Off the City and County—Charles of 77, seems to have resorted to other means of livelihood than work. He is establishing a record as a boarder at the city and county hotels, run by the police and the sheriff, respectively. It is said he will not work, prefers jail life to almost anything else. Friday morning the police magistrate gave him an order for city hotel board and room for five days.

Some Rogues Stole the Saplings—P.
Haniel's praiseworthy intention of setting out six young cherry trees in the yard of his proposed new home at 2802 South Twelfth street, was villainously thwarted Thursday by a rogue who filched the saplings from their mother.

Oo-Woo, He's a Bad One—Francis D.
Kremer, 214 Charles street, was "up in the air" Friday morning, the exact reason for his predicament not being known. He came down soon after and also came down to the police station with an officer in the patrol wagon. He is held there on the charge of drunkenness and threatening to kill his wife. A loaded revolver was found in one of his pockets to give strength to the charge of threatening to kill. Officer Timm made the arrest.

FREDRICKSON LOSES COIN

Auto Man is Robbed of $110 by Pants Thief Who Gets Into Apartments.

The first large "pants burglary" of several months was pulled off Thursday night and H. E. Fredrickson, the automobile dealer, was the victim. Some time during the night, a burglar entered his apartment at the Hamilton flats, Twenty-fourth Farnam streets, through the kitchen window, and "cleaned" his trousers pockets for $110, a knife and a key. The police are trying to get track of the wily pants thief.

AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

City Treasurer Shows Balance on Credit Side of $341,731.

LARGE SUM IN SEWER FUND

Owners of Dogs Begin to Pay in Their Money, with Many Requests for Some Particular Number.

The city treasurer submitted his monthly report Thursday showing the month of April receipts from all sources, not including school funds, were $4,035. The disbursements were $7,120. A net balance remains to the credit of the city amounting to $341,731. Of this amount $230,884 belongs to the sewer fund. The money in all other funds at present is $109,847.
$121,145. This money will be considerably increased by the recent sale of $50,000 in special improvement bonds. Three months yet remain in the fiscal year and as usual the funds reach the lowest point about the close of the year.

Cashing in for Dogs.
The city clerk began the issue of dog tags yesterday afternoon and before night the people who have the welfare of their pets at heart had purchased fully forty tags. Some of the early purchasers were seeking the lucky and the "dogdom" numbers. The later ones who had waited found all the numbers to which mild superstitions clings taken. William Richard, Jr., got No. 1 by making a special request over a month ago. James Jones secured No. 13.
Frank Hydock's dog tag will wear the popular "22." J. P. Donahay, who knows how to read "the bones," wanted No. 11 when he found No. 7 was gone.

Much merriment was enjoyed by E. P.
Roggen, the dispenser of dog tags, heralding the bargain counter tags marked down from $2 to $1 for dogs and from $5 to $3 for females. This included the recent action of the city council amending the poundmaster's ordinance.

Judge Callanan's Report.
Judge Callanan made his monthly report yesterday. Of 125 cases in police court he disposed fifty. He gave jail sentences to thirty-three. The county jail received five during the month. The judge fined twenty-one and bound four to the district court. Sixteen sentences were suspended pending good behavior on the part of the offenders. The school fund received $48 and the general fund $2 from the money collected in the cases of fines.

Kastl Residence Damaged.
The residence occupied by Anton Kastl, Twentieth and Q streets, was damaged about $300 yesterday afternoon by fire. The department arrived late because all were at the big fire at Peter's. The family had time to move all the furniture out. It is not thought the fire originated from the larger conflagration, although the number of small fires in different parts from that source were numerous yesterday morning. The building was owned by Frank Lightner.

Two Burglars Taken In.
Officer D. B. Ringer arrested two burglars yesterday morning when they were coming out of F. L. Baker's bakery at 341 Q street. Their names were J. Davis and L. Lindsey. Residents of the vicinity saw the two men forcing an entrance and someone happened to know where to find and warn the patrolman on that beat. Ringer hastened to the bakery and caught the two men after they had finished prowling in the place. They were taken to the police office and resisted. The loss was small, but the evidence was found to be of the most positive kind to prove a case of breaking and entering. The men were charged with burglary on the jail blotter.
They are barely of age, but have given the police trouble before.

Soldier Easily Worked.
Benjamin Hamstead, a retired soldier of the regular army, reported to the police that he had been robbed Wednesday night.
He said he had just landed in the city, having $20 in cash and his pension certificate, also a voucher for his quarterly pay.
He made a man in Omaha who appeared to be very affable and they started to take in the sights of Omaha. Hamstead said they took only a few drinks when his friend proposed they should go to South Omaha.
He said he had a fear the police might arrest him for a fight he had had. When they arrived in South Omaha Hamstead could remember nothing until he awoke found in bed Thursday morning and found he had been robbed. He came to himself in a room on lower N street. He gave a good description of the man who had been his companion.

Prisoner Loses Sheriff.
Sheriff Peak of Arkansas City, who left South Omaha Wednesday night with a suspected forger named August Brock, unintentionally permitted his prisoner to escape him in Kansas City. When the sheriff left South Omaha the man was in trousers, but on the way to Kansas City the prisoner persuaded the sheriff to take the handcuffs off. The sheriff wired the chief of police of his misfortune. The authorities hope to get track of the man through his baggage, which was sent to a place in Iowa.

Magie City Gossip.
L. R. Taylor of the State University is home for a few days.
Jettie's Gold Top Beer delivered to any part of the city. Telephone No. 8.
The condition of Miss Bertha Snelany, who has been ill, is said to be serious.
Mrs. J. Hopkins of Elmore, Neb., is the guest of her brother, Edward P. Baker.
Edward Skupa underwent an operation at the South Omaha hospital Wednesday.
The South Omaha High School Alumni association is to give a play Tuesday evening with Harry DeYoung acting the leading role.
Charles Wilson was arrested yesterday on suspicion. He came to South Omaha from Missouri and the police are making inquiries in his home state.

Mrs. Phoebe Smallridge, forty-fourth and T streets, died Thursday at noon. The funeral service will probably be held Saturday at 2 p. m. from St. Clement's mission.

A very large crowd of South Omaha people attended the musical given by the school. The pupils realized enough enough to help out the funds for the new statuary splendidly.

Stafford Flowers of Omaha and Miss Verna R. Scott were married yesterday afternoon at the residence of Rev. R. E.
Millard of the Hammon Park Methodist church. Mr. Flowers is a native of Iowa connected with the Omaha Electric Light company and Miss Scott was in the service of the Nebraska Telephone company.
The wedding was quietly celebrated. The party will be at home after June 1 at 25 North Fifteenth street.

Yes, Canada Joins Asia, Though Late

That Love Message Finally Comes from Jonathan Bryan to David Dahlgren.

Telegrams of congratulation continue to pour in on Mayor Dahlgren and the executive has heard from friends from New York to San Francisco and from Winnipeg to Texas. Many of the telegrams have come from Nebraska, Colorado and Wisconsin points, but others have come from Arizona, South Dakota, Chicago, Sioux City, St. Paul, Kansas City and other points.

The last telegram came from W. J.
Bryan, who is in Winnipeg, Manitoba.
Three years ago Mr. Bryan wired the mayor from Asia that "All Asia rejoices over your election." This time he telegraphed:

"Accept congratulations. Canada joins Asia in rejoicing." W. F. Cody, "Buffalo Bull," wired the mayor from New York:
"Congratulations on round up. Cut out the dry and don't have the wet." In his mail Friday morning Mr. Dahlgren received a bulky letter from "Captain Jack" Crawford, the scout who rode the range with the mayor in the early days and who appeared on the lecture platform at the Benson chautauqua last summer.
The mayor has not as yet opened the letter, but is content in showing the address, which reads:

His honor, the mayor, he got there for fair.
In spite of the asses, he haw.
Because he was square, that's why he got there.
His honor, the mayor of Omaha.
The letter reached Mr. Dahlgren with no other address than this.

Huteson Takes Big Trip West
Will Attend Townsite Sale at Prince Rupert and Then Prowl for Pleasure.

J. C. Huteson of the Huteson Optical company left Thursday afternoon for San Francisco, Seattle and Prince Rupert, where the sale by auction of the townsite terminus of the Grand Trunk Pacific will be held May 25.—Mr. Huteson is interested in this townsite.

When the sales are over Mr. Huteson will spend some time on a trip he has planned to take for some time and which is decidedly original as an outing. He intends to follow the old telegraph trail to the Yukon, at least as far as Nechaco valley, some 400 miles northwest of Port Rupert.

Mr. Huteson will join his husband in the west when the children's school is out, but not until after he returns from the Yukon trip, however. The family will camp on Vashon Island near Seattle, and Mr. Huteson has promised to send friends a little bunch of salmon, which he will buy at a convenient fish market.

BOOK BY C. VINCENT AD TO THE CORN EXPOSITION

Volume Preaching Corn Culture Offers Sample Grain to Those Who Will Try It.

C. Vincent of the Farmers Grain company has issued an eight-page booklet on corn culture and to advertise the National Corn exposition, in which he offers to send some prize seed corn to any farmer who will agree to give it good treatment, so that it may have a fair chance in the localities that secure it.

Mr. Vincent, who is an expert judge, taught a large quantity of the corn at exhibition at the 1908 National Corn exposition and he says in his booklet that all he wants is the farmers to send a record of the results to him at the close of the season, and he furnishes a blank for the purpose.

"The grower will be the owner of all the corn grown and will be the owner of all the premiums he may win with it," says Mr. Vincent. Then he goes on in a terse way and gives "directions for planting prize corn," which, after all, are not much different from the directions for planting all corn if it is planted right, but a lot different from the way most of the corn is planted.

Then, when he has written it all, the grain dealer picks out this piece of classic literature to end a booklet of "Corn." Oh, the comfort of the inexpressible comfort of feeling safe with a person—being neither to weigh thoughts nor measure words, but pouring them all right out, very plain and grain and grain and grain, certain that a faithful hand will take it and sift them, keep what is worth keeping and give the breath of kindness blow the rest away.

Today and Yesterday.
Changes in What We Wear and What We Eat.

The steamship replaced the sailing vessel, the electric light succeeded the oil lamps, and we have no need, nor desire to "trade back." Our health is just as good and we can crowd that much more work and play into the day of twenty-four hours.

Foods have changed, too. Corn bread and wheat flour share honors with dainty yet substantial "prepared foods." People now realize the necessity of sparing their stomachs. They eat more fruit and green stuffs and cereals and the health is better for it.

The old fashioned breakfast of "beef-steak, potatoes and bread" or "bacon and eggs and muffins" are replaced by E-C Corn Flakes or Egg-O-Seo Wheat Flakes and fruit, and our health is better for it.
All the nourishment of the grain is retained in the crisp flakes, and it's no task for the stomach.

When the Teachers' Annuity and Aid association start out to do anything they usually accomplish what they intended to accomplish, and the results are never in doubt from a financial standpoint. And every effort was in no way an exception, for when they decided that Mr. Joseph Galm should give a recital of pianoforte music under their auspices, it meant that his popularity as well as theirs would secure a large and intelligent audience.

And so, the First Congregational church had one of the largest audiences of the season to welcome back once more to the gates of Omaha, Mr. Joseph Galm, who for many years labored here as pianist, teacher and composer, known and esteemed by a large circle of music-loving friends and admirers. This was Mr. Galm's first "official" appearance, as it were, since his return from Germany where he has been studying and listening to the great things in the realm of music for the past few years. The applause which greeted the various numbers on the program, and which was given with such hands at the very end of the last number, bore eloquent testimony to the fact that absence had not made hearts grow less fond, and that Mr. Galm has still a warm place in the minds of his Omaha friends.

Mr. Joseph Galm is a player whom one might best describe as magnetic and romantic. His playing of the Gluck-Brahms Gavotte of the Richard Strauss "Trauermarsch" and of the Chopin Mazurka was worthy of special distinction. The entire program was of unusual interest in its content, because of the collection of a number of beautiful compositions many of which were unfamiliar to the local audiences. Conspicuous among these was the last number, "Carnival Scenes," by Constantine Corpus, one of the moderns and the splendid picture painted in tone by Paul Joun, one of the most successful composers of the modern Russian school.

Mr. Galm contributed two most attractive numbers of his own composition and they showed much maturity by their interesting contrapuntal weaving and interweaving. There was not a dry measure in either and they were not only musically, but thoroughly musical in spirit and in life. They were written by one who evidently knows how, and one who feels and has something to express.

Mr. Galm was greatly pleased at the warmth of his reception and he confessed to a nervousness quite unusual with him, on account of appearing before an exacting audience which would naturally expect much. He will shortly play a program of his own compositions and it will be looked forward to with eagerness.

Turner Lets Slip Some Words

"Sorry I Spilled Gasoline," He Says When the Fire Breaks Out.

Witnesses for the state against Dr. Duane Turner declared Friday morning in district court that following the fire they found an oil can nearly empty in the defendant's room. The can had contained gasoline or kerosene.

Previous to the fire Mrs. Elizabeth Cook, in whose house Turner was rooming, had smelt gasoline through the upper floor. When she met Turner after the fire had been discovered he said:

"I'm sorry I did this."
"Did what?" inquired Mrs. Cook.
"Spilled gasoline," declared the man now under trial for arson.

The state has established some suspicious circumstances and will show a motive with regard to the insurance which Turner held on his goods stored in the attic where the fire broke out. Harry Jordan of the Reed Real Estate company, and Wolford Payne, a young man rooming in the house, were other witnesses Friday morning.

EIGHT OWLS IN THE CITY HALL

They Break Into the Building on Tuesday, Day of the City Election.

Eight members of the Order of Owls were elected to office at the city election Tuesday and the biggest Owl in the bunch is Mayor Dahlgren.

Now the Owls are going to do a little hooting next Tuesday night in celebration of their victory. The lodge will give a banquet at the Orient Chili parlors on South Fourteenth street, when these eight official Owls will be the guests of honor.

The eight Owls elected are Mayor Dahlgren, Councilmen Burmeister, Hummel, Kugel and Schroeder; City Clerk Butler and City Attorney Burnam. Each one will hoot at the banquet.
