GRUENTHER NOT MOLLIFIED

Columbus Man Turns Down Offer of Banking Board Place.

BEST THING THE GOVERNOR HAS

Shallenberger's Campaign Manager Had to Give Way to O'Neill Statesman Too Suddenly to Get Over It Easily.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, May 19.—(Special.)—Chris Gruenther has just declined the position of secretary to the State Banking board. The place was offered to him, so it is reported on the most reliable authority, by Governor Shallenberger. The job pays $3,000 a year, but Mr. Gruenther has steadfastly refused any political job at the hands of the man he elected.

This leaves the governor in the clear now to appoint some good competent republican to fill the place, as he has done his duty and offered it to a member of his own party.

The action of the governor in offering to Gruenther the best place at his disposal is an indication that the State county man on his staff during the next campaign.

The appointment of Arthur Mullen as state oil inspector and ex-officio governor was a hard dig at Gruenther, who had managed the governor's campaign while Mullen was helping Tom Allen mail out copies of the Prince of Peace in the interest of Mr. Bryan. Inasmuch as Gruenther had taken upon himself, at the request of the governor, the entire management of his campaign it was naturally supposed the places to be filled by the executive would be distributed among the persons whom Gruenther called to his assistance.

Mullen got the first job and another person who was quoted as being for Governor Sheldon got one of the next best. Of course these things did not fit in with the order of business which Gruenther had and so far as anyone has noticed Gruenther has not been around the governor's office since his inauguration.

While it is very probable Gruenther could not qualify for the place under the law, even if he had any desire to take it, the governor has taken advantage of his opportunity to turn his good side to his late manager.

Incidentally the offer of the place to Gruenther may have been the cause of Arthur Mullen's attack of the "pinkies."

Two Defendants Cleared.

Holding that no proof of a conspiracy had been made, Judge T. C. Munger in the federal court this morning directed a verdict for W. E. Jakway and Leon Baker, two of the men sued by Harold W. Forrest for $20,000 because of alleged false imprisonment on the charge of embezzling money from the Nebraska Hardware company.

This left City Detective James Malone as the sole defendant in the suit and the trial was continued with him on the stand.

Thompson Supports Mains.

Deputy Food Commissioner S. L. Mains recently announced that the state law requires a statement of the ingredients of all food compounds to be placed on the label. He is now supported in this position by Attorney General Thompson, and the latter, in answer to a question, has held that when food packages are accompanied by gifts, premiums or prizes such packages are to be deemed misbranded under the law. Prize packages were not permitted by the former food commissioner, but the question has again arisen and the same ruling is made by the food commissioner and the attorney general.

Mr. Mains held in the case of salad dressing that as it was a food the ingredients must be stated on the label. The manufacturers objected to this on the ground that they would be compelled to make public their formula. The attorney general upholds the ruling, but says the statute contains nothing that indicates the necessity of disclosing a formula.

Puncturing the Lid.

The excise board this afternoon passed the rule which will create a public dispensary, where liquor may be sold for medicinal, medicinal, chemical and sacramental purposes. This will be the granting of a license to some proper person, who must pay $1,000 for the privilege of retailing intoxicants.

Other rules passed compel people who buy intoxicants to go to the place of purchase and get them. The railroad and express companies can't, under the imposition of a fine penalty, deliver wet goods save at the place of business. There shall be no soliciting or advertising for orders for liquor, and carriers cannot deliver goods to persons presenting orders. The rules also prohibit drinking in public places and on the streets. Druggists are restricted to permit to sell alcohol only, and must keep a public register.

Notable Officials Coming.

There will be a long and notable list of railroad officials at the annual dinner of the Lincoln Commercial club next Monday evening. Acceptances have been received by Secretary Whitten from fifteen or more to be present as guests of the club, and some others are also expected. The invitations were sent out as a special mark of honor to President W. C. Brown of the New York Central, who is to give the principal speech on that occasion.

Morgan, who for twenty-six years has been the preceptress of Mount Vernon dormitory of the Peru Normal, has just sent President Crabtree word that she will attend the commencement exercises here on June 1. She is highly praised by the first president, J. M. McKenzie, as a woman of exceptionally strong influence over both men and women. Probably no other announcement concerning the commencement exercises will so thoroughly thrill the hearts of the alumni as the news that Miss Morgan, now a gray-haired woman living in quiet retirement at Rochester, N. The Hungriest Boy on Earth is the growing boy at ten. You can't build him out of books or sermons. His growing body demands more building material than the adult. Nature is making for him a structure of brain, bone and muscular tissue. She must build it out of the food he eats and the air he breathes. The best food for the growing boy or girl is because it contains all the material for making bone, brain and muscle. The crispness of the shreds promotes mastication, which means sound teeth. The food to study on, to play on—for children and grown-ups. Your Grocer sells it.

Shredded Wheat is made of the choicest selected white wheat, cleaned, steam-cooked and baked. Try it for breakfast to-morrow with milk or cream. The Biscuit is also delicious for any meal in combination with fresh or preserved fruits.
