Updike's PRIDE OF OMAHA Flour

A horse cannot successfully race a locomotive. The effort consumes and wastes his strength and is useless. Ordinary flour lacks nourishment. Food lacking nutritive qualities are worse than useless—they can never build up the human system.

Updike's PRIDE OF OMAHA Flour

is filled with nutritive qualities to the maximum. Only the finest grain in the land is accepted. Then, every grain is put through a sanitary cleaning process whereby it is scoured and cleaned until its condition is perfected.

Every sack of flour must measure up to the right requirement of our mill—the highest standard known to the milling industry—or it is never sold under our label.

$1.75 per sack At all grocers
