Brigandage at Constantinople. CONSTANTINOPLE, May 7.- There is onsiderable disorder in the country surrounding Constantinople, and brigandage is being carried on in the very suburbs of the capital. This condition of affairs is a result of the rapid changes in government and undoubtedly can be laid to the doors of deserters from the former Constantinople garrison and political fugitives, who have undertaken to live on the country. Count Dene, secretary of the Austrian embassy, who is at present engaged in organizing the first fox hunt at Constantinople, rode out to Sweet Waters, in the western suburbs yesterday to examine the country. While there, a man stepped
