SCHIPKE JUSTIFIES NAME

Slugger Bill Star of Game, Denver Losing 12 to 1.

SWALM DOES WELL FIRST TRIAL

New Pitcher Outshone, However, by Schipke, Who Leads Great Batting Bee and Fields Everything in Neighborhood.

Omaha, 12; Denver, 1.

Slugger Bill made god on his reputation at Vinton street park Friday. Although it was ladies' day and the stands were filled with women they had no terrors for the Skipper, who batted and fielded like a Trojan—or as a Trojan would have if they'd played in those days. He speared everything which came his way, but when it came to wielding the willow he shone with a glisten which would illume any company.

Schipke started the batting rally which won the game for Omaha and then followed it up later with two more hits. He made two hits in one inning and was the real social favorite. Harry Welch was almost overlooked by the women who usually patter their little hands together when he comes to bat. It was Bill Schipke who attracted all the feminine attention. Even the handsome Swalm who pitched a magnificent game, was almost overlooked, so wrapped up were the women in the playing of Skipper Bill.

But women were not the only fans present, for there were over 1,500 members of Bill, the Skipepr, perform. ct thmrf Bill the Skipper perform. They were not disappointed. Bill, by the way, is glad to get back into an Omaha uniform and he is nto afraid to say so. His happiness can be seen fairly oozing out of every pore.

Here is the tale of his performance. For four innings Jackson, formerly of Omaha and now pitching for the Grizzlies, had held Omaha to one measley little hit and it was up to someone to break the ice. Bill was first at bat in the fifth inning and in answer to the cry of the fans, hit it out for a neat double. That was the opening wedge the Rourke family had been looking for and from that on what they did to Mr. Jackson was a plenty. They clouted the ball al lover the lot and put such a case of rattles on the old timers from the Rockies that three errors were made and six men passed.

Bats in Two Runs.

As said before, Bill Schipke hit a double. He made two hits in that inning. After all had batted around and it came Bill's turn to bat again Kane and Welch were on bases, so Slugger Bill simply signalled them to get ready to come home and hit out the single that allowed them to cross the plate with ease. Three hits in one day and then they say he can't hit.

But, while all the nice things are being said about Schipke, a certain new pitcher must not be overlooked, for Mr. Swalm pitched a splendid game of ball. He held the Grizzlies to five hits, passed but two, struck out six, made a hit, a run, a put-out and three assists. A prett ygood record for a new man on strange grounds against those heavy-hitting Gunthorpes.

Denver's only run came along in the sixth inning, when, with one out, Lindsay singled down by first. Swalm made a wild pitch on one of his spitters and then Maag swung on one which scooted down the third base line, out of reach of Skipper Bill, and Lindsay scored.

Manager Jones took a whirl at playing third base and did right well, making every play which came his way. Stankard was played in center field and Thompson benched.

Omaha made all the runs in two innings, seven in the fifth and five in the seventh. It was really a shame to take the money, but Denver still has its best pitchers in reserve. Pat Hohannon has not lost a game to date and Olmstead is on deck. Denver will be the attraction Saturday and Sunday, when the stands will undoubtedly be taxed, for Omaha has a new pitcher in Keeley to spring.

Notes of the Game.

Fisher's record looks pretty good to the experienced eye of a real fan. Two hits and two runs in two times up.

Some fan yelled at Slugger Bill that he would give $2 for a hit and Bill is two plunks ahead. The same fan offered Welch $1 for a hit and Welch went ahead $1.

Schipke picks up the grounders even more cleanly than he did three years ago, when he was the star third baseman in the Western league. He still has his mighty whip, too.

King made two errors in succession, but they did not count in the score. Two were out, and the errors, with a base on balls, filled the bases in the third, but Hartman could only hit a liner to King, who redeemed himself by holding it fast.

GREENBACKERS CAPTURE SECOND

Winnebago Johnson Was Too Tight for Cooleycrows.

LINCOLN, Neb., May 21.—The Greenbackers captured the second game of the series from Topeka today by a 3 to 1 score. Winnebago Johnon was a tight proposition for the Cooley Sox and held the visitors to five hits. Gagnier batted in all of Lincoln's runs, getting three hits in as many times at bat. The Cooleys pulled out of a hole in the second. With the bases full and nobody out, Burnum whiffed two batsmen and a quick heave by McManus caught a runner napping for the third out. The Greenbackers started the scoring in the fourth. Thomas led off with a two-bagger, went to third on Davidson's bunt and cross the platte on Gagnier's hit.

The visitors tied it up in the seventh when Fenlon circled the base on a walk, a steal and clean drive by Downey into right field. With one man down, the Greenbackers cinched the victory in the eighth. Thomas drew a walk on balls and raced to third on Davidson's hit. Gagnier clipped off another drive into right field for two sacks, sending Thomas and Davidson to the rubber. The fielding honore were annexed by Davidson, Waldron and Fenlon, all of whom made superb running catches. Score:

PUEBLO ERRS, DES MOINES HITS

Result Nine to Four, and Des Moines Takes First Place.

DES MOINES, May 21.—Pueblo had a carnival of errors and Des Moines one of hits in the game today, Des Moines ascending to first place as a result. Coates was in no shape to hold the hard-hitters of Des Moines, and home runs and two-baggers were scored, driving in run after run. Lang pitched again today and was unhittable except in the fourth inning. Mert ens' batting and the perfect fielding of the Ds Moines team were two of the features of the game. Nelson stole home in one inning and swiped second twice. Score:

SIOUX WIN THIRD SHUTOUT

Wichita Batters Could Not Hit Melter Any Easier Than Alderman.

SIOUX CITY, May 21.—Sioux City won its third successive shutout game today, beating Wichita by a score of 3 to 0, the same as the day before. Melter was a puzzle to Holland's bunch, allowing but three hits. Holmes' champions pulled out the game in the first inning after two were down. Andreas singled and went to third on a hard drive to right by Welch, on which the latter took second on a play to catch the fleet second baseman. Both men scored, when Hunter hit safely over the middle station. The other run came in the sixth on a pass to Welch, a sacrifice and a single by Stovall. But one error was made in the game, when Hughes muffed a short fly after a hard run. Score:
