

Kilpatrick's Dry Goods Attractions for Monday

Every single item in this list will interest some reader. Every single item should be seasonable if the weather man was guided by the calendar. Somebody said once that "Hope deferred maketh the heart sick." We violate no confidence when we admit that we have been hoping for seasonable weather for sometime, and while not sick, we are almost tired waiting. For Monday we have decided to use stimulants, stimulants which will be approved equally by those who are for or against the daylight closing bill. A few minutes will be well spent glancing over the list.
