisner aided and abetted in this misappropriation. Arguments were concluded tonight and the case goes to the jury Wednesday.

Monday morning, thirty minutes before the opening of court, John A. Wisner's attorney, Judge George E. Miller, paid President Johnson of the First National bank of Snyder $48,000, which fact United States Attorney Atwell drew from Witness Johnson on the stand. A resolution was adopted at a meeting held on Saturday, referring the matter to the national committee with a view to formulating suitable procedure. Mr. Killingsbeck said that the objection was not to the political character of the article, but to reflections it contained upon members of the socialist party.

WOULD PROTECT OSAGE RANGE

Court Asked to Enjoin Texas Ranchmen from Using It for Pasture.

FORT WORTH, Tex., April 14.—Dispatches from Pawhuska, Osage Nation, Oklahoma, say the county attorney in the district court there has asked for an injunction restraining Texas stockmen from bringing their herds to the Osage Nation for pasture or other purposes. If the injunction is granted it will stop the movement of over 1,000,000 head of cattle each season from this state and stop an immense loss to the ranchmen. It is alleged that in moving the herds to the Osage nation tick ticks and diseases are brought into that section. The Texas cattlemen expect to contest the case.

CASE COMES UP MONDAY

Wife and Mother May Testify for the Prosecution—Big Stock Brokerage Firm Falls.

NEW YORK, April 14.—Conferences held today in the offices of John F. McIntyre, counsel for Captain Peter C. Hains, Jr., in which the latter's parents, General Hains and Mrs. Hains, their son, Major John R. Hains and several witnesses participated, resulted in a decision to rely solely on insanity as a defense in the trial of Captain Hains for the murder of William E. Annis. The trial will begin Monday in Flushing, L. I., where Thornton Jenkins Hains was recently acquitted of connection with the shooting and it is expected will last about three weeks.

The defense will call between forty and forty-five witnesses. Mr. McIntyre is considering seriously dispensing with medical experts to combat the testimony of alienists who will be called by District Attorney DeWitt. It is the tentative plan of the defense to leave for the judgment of the jury the mental condition of Captain Hains. Immediately preceding the shooting, the killing in all its aspects, it is said, will be admitted, but Captain Hains will be described as a sufferer nearly all his life from emotional insanity.

District Attorney DeWitt said tonight: "The defense will call between forty and forty-five witnesses. Mr. McIntyre is considering seriously dispensing with medical experts to combat the testimony of alienists who will be called by District Attorney DeWitt. It is the tentative plan of the defense to leave for the judgment of the jury the mental condition of Captain Hains. Immediately preceding the shooting, the killing in all its aspects, it is said, will be admitted, but Captain Hains will be described as a sufferer nearly all his life from emotional insanity."

Stock Brokerage Firm Falls.

NEW YORK, April 13.—The stock brokerage firm of Ennis & Stoppani, one of the largest operators on the Consolidated exchange and having branches in various cities of the United States and Canada, today was placed in the hands of a receiver on the application of three creditors, demanding an aggregate of $2,145 in unpaid claims. Counsel for the creditors, in their petition to the United States district court, alleged that the liabilities of the firm would amount to $1,500,000 and the assets $400,000.

Lindsay Russell was appointed receiver and a few minutes later Treadwell Cleveland filed a paper in court showing that the firm had assigned to him last night. Mr. Cleveland, however, retired in favor of Mr. Russell and the latter assumed control of the firm's offices.

One of the allegations in the bankruptcy petition was that the firm had failed to meet its margin obligations on the Chicago Board of Trade. Treadwell Cleveland said that the causes of the suspension were unexpected demands made by out-of-town customers in the last few days, resulting in the heavy withdrawal of accounts. No official statement was made by the firm or the receiver, but stories were current that the house had suffered extensively through the rise in price of the Chicago Board of Trade.

Schubert's Resignation Accepted.

The Theatrical Managers' association, at a meeting today, accepted the resignation of the firm of Sam E. and Leo Schubert, who drew from the association last week because they were not allowed votes in proportion to the number of their playhouses. A committee was appointed to draw up a statement in answer to the Schuberts.

President Charles Burman, in addressing the meeting, said that the question of proportionate adjustment was gone into very thoroughly at the time of the formation of the association and that the one member, one vote idea was favored since the start.

In a statement issued tonight, the Theatrical Managers' association announced that four weeks ago Messrs. Schubert made certain complaints against a morning paper in regard to the alleged treatment of themselves and were informed that the association, as a body, could not take cognizance of matters of that kind.

JEFFERSON DEMOCRATS DINE

National Club Has Banquet in Honor of Birthday of Founder.

HARMAN AND MARSHALL SPEAK

Principal Addresses Are by Governors of Ohio and Indiana, Who Denounce Protection—Bryan Sends Regards.

NEW YORK, April 14.—Denunciation of the principle of protection and of the tariff legislation now pending in congress formed the keynote of the addresses at the annual dinner of the National Democratic club tonight at the Hotel Savoy in celebration of the 106th anniversary of the birth of Thomas Jefferson. There were present a number of democratic notables from other states, including Judson Harmon, governor of Ohio; Thomas R. Marshall, governor of Indiana; and George F. Chamberlain, United States senator from Oregon, as well as local party leaders.

A portrait of Jefferson hung over with American flags, dominated the guest table, at which sat Governors Harmon and Marshall, Senator Chamberlain, State Senator Grady, John Fox, the club's president; Richard Croker, Alton B. Parker, Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany hall; former Supreme Court Justice Morgan; J. O'Brien and L. Cady Herrick.

Elsewhere at six longitudinal tables sat 400 of the elect of the democratic party, among them Supreme Court Justices O'Gorman, Guy, Dugro, Plazek, Truax, Herman Ridder, Senator Patrick R. McGarren, John Mitchell and Francis Burton Harrison.

Mayor McClellan, Governor Johnson of Minnesota, William Jennings Bryan, Governor Swannow of Virginia, Governor Burke of South Dakota, President Woodrow Wilson of Princeton, Champ Clark, Senator Culberson of Texas, Representative Rainey of Illinois and August Belmont sent regards.

Chamberlain on Primaries.

Senator Chamberlain of Oregon, who was down on the program to respond to the toast, "The Democracy of the Pacific Slope," made an impassioned address in defense of the direct primary principle of nominations.

"The convention system again and again has been proven to be a corrupt and unrepresentative system of government," he said. "The people of the Pacific slope have awakened to a realization of this and from now on the people of that section intend to have a voice in the management of their affairs, both local and federal."

Introduced by John Fox, president of the National Democratic club, as one of the most potent forces for good in the "Buckeye state." Governor Harmon aroused the enthusiasm of his hearers by declaring that every citizen of the nation was entitled to 100 cents of good government for every dollar paid by him in taxation.

Much in the same strain Governor Marshall of Indiana assailed the good faith of the lawmakers at Washington in their, to him, transparent effort to cloud the issue of protectionism.
