Country Clubs Making Ready to Open for the Warm Weather.

IMPROVEMENT FOR ROD AND GUN

Country Club Cleans House and Women Stick to Summer Sewing During Fortnight's Interval Before Formal Opening.

Irrefutable. When Gladys dons her latest hat. We know full well that spring is here. Unmoved by chill reminders that belated winds are harsh and drear. Though snow may gather o'er the field where yellow blooming bravely strives. Our eternal hope will not yield. When Gladys' hat so fairly thrives.

No violet that decks the glade. No flaunting jonquil is more neat. Than is the flowering there arrayed. About her smart and dainty feet. And so, though storms may rage about. This dainty prophesies stands pat. 'Tis gentle spring beyond a doubt. When Gladys dons her latest hat.

—Washington Star.

The Rod and Gun club, so popular last season as the only local club with water privileges, will make extensive improvement of its grounds at Cut Off lake this season. The bathing beach has been extended and improved with new sand and the new docks are now being built. Besides this a new club house will be built immediately, equipped with lockers for the women and a dancing pavilion. The present house will be moved back and converted into a cafe. Plans have been drawn for a handsome club house that is complete in every detail and the building to be erected this season will be a part of this, the remainder to be built later. Between $6,000 and $7,000 will be spent in the improvement of the club this season. The opening of the cafe promises to increase the demand for cottages and will undoubtedly prove a popular feature.

With the opening of the Country club only two weeks distant, the social lethargy promises to continue for another fortnight. This week the Country club is cleaning house, which will drive away some of the most enthusiastic golfers. Meanwhile the women consider that they have two more weeks to finish their spring sewing and to plant their flower seeds. Dancing seems to be increasing in favor, as two of the clubs have had to double their floor capacity, while the wardrobe for the Country club season is quite as elaborate and varied as for a social season in town. The dressmakers and milliners are so busy that they may command their patrons to appear at whatever time they wish instead of the custom making the appointments, as in former times. Recently several regrets were sent to one of the social affairs because the young women had previous engagements with their dressmakers and could not change these appointments.

Greek Letterdom was unusually active in Lincoln last evening. A large and formal dancing party was given by the Alpha Omicron Pi society at the Lincoln hotel and a house dance was given by Phi Gamma Delta fraternity for its next door neighbors, the members of the Kappa Alpha Theta sorority, while the Phi Delta Theta fraternity also decided to show some neighborly love and give an informal party at their club house for the members of the Delta Delta Delta, otherwise known as "Tri Delta" sorority. The Phi Gamma party has proven most successful as a peace offering to the fair neighbors. For the last year, when a Theta and a Phi Gamma have met on the street, neither could notice anything but peace. Some of the first ladies were even rude enough to bang effigies and signs for dressmakers and cooks out of their back windows. But that is all history now, and recently, when the Phi Gamma gave a stag party, all of the Theta's best cooking utensils and dishes were borrowed for the spread.

Pleasures Past.
Mr. and Mrs. Royal D. Miller entertained the Week End Card club at their home in Dundee Friday evening.

The last of an enjoyable series of dancing parties given by the Omicron club took place Friday evening at Chambers academy. The former plan of giving a cotillion part of the evening was changed, and just the regular dancing party was given. Mr. Paul Beaton and Mr. Alfred Creigh were the committee in charge of the parties given this season and much credit is due them for the success of these entertainments, which have been prominent among the social events of the winter.

Miss Florence Olmsted was hostess last evening at a card party at her home in Florence in honor of Miss Louise Kennedy of Fort Omaha. Luncheon was then served and a few songs by the club members concluded the evening. The house and table were decorated in the club colors of green and white. Those present were Mr. G. E. Phelps, Mr. Henry Hempen, Jr., Mr. Frank Kinkonen, Mr. William Holst, Mr. Harry Sigwart, Mr. William J. Belnes, Mr. Guy V. Davis, Mr. Frank Schmitz, William Roberts, Mr. Harry Phelps. Weddings and Engagements.
Cards have been received in Omaha announcing the marriage of Miss Clara Leon of Louisville, Ky., to Mr. Sol S. Goldstrom of this city. They will be at home after May 1 at 1312 Park avenue.

Mrs. G. B. Comstock announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Lorraine, to Mr. Harold C. Evaris. The announcement was made to a few intimate friends at an informal tea Saturday afternoon.

Almost the only excitement socially for several weeks has been in Army circles, where visitors and officers have kept the social ball rolling. Rumors of engagements have been plentiful, but the first announcement to be made is that of Captain Edgar Ridenour of the Sixteenth Infantry at Fort Crook to Miss Jackson of Shreveport, Ala. Captain Ridenour is the ranking captain at the post and is one of the most popular bachelors in the regiment. He was married for his new station in Scranton, Pa. Miss Jackson visited at the post about a year ago and is a charming southern girl. The wedding is to occur in the near future.

Invitations were issued this week for the wedding of Miss Isabel Milroy, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. F. Milroy, to Mr. Herbert H. The wedding will be followed by a small reception for the members of the wedding party and a few intimate friends of the young people.

Grand Island Wins Contest
Baptist College Orator Takes First in State Prohibition Oratorical Contest.

CRETE, Neb., April 17.—(Special Telegram.)—Grand Island college, winner of the state oratorical contest, added further laurels in that line in winning the state prohibition oratorical contest here Friday.

Mrs. Jessie Draper, in her oration, "The Mission of the Vanguard," was strikingly original and intensely effective. Deane was second, Coster third, Wesleyan fourth and Central City fifth.

Mallorys Settle Claims.
CRESTON, Ia., April 17.—(Special.)—Receiver Jameson of the defunct Chariton bank is authorized by Mrs. Mallory and her daughter, Mrs. Thayer, to settle all claims held by creditors of the bank against them by offering to give up all their holdings of real estate in Lucas county, valued at $100,000. This is to include the dismissal of all suits in the federal courts against them. The property thus turned over consists of a fine 70-acre farm, a number of other residences and the Mallory house, just outside the city. This is taken to mean that neither Mrs. Mallory nor her daughter intend to come back to Chariton to live. At present they are in Chicago, but spent the winter in Florida. Much of the Mallory estate was converted into cash before the bank's failure.

LaShelle Held for Murder.
MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., April 17.—(Special.)—The coroner's jury this afternoon returned a verdict holding Harry LaShelle for the murder of "Doc" Doherty by shooting him with a revolver in the C. E. C. Cook billiard parlor. Later in the day a complaint charging murder in the second degree was filed by Mrs. Mary Biebert, wife of the dead man. In Justice Peck's court LaShelle was arraigned, but his attorneys asked for time to plead and the preliminary examination was continued for thirty days. LaShelle was remanded to jail without bond.

To find a good dressmaker from the very highest grade of fashionable makers of gowns to the sewing girl who will come to your home—look under the "Dressmakers" heading on the want ad page.

Everybody reads the want-ads. It's profitable. It's interesting. So the wise put forth their business propositions there—they turn into money that which they can no longer use—they pick up at a bargain that with which the other man will gladly part.

They are cheap and they certainly do the business.
