LINCOLN CLUBS CANNOT SELL

Excise Board Orders Shut Down on All Sales of Liquor.

WILL IGNORE COURT DECISIONS

Elks, Eagles and Other Organizations Will Resist the Order to Cease Selling to Their Own Members.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, May 11.—At the meeting of the excise board today the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the rule against clubs furnishing liquor to members be strictly enforced against all clubs of every character, and the chief of police is hereby instructed to give due notice to all clubs that such rule must be obeyed.

The rule referred to is rule 27, which has been in force for some years, but which, under the circumstances of liquor selling as they existed, has never been enforced.

This rule reads:

It shall be unlawful for any incorporated club, voluntary association of persons, and the officers, agents and servants thereof, to sell or furnish to its members or other persons any intoxicating liquor for which any money or other valuable consideration is charged or received therefor, directly or indirectly.

This rule, as it is drawn, is intended to apply to every club, social or otherwise. It will, if enforced, stop the sale of liquor to members at the Elks and similar social organizations, where the sale to members is only incidental to the general purposes of the club. It is understood that the Elks will resist in the courts any and all attempts at enforcement.

Court Decisions Favor Clubs.

The question of whether clubs can sell liquor to members or not has been before the courts at various times and in various guises. The rule adopted by the supreme court as to whether the club was organized simply to give the members a chance to meet and get their fill of intoxicants. If so, it is a violation of the Excise law. If the sale of liquor to members was only incidental to the general social purpose, it has been held not to be a violation of that law.

The distinction between those decisions and the excise rule is outlined to be this: That the courts have held that the sale of a social club to members is not a violation of the Excise law, but another statute that the Excise law gives the excise board the exclusive right to regulate the sale of liquors. From this statute the board seeks to draw its right to say that none of the clubs shall sell to members.

This rule, it seems, will not apply to the Country club, because that club is located just outside the city limits. It was once a part of the city, but to avoid paying city taxes on the grounds it was removed outside. Some dispute appears to exist among members whether the club house is outside the limits, but City Attorney Stewart says it is all outside, and that the excise board has no control over the sale of liquors there. A woman living in the neighborhood of the club telephoned to the city attorney today asking if there was not some way of stopping it.

Contest for Mayoralty.

T. J. Doyle, attorney for Robert Malone, said today that as soon as he could consult his client he would begin a suit to contest the election of D. L. Love for mayor. The contest will be started in the county court, which has original jurisdiction in such cases.

The claims of Malone that he is elected are based on the returns of several precincts in the city in which he failed to have all the votes for him properly counted.

A. O. U. W. Grand Lodge.

Action will probably be taken by the A. O. U. W. grand lodge of Nebraska, convened this morning at the auditorium for a three days session, that may lead to the formation of an independent western jurisdiction. As a starter delegates from the jurisdiction of Arizona and New Mexico are here in the persons of Messrs. O'Connor and Trippl, grand officers seeking on behalf of the territory they represent to become a part of an independent jurisdiction, which distinction at present belongs to the cornucopia state alone, by reason of its defection from the supreme lodge of the United States. It is decided to turn a favorable ear to the independent jurisdiction idea and other states are likely to follow in their wake.

At the auditorium early this morning F. E. Stump of Lincoln, deputy grand master workman of the state and the head of the local entertainment committee, was exceedingly busy giving out badges to delegates and at times the crowd was so great that he was nearly swamped.

There will be a thousand members present before the thirteenth biennial session closes, Mr. Stump. It promises to be the most successful meeting in the history of the grand lodge. At least six hundred are here now and every train is bringing more.

"Politics" is engrossing the attention of most of the members. Grand Master Workman A. M. Walling of David City, who is a candidate for a second term, will be given the nomination without the shadow of a fight. Dr. J. Willis J. Redford of Wood River, grand medical examiner, who seeks a second term, will also likely get it without a contest.

There will be a lively battle for grand receiver to succeed W. A. Greenwald, the present incumbent. This is one of the salaried offices and there has always been a hard fight made to land the plum.

Candidates for that position who are hustling for votes are H. J. Whitmore of Lincoln, Jack Walsh of Humboldt, Robert Faulkner of Hastings, and E. L. Dodder of Omaha.

For grand foreman several candidates are mentioned, but the only one who appears to be making a stir is W. E. Lounsbury of Aurora. For a member of the grand finance committee, which is also a salaried office, several candidates appeared and their friends and supporters were doing some tall hustling to land their favorites.

Candidates in the field are J. B. Scott of Sutton, Cyrus Black of Hickman, D. J. Cronin of O'Neill, and A. L. Lane of Minden. The term is for six years.

Declines a $2,000 Offer.

SHOOTING AT BARN DANCE

William Johnson Resented Call Down for Insulting Young Women.

GRAND ISLAND, Neb., May 11.—(Special.)—William Johnson, farm laborer, was placed under arrest by Sheriff Dunlap today on the charge of having shot at Otto Kruse and others with intent to do great bodily injury. From the story of the affair as related by the complaining witnesses, Johnson attended a barn dance about eight miles northwest of this city at the farm of Kruse. As several young women were about to go through the lower part of the barn to get to the starboard to the loft, Johnson, who had been drinking, showed a bottle of whisky and invited the girls to drink with him. They refused. He became insistent and the girls nervously grasped the bottle and took it away from him. They later related their experience in the loft, where the dancing was going on and where the owner was, and the latter went down to re-monstrate with Johnson, who then again making a disturbance, and pacify him. After a talk there Johnson left, but immediately two shots entered the barn, the bullets passing close to where two men were sitting. Johnson tried to hide the revolver but it was later found, identified as his weapon, and tell-tale fire marks on one hand are also evidence in his favor.

Pythians Gather at Hastings

Over Three Hundred Knights and Sisters in Annual Convention.

HASTINGS, Neb., May 11.—(Special Telegram.)—Over three hundred delegates are here for the annual meeting of the Knights of Pythias grand lodge and the Pythian Sisters grand temple. Both organizations began their deliberations this morning and probably will not adjourn until tomorrow afternoon. The assemblage is the largest in the history of the orders in this state and for the first time the Pythian grand lodge is meeting in property owned by the fraternity.

Among the distinguished visitors is Mrs. Nellie Merrill of Muskegoe, supreme ruler of the sisterhood, for whom a reception was held this morning.

Addresses of welcome in both meetings were delivered by Judge Ragan. For the Knights, response was given by Grand Chancellor Clelland of Fremont, while for the sisterhood the response was given by Mrs. L. C. Dillworth of Omaha, past grand chief.

The meetings are held chiefly for the purpose of enacting fraternal legislation, of which many important matters are pending.

Girl is Still Infatuated

Violet Seathorn Stands by Man Who Enticed Her Away.

FAIRBURY, Neb., May 11.—(Special.)—Samuel Bristol and Violet Seathorn, who eloped a few days ago, were found Saturday at Wahoo, Neb., and arrested by Sheriff Churnside. Bristol is charged with enticing the girl, who is only 15 years of age, from home, and on his preliminary examination this morning was held in $500 bond to the next term of court. Bristol has been working here a few weeks in the employ of a painting firm, and made the girl's acquaintance while here. The girl was held in bond to appear as a witness at district court, it is evident she does not get her infatuation for Bristol and is trying to help him out of his trouble.

Gibson Water System Wins.

GIBSON, Neb., May 11.—(Special Telegram.)—A passing train set fire to J. D. Drury's big barn, east of town, this afternoon. An alarm was cast in and both fire companies responded. A terrific wind was blowing and the fire was burning to the eaves, but our magnificent water system put it out and very little damage was done. It required 1,000 feet of hose from the nearest hydrant to reach it.

Wants His Salary Reduced.

NORTH PLATTE, Neb., May 11.—(Special.)—Thomas C. Patterson, some days ago appointed Calvin A. Lowell as chief of police, and as he is also deputy sheriff, Mr. Lowell appeared before the county commissioners and asked them to reduce his salary from $75 to $55 per month, the $20 difference being the salary that Lowell will receive as chief of police. Lincoln county officials have little use for money.

GOLD DUST is a powdered soap of magic power

Soap is often made from cheap refuse animal fats.

Don't worry. GOLD DUST washing powder is a clean, wholesome vegetable oil soap, blended with carbonate of soda, and ground to a fine powder.

Not a trace of animal fat in it.

Our workmen at the factory never use gloves, but handle GOLD DUST, year after year, with bare hands, thus proving it harmless to skin or fabric.

Made by THE N. K. FAIRBANK COMPANY, Makers of FAIRY SOAP, the oval cake.
