

TOPICS OF THE DAY OF REST

Rev. Alex Henry, D. D., of Philadelphia in Omaha Sunday.

JUDGE ESTELLE AT THE Y. M. C. A.

Spirit of Union is Strongly in Evidence Among the Churches of Omaha and Federation is at Work.

At the First Methodist church at Twentieth and Davenport on Sunday evening at 7:45, Dr. Frank L. Loveland will deliver the last of the special series of sermons on "Spiritual Messages from Past and Present Writers." The subject is "Sidney Lanier, the Southern Passion Flower." The choir of forty voices, under the direction of Mr. Kelly, will give special music. It is desired that the audience will be in its seats by 7:45, avoiding confusion after the service begins.

The special music at the North Side Christian church Sunday will be as follows: Morning—Also solo by Mrs. T. F. Wiles. Evening—Jackson's "Te Deum Laudamus" by chorus choir.

At St. Mark's Lutheran, Twentieth and Burdette, the following special music will be given Sunday:

MORNING: "God is Love" by Harry Rowe Shelley. Evening: "Seek Ye the Lord" by Dr. J. W. Roberts. Tenor Solo—One Sweetly Sober Thought.

The following music will be given at the First Christian, Twenty-sixth and Harney: Morning—Hear Our Prayer. Anthem—Praise Ye the Father. Anthem—Praise the Lord O Jerusalem.

Mrs. Louise Shaddock-Zabriske, organist; Walter Graham, musical director.

Rev. F. L. Loveland, D. D., will speak at the Young Women's Christian association meeting, Sunday, May 16, at 4:30 o'clock. The special musical numbers will be a solo by Miss Hazel Loveland and a duet by Dr. and Miss Loveland.

The Omaha Ministerial union will hold a regular meeting Monday morning at 10:30 in the assembly hall of the Young Women's Christian association. The program: 10:30, business; 11, address.

Rev. Alexander Henry, D. D., of Philadelphia will pass through Omaha on his way to the Presbyterian general assembly, which meets at Denver on Thursday, May 20. He will spend Sunday and Monday in Omaha and will address the Presbyterian ministry, churches and Sunday schools according to the following program: Sunday morning at 9:30, the Sunday school and at 11 the congregation of the First Presbyterian church, South Omaha.

The spirit of union is strongly in evidence among the churches of Omaha. The banquet and business meeting held at the First Congregational church this evening was a notable event along the line of this ecclesiastical co-operation.

Judge Lee Estelle will speak at the Young Men's Christian association at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon upon "Real Justice to the Boys of Omaha," relating his experiences in juvenile court and giving his convictions regarding the treatment of the boy who goes wrong.

The Life Problem club, which meets at 4 o'clock in the library room, will be in discussion by Dr. W. O. Henry upon the subject of "Sex and Religion."

Music at Kountze Memorial church Sunday will be as follows: MORNING: Prelude in A. Battle. Our God. Solo—Im a Pilgrim. Quartet—The King of Love My Shepherd Is. Recessional—Love Divine. Postlude—Processional March. Guitard.

The quartet of St. Mary's Avenue Congregational church will give a sacred cantata, "The Ancient of Days," by C. Whitney Coombs, at the time of the usual morning service Sunday. This work is by a standard composer and contains many beautiful passages.

ROACHES—Peterman's Roach Food enters from their hiding places roaches, water bugs and beetles. They eat it and die. Even if they walk over it, it kills them.

RED BUGS—Peterman's Discovery. Instantly annihilates bed bugs, first class hotels, steamboat companies, etc., always use it 4 cents preventive.

RATS—Peterman's Rat-poison. Feed is no objection to rats that they leave the premises and do not return. Non-poisonous—the rats don't die. No fear of dead rats in the walls.

ANTS AND FLEAS—Peterman's Ant Food gives immediate relief. Nothing else so sure.

MAKING PLEASANT HOMES FOR SALARIED PEOPLE

It's a mistake to try to get along without things you really need in your home—you don't have to—there isn't the slightest necessity for it. We're encouraging people to live better—and we're making it possible for them to do so. Thousands of ambitious families in Omaha are made happier and enabled to enjoy life more abundantly because of our helpful credit service. It lifts the burden—solves the furniture problem—does it most satisfactorily, too. It provides the means by which any salaried person can acquire a cheerful home—an artistic and comfortable home, and that's one of the greatest blessings a man can have on this earth. It is a simple open account plan—you buy what you want and pay as you can. No interest—no extras—no hardships—no annoying features whatever. It's thoroughly pleasant, exceedingly generous and wonderfully helpful. And you are welcome to this credit service—won't you let it help you have your home furnished better than you have ever had it furnished before?

Truancy cases formed the bulk of the business before Judge Estelle of the juvenile court Saturday morning, but they were all disposed of with dispatch, all the children promising the judge to go to school in the future and to report to him weekly. They will bring the judge reports from their teachers to show that they have been to school.

One little girl—Genevieve Stubbs, 129 Chicago street—pleaded an unlucky star as the cause for her delinquency from school. Genevieve is 15 years old. She was born on November 15, underwent an operation at a local hospital on December 13 and was apprehended by Truant Officer Jessen on May 13. Genevieve gave the judge an "honest injun" promise that she would go to school in the future.

LAWYERS NAMED FOR ZIEBEL

Man Held for Murder Gets Too Busy Hiring Counsel and Court Has to Take Hand.

Albert S. Ritchie and Henry Myers were duly retained attorneys for August Ziebel Saturday morning. Ziebel has been engaged lawyers with some facility since he was arrested for the murder of his son. First he took Myers, then John M. Macfarland, and Ritchie last of all. None of the three at the time of retention knew of the others having been engaged. Judge Sutton heard of Ziebel's course and, summoning him and the three lawyers to court Saturday, ordered Ziebel to settle definitely and for all time who represented him. Ziebel hesitated and finally made the choice indicated.
