Ben Tillman Calls on President Taft

"I Waited Until a Gentleman Got Here," He Says, Explaining Long Absence from White House.

WASHINGTON, April 20.—Senator Tillman of South Carolina paid his first visit to the White House in seven years and received a cordial greeting from President Taft. His appearance today in the executive offices created a sensation. The senator walked to the White House unaccompanied, but left with Senator Beveridge of Indiana, riding to the capitol with the latter in his automobile. Booker T. Washington was waiting to see the president when Senator Tillman arrived. The South Carolinian was immediately shown into Mr. Taft's office. The call was purely of a social nature, it was declared. "I came," said Senator Tillman, "to see if the office seekers had tried any fat off the president, but they have not tried a pound."

Asked why he had never visited the White House in the past Senator Tillman replied: "I waited until a gentleman got here." "It's not necessary to make a nine days' wonder out of my visit," President Taft said. Mr. Tillman after his return to the capitol. "We have always been good friends. Whether he has inherited his office from Roosevelt or been elected by the people there is no reason for anyone to suppose he has inherited Roosevelt's meanness."

Mr. Tillman said he merely went to the White House to say good morning to the president and to express his "gratification upon having a gentleman there."

"I have no favors to ask of the president and I would have to go to see him sooner," said Mr. Tillman after his return to the capitol. "We have always been good friends. Whether he has inherited his office from Roosevelt or been elected by the people there is no reason for anyone to suppose he has inherited Roosevelt's meanness."

TWO NEGROES CHARGED WITH ROBBERY GYPSY OF HER ROLL

Arrest Follows Action of Suspects in Paying $50 for Shave and $10 for Beer.

PHILADELPHIA, April 20.—Showing large rolls of money, giving a barber $50 for a shave and a bartender $10 for two glasses of beer, two colored youths last night aroused the suspicion of the police that they might have been implicated in the robbery of Rhoda Lovell, the 50-year-old "gypsy queen," who lost $10,000 while she lay sick in her tent at Bryn Mawr near this city and they were taken into custody. The old gypsy was robbed on Sunday. The boys, each about 18 years old, have admitted their connection with the robbery, the police say. During the night the police took the boys in an automobile to the home of one of the suspects where it is said they found $2,000 in the cellar of the house. The police are looking for another boy who is said to have gone to New York.

BAD DREAMS Indicate Improper Diet, Usually due to Coffee.

One of the common symptoms of coffee poisoning is the bad dreams that spell what should be restful sleep. A man who found the reason says: "Formerly I was a slave to coffee. I was like a morphia fiend; could not sleep at night; would roll and toss in my bed and when I did get to sleep was disturbed by dreams and hobboblins, would wake up with headaches and feel bad all day, so nervous I could not attend to business. My writing looked like bird tracks. I had indigestion, heartburn and palpitation of the heart, constipation, irregularity of the kidneys, etc. "Indeed I began to feel I had all the troubles that human flesh could suffer, but when a friend advised me to leave off coffee I felt as if I had insulted me. I could not bear the idea. It had such a hold on me and I refused to believe it the cause. "I finally consented to try Postum and with the going of coffee and the coming of Postum all my troubles have gone and health has returned. "I eat and sleep well now, nerves steadied and I write a fair hand (as you can see.) I can attend to business again and refer that I am free from the monster 'Coffee.' "Ten days trial of Postum in place of coffee will bring sound, restful, refreshing sleep. "There's a Reason." Look in packages for the famous little book, "The Road to Wellville."
