KIDNAPER BOYLE IS GUILTY

Jury Returns Verdict After Being Out Fifteen Minutes.

BIG CROWD IN COURT ROOM

As First Witness in the Famous Case, Billy Whittia Tells the Story of His Abduction from the Sharon School.

MERCER, Pa., May 6.—James Boyle was convicted of the abduction of "Billy" Whittia today, the jury being out fifteen minutes. When the court convened this afternoon counsel for Boyle entered a plea of not guilty or a refusal to offer any evidence. Under the circumstances Boyle's conviction in the abduction case was assured.

"Billy" Whittia on the witness stand today pointed his finger at the defendant as the latter sat in the prisoner's box and said with a positiveness that could not be denied, "That is the man." He had been asked if he could point out the man who took him away from Sharon last March and his answer was given without the slightest hesitation.

Hundreds crowded the frail building serving for a temporary court house when court convened this morning and the doors were ordered locked to prevent a possible disaster from overcrowding. James Boyle entered a formal plea of not guilty, the jury selected yesterday was sworn and the opening address to the jury was made by T. C. Cochran, in charge of the prosecution. He spoke nearly half an hour, outlining what the state will attempt to prove, which differs in no material point from accounts of the kidnaping already published.

"Billy" Whittia was the first witness, and before being sworn caused a ripple of laughter when he answered the question as to where boys go who do not tell the truth by saying, "They go to hell." In his boyish way he told the story of the man, who said his name was Mr. Jones, calling for him with a buggy at the school and telling him he had been sent to take him away on account of snafu, that he was to take others also, and that "Billy" would meet his friends on the train.

Addressed Letter to Mother.

"Billy" said "Mr. Jones" gave him a letter and asked him to write his mother's name and address on it, that he did so with a pencil and the man mailed it in Sharon. When asked to describe the difference in the man's appearance then and now "Billy" said that when he first saw the man "he had his whiskers here," pointing to his upper lip. He said the man took the whiskers off after a while. When Abner Hancock, a barber of Niles, O., was asked to stand up "Billy" identified him as the man who had shaved Boyle. He told of the drive to Sharon, the subject of the case, and of the "hospital" where the doctors should see him and put him in a posthouse. He said Mr. and Mrs. Jones directed him to do so.

Aviator Faints, Machine Drops

Italian Lieutenant Severely Injured While Trying to Operate Wright Aeroplane.

ROME, May 6.—Lieutenant Calderara of the Italian navy was injured here today while flying a Wright aeroplane. As he was making a sharp turn the machine fell to the ground and the aviator was picked up unconscious. It is estimated he fell a distance of about forty-five feet.

The lieutenant, who is a pupil of Wilbur Wright, was revived and moved to a military hospital.

Speaking of the accident later he said he had flown this morning because three of his uncles had come purposely from Verona to witness his performance. He said that he felt ill and fainted and must have stepped from his seat. He thus fell to the ground first and the machine came down after him.

The machine was badly damaged.

Patten Still at Bartlett Ranch

Brothers Deny He Has Returned to Chicago or that He Directs Market.

CHICAGO, May 6.—Reports that James A. Patten, the bull leader in wheat, had returned to his home after his vacation in the west, were denied today by his brothers, George and Harry Patten.

Mr. Patten has not returned, he has no private wire to the Bartlett ranch, as reported and we haven't a word from him for three days. It is the way George Patten entered his resignation of the office.

TRINIDAD, Colo., May 6.—James A. Patten is still on the Bartlett ranch in northern New Mexico.

Apparently Mr. Patten has no present intention of leaving the "hog" hunting grounds he has found in the forests and mountains of northern New Mexico and according to the reluctantly given information over a long distance telephone he is having the vacation of his life.

Armenians Saved from Death Are Like Lost People

ADANA, Asiatic Turkey, Wednesday, April 28.—Via Constantinople, May 6.—Rev. Stephen B. Twombly, a missionary of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, estimates the number of Armenians killed in the province of Adana since the outbreak of the anti-Christian rioting at 23,000. The missionary said today: "A conservative estimate of the Christians killed in the city of Adana is 3,000. This calculation is made up from the lists prepared by the priests and other officials who give permits for burials. Not less than 20,000 perished in the towns and villages of the province. This figure is based upon the full information sent forward by the British consul.

"The surviving Armenians in the entire province are largely women and children. They amount to about 25,000 souls and are today without homes, shops, tools, clothing or bread. A most pitiable and wretched multitude is passing up and down the streets of Adana like a lost people. They throng the big factory yards, where a dole of flour is given out by the relief committee. Crowds of broken hearted women and children are coming in from the country to even greater misery to the city.

BEIRUT, Asiatic Turkey, May 6.—The situation at Beirut, where a number of Armenians have been massacred, has been relieved as a result of the presence and exertions of the captain of the British battleship Triumph and the British consul at Alexandretta, who went down the coast on board the Triumph.

The two officials visited Galadron and Kessab and found these towns indescribably carnageous. There are more than 1,000 helpless and destitute women in a village on the sea coast near Kessab.

GUTHRIE, Okla., May 6.—According to information received here today there was no loss of life or serious damage to property in the storm that struck Ardmore, Okla., last night. A heavy wind demoralized wire communication for several hours and the report spread that the town had been destroyed. Wire facilities were still badly crippled today, but sufficient was learned to show that the wind did not even damage small houses.

384 Girls' Coats in This Selling

Benson & Thorne Co. Promises Real Sensation in Girls' Garments Saturday.

Following the custom wherein the East looks to the West to help dispose of a manufactured surplus, the firm of A. Portello & Co. of 5 E. 14th St., New York City, has sold to Messrs. Benson & Thorne of 1615 and 1617 Douglas St., a lot of exactly 384 girls' spring coats at prices low enough to go on record as genuinely sensational.

The deal was consummated entirely by mail and telegraph—no question arose as to the merchandise, for Messrs. Benson & Thorne KNEW the garments to be the finest ever made up for girls—it all resolved itself into a question of price.

So when Benson & Thorne write: "We will give you so much" the deal was closed and as a result, Friday evening papers will contain news of a Saturday sale that will be watched with interest by thousands.

Girls' absolutely highest class, faultlessly made, perfect, 5 and 6 length coats that should be selling at $5.00, $6.00 and $7.50 will be marked at $2.95—the usual $4.50, $5.00 and $5.50 grades go at $3.00.

The windows on Friday will bear out Benson & Thorne's claim: "We never have, for never will, carry anything shoddy or early made—even at bargain figures." You've seen value and value, but here's a new era of value in store for you here Saturday.

FUND TO BACK WORLD PEACE

Swedish Consul Donates $25,000 to Fund Series of Lectures.

BANQUET ENDS CONFERENCE

Delegates Are Guests of Chicago Association of Commerce, Ballinger, Tawney and Bartholdt Being Speakers.

CHICAGO, May 6.—The first material fruit of the National Peace conference, which closed here last night, is a fund of $25,000 donated to Northwestern university by John R. Lyndgren, Swedish consul to Chicago and cashier of the State Bank of Chicago.

The fund provided by Mr. Lyndgren is to be utilized for the purpose of founding a permanent series of lectures and to secure the annual payment of prizes for essays upon the questions of international peace and interdenominational religious harmony.

Feeling that a real step forward in the world's peace movement had been taken delegates to the second national peace congress brought their three days' convention to a close with a banquet last night.

Ambassador Count von Bernstorff of Germany and Minister Wu Tingfang in persons appeared for their respective countries and in his family alone prevented the presence of Herman De Lagercrantz, the Swedish minister. Secretary of the Interior Ballinger represented the United States. Others were Alfred Mitchell Innes, counselor of the British embassy; K. Matsuura, Japanese consul at Chicago, and Dr. Halvander Koht of the University of Norway.

Banquet to Delegates.

Last night the delegates were entertained at a banquet given by the Chicago Association of Commerce, Secretary Ballinger and Congressman Tawney and Bartholdt being among the speakers.

The activities of the day were led by Ambassador von Bernstorff and Congressman Bartholdt.

Mr. Bartholdt presided at the afternoon session. On one occasion he tangled the respective countries of the German and Chinese diplomats, saying: "The Chinese will have the honor of introducing to you the official representative of a nation where militarism is spelled with a small 'm' and peace with a large 'P.'" said he. "I have the honor to present his excellency, Wu Ting-fang, minister of the German empire in the United States." The mistake was soon noticed and the chairman was stopped by shouts of laughter. He then announced that the negotiations which have been dropped for a year or so for an arbitration treaty between the United States and Germany have been resumed.

Mr. Bartholdt declared that not one dollar had been expended to fortify this country against Canada, and that at the last Hague conference America and Great Britain stood together on a resolution for gradual disarmament of the nations.

For the benefit of Mr. Matsuura, touching on the late race troubles in California, the congressman stigmatically remarked that war clouds in the United States have a propensity for darkening the horizon just before the matter of appropriations for the army and navy come up.

The fund provided by Mr. Lyndgren is to be utilized for the purpose of founding a permanent series of lectures and to secure the annual payment of prizes for essays upon the questions of international peace and interdenominational religious harmony.

Feeling that a real step forward in the world's peace movement had been taken delegates to the second national peace congress brought their three days' convention to a close with a banquet last night.

Ambassador Count von Bernstorff of Germany and Minister Wu Tingfang in persons appeared for their respective countries and in his family alone prevented the presence of Herman De Lagercrantz, the Swedish minister. Secretary of the Interior Ballinger represented the United States. Others were Alfred Mitchell Innes, counselor of the British embassy; K. Matsuura, Japanese consul at Chicago, and Dr. Halvander Koht of the University of Norway.

Banquet to Delegates.

Last night the delegates were entertained at a banquet given by the Chicago Association of Commerce, Secretary Ballinger and Congressman Tawney and Bartholdt being among the speakers.

The activities of the day were led by Ambassador von Bernstorff and Congressman Bartholdt.

Mr. Bartholdt presided at the afternoon session. On one occasion he tangled the respective countries of the German and Chinese diplomats, saying: "The Chinese will have the honor of introducing to you the official representative of a nation where militarism is spelled with a small 'm' and peace with a large 'P.'" said he. "I have the honor to present his excellency, Wu Ting-fang, minister of the German empire in the United States." The mistake was soon noticed and the chairman was stopped by shouts of laughter. He then announced that the negotiations which have been dropped for a year or so for an arbitration treaty between the United States and Germany have been resumed.

Mr. Bartholdt declared that not one dollar had been expended to fortify this country against Canada, and that at the last Hague conference America and Great Britain stood together on a resolution for gradual disarmament of the nations.

For the benefit of Mr. Matsuura, touching on the late race troubles in California, the congressman stigmatically remarked that war clouds in the United States have a propensity for darkening the horizon just before the matter of appropriations for the army and navy come up.
