SLAUGHTER OF GRIZZLIES

Omaha Batters Treat Pitcher Corbett in Most Shameful Manner.

LAND FOR NINETEEN SAFETIES

Holds Opponents at His Mercy Until the Seventh-King. Welch and Pendry Star

DENVER, April 30.-In a temperature that made the weather of yesterday seem warm, Omaha fairly drove Denver to drink today. The Omaha liftters were on edge and the Denver fielders were on the burn In the opening maings the Denver men had five errors, causing Corbett to cross his heart with a bad ball and swear he was never so against it. King and Welch did most of the damage, the former getting five hits, while the latter had two twobaggers and a three-bagger. Lower pitched splendld ball, no runs being made until the seventh, when the game was safe in the Omaha locker. A report that a man froze to death during the game is not true, though it gained large credence. The game was drawn out and tiresome to Denverites. Some Omaha rooters in the stand had a good time. Galgano Pitches Good Ball, but His Support is Foor.

PUEBLO, April 20 —Gaigano allowed Des Moines just one hit in the first nine innings today, but his team mates gave him ragged support and the visitors got four runs off a comedy of errors. After the side should have been easily retired in the eleventh inning errors gave the visitors three rruns and the game. In the tenth inning Des Moines filled the bases, with none out, but could not score. The mercury was near the freezing point and made gool playing almost impossible, the pitching of Galgano and Lang being the big feature. The score:

GOOD SUCCEEDS KID LEBRAND Bush's Fielding Saves the Game for New Catcher and Utility Man Signed by Pa Rourke.

Kid LeBrand, who jumped Omaha when the team was at Grand Island Wednesday and went to Stockton, Cal., in the outlaw league, has been succeeded by Walter Good, a young catcher and utility man from the semi-pros of Denver."

Good is reputed to be a corking good catcher, an all-round fielder and a batter of high qualities. He played a while last season with Pueblo and was batting 435 when a pitched ball hit him and put him out of the game.

Good will help Gonding with the eatchng until Cadman recovers, and after that will be used as utility, catching, or wherever needed Brother Dave confirms the report that Good has been secured permanently. He says the team needs a good utility man, and that while Cadman is progressing nicely with his injuries and probably will be back at work the middle of May, even then an extra man must be carried, and moreover, Cadman may not get in form as soon as expected.

"What about Belden for utility?" was anked.

"He will be retained all right," was the The Denver Post, in discussing Good, suggests that the Omaha team looks like Several Class B league teams were after Good, besides the Des Mones club of the Western league, but he accepted the Omaha offer because of the feeling that he thus offer because of the feeling that he thus becomes a member of a team which will win the pennant this year, an opinion shared by many good judges of base ball ability who have sized up the Omaha bunch carefully.

Good is not only a corking good catcher, but can play any position on the in or outfield. He has shown better form this year than ever before.

Moshers Beat Boyles.

Moshers Beat Boyles.

The Mosher-Lampman coilege defeated the Boyles coilege Thursday afternoon in a game of ball. The rivalry between these teams has been intense, and they fought for every point. Roetger started out in the box for Boyles, but lasted only one inning, the Mosher-Lampmans falling on him for four runs. Hickey, who relieved him, pitched great ball, and held the winners safe, with the exception of the eighth inning, when Crandall, with a man on third and second, singled to left, scoring two. The work of Torey, second baseman for Boyles, was distinctly the feature of the game, he making some sensational stops and accepting every chance which came his way without bobble. Adams was on the slab for the Mosher-Lampman's and pitched his usual steady game, letting the Boyles team down with three scattered hits and deserving a shut out, Crandall's catching and batting, Fike's playing center field, Tompsett at short, Van Liew on first, deserve special mention.
