

All is Not Gold That Glistens

Our Cloak Department proves not by what it says one day, but what it does six days in the week, fifty-two weeks in the year.

The steady policy of our Cloak Department is to give you the best garments every day in the week at the fairest possible prices.

No price bargain can tempt us to offer you an inferior Suit, Coat or any ready-to-wear article. Nearly every day we refuse to buy suits, good to look at, good in fashion, perhaps good in color, but either inferior or defective in fabric.

For Monday—There are new waists, new suits, new coats, new separate skirts, new dresses and new negligees.

All alterations made free of charge.

Jaunty Millinery to Wear Right Now.

The season's prettiest hats are here. There will be many new models ready for showing Monday. We have an especially fine stock of smart tailored and street hats at moderate prices, and we want to show them to you. Come Monday. Second Floor.

Per pair $1.50. 2-clasp Kayser and Fownes Silk Gloves in modes, tan, brown, pongee, apricot, carotte, navy, gray, green, black and white. Per pair 50c to $1.

"TAPERING WAIST"

The new Spring models which we are showing are built along the very latest lines and emphasize every style feature of the prevailing "Directorio" fashions. Pliancy and comfort are also features of these new R. & G. models.

Among our complete range of shapes and sizes you can easily select a corset that will fit you perfectly, no matter what your figure may be. We suggest that you come and inspect the stylish, flat hip model known here as "The Corset". It is made with medium bust and long skirt. In Bateau only. The price of this model (C 45) is $2.00.

Every Pair Guaranteed.

The occupants, numbering fifty men and officers, finally surrendered. The artilleryists at the Maxim barracks were guilty of gross treachery. They hoisted the white flag and thereby enticed the Saloniki infantrymen to close ranks. As the Saloniki men were approaching the barracks across an open piece of ground to receive the surrender, the force within opened upon them with a heavy fire and compelled them to retreat. The Saloniki artillery was then brought up and shelled the barracks, inflicting heavy damage. The barracks twenty minutes later were rushed by the invading troops, and there was hand-to-hand fighting in the barracks yard and the cemetery behind the structure, in which the casualties were heavy.

rounding Yildiz Kiosk, marked the culmination of the expected clash between the troops of the Constantinople garrison and the army of investment, which began its advance on the city yesterday afternoon. The fighting started in the southwest part of Pera, near Yildiz Kiosk, between the troops under General Scheffer, commanding the army of investment, and part of those loyal to the sultan.

entry had been made, but people, nevertheless, went to bed skeptical only to be awakened in the Pera quarter by the sound of artillery and the ragged crash of rifle fire in the direction of Yildiz Kiosk. A battalion of the sultan's household guard occupied Tash Kischla barracks, about 500 strong, and was resisting the advance of the investing army. Expecting an attack the guards were deployed outside the barracks when an officer from General Scheffer demanded that they surrender, but they refused. Within a minute after the representatives from the constitutionalists returned the firing began. The investment forces brought into action one battery of field guns and one battery of machine guns, as was judged from the sound of the firing early in the morning.

Wounded While Taking Pictures. LONDON, April 24.—A special dispatch from Constantinople says: Two photographers were killed during the struggle, one of whom is believed to be a British subject. The fight raged almost in the heart of the European quarter. Fredrick Moore, correspondent of the New York Sun, was seriously wounded while taking snapshots of the fighting soldiers who, evidently mistaking his camera for a weapon, fired upon him.

duplicating its present quarters at Tenth and Douglas and Dr. Nelson H. Mercer will put a new three-story hotel on the northwest corner of Tenth and Howard in place of the ancient frame structure just torn down. No better building for its purpose will be in evidence anywhere than the duplicate of the Brandels block just across the street at Seventeenth and Douglas, which is to be devoted in large part to theater uses, but it will also have stores and offices, most of which have already been spoken for. Flanking it on the alley will be the new home of The Ice editorial and mechanical forces. On the corner west of the Nebraska Telephone building John L. Kennedy is to erect a business block, and it seems altogether probable this will be three stories in height, instead of two, as at first planned.

Woman Says J. C. Mabray is John C. McCann

CHICAGO, April 24.—Consul Erskine denies that Mrs. Laura Gates of St. Louis, who is reported to have identified the Des Moines prisoner as McCann, is in the employ of the British consul. "I have heard of Mrs. Gates," said Erskine, "but never have seen her. She has written me letters protesting 'Lord Barrington's' innocence, but never has been in my office to my knowledge. She certainly is not attached to the office in any official capacity. I have known that she was personally interested in 'Lord Barrington's' case, she claims to have known him in England."

NEW BUILDINGS COST $7,000,000

in a way to make it one of the very finest institutions in the whole western country. The Swedish Bethany hospital is to keep up with the needs of the day by having a very fine building constructed; and the proposed new orthopedic hospital, with a maternity, or lying-in, division, will help to constitute Omaha as among the leading centers of the land in that line. Good hospitals, thoroughly equipped, draw medical students, and physicians everywhere make it a point to keep in close touch with all such development. There have been rumors, indefinite as yet, that the famous surgeons, the Mayors of Rochester, Minn., are contemplating a branch establishment somewhere, and if this proves true, Omaha can well be considered in line as a most eligible and promising location.

Two notable additions to the churches of Omaha are to go up during the summer. The First Baptist Presbyterian at Twentieth and Willis, and the Second Church of Christ, Scientist, at Twenty-fourth and St. Mary's avenue. They promise to be high types of the best in church architecture.

More for Wholesale District.

Several substantial buildings are to go up in the wholesale district, of which some are already under way. The Loos-Wilf five-story factory at Twelfth and Davenport, the International Harvester company's warehouse at Eighth and Capitol avenue, Bekin's warehouse at Sixteenth and Leavenworth, David Cole's butter factory at Tenth and Howard and a large building to be used by the D. J. O'Brien candy factory is strong possibility. The Klapp-Barlett Printing company will erect an addition at Tenth and Douglas.

REFUGEES FLEE TO MOUNTAINS

Women and Children from Burned Villages Exposed to Violence.

BEIRUT, Asiatic Turkey, April 24.—According to the latest information of the progress of the fanatical anti-Christian rising in the country around Alexandria the Armenian village of Kesab has been burned and many persons have been killed there. The women and children of Kesab are fugitives in the surrounding mountains.
