Cows found free of tuberculosis are the herd to be free is given to the owner of the daily. For this reason the health commissioner believes the owners of all dairies, whether any of the cows appear to have tuberculosis or not, will consent to tests being made because consumers will not care to buy milk of dairies where the cown have not been inspected.

The cows are tested by withholding food for two days. The temperature is taken every two hours on both days and if this varies two or more degrees on the second day after tuberculin has been injected the cow is condemned.

"Customers of the dairies where cowhave been condemned need have no fear of buying milk of them in the future," said ; don't know for sure."

AL KEENAN IS BOUND OVER

Held to Trial on Charge of Attempted Jury Bribing.

JUDGE LESLIE ROASTS BARRETT

Court Declares that Principal Witness Against Keenan Deliberately Perjured Himself, but Was Corroborated in Part.

Al Keenan was bound over to the present term of the district court by County Judge Leslie Saturday morning to face a charge of attempted jury bribing. His bond was fixed at $500, the same amount as when awaiting preliminary hearing.

The court's finding was announced to about all the men the court room would hold and this and the clash between attorneys which followed attest the tensity of interest in the case.

Judge Leslie had scored Juror Jesse G. Barrett in amounting the court's finding with regard to Keenan and this gave A W. Jefferis of Keenan's counsel a footbold for the following:

"I would suggest to the court that the county attorney proceed against Barrett." "Speaking for the county attorney." replied English. "I will say that he is not taking suggestions from lawyers hostile to his side and who are in the attitude of disappointed suitors," "The county afterney could probably get a South Omaha lawyer to make a suggestion," interjected J. J. O'Connor, "If I lodged informations," returned English, "against everyone whom there is grave suspicion, the list would probably include a large number of my ac-

At this point the court stopped the repartee which was fast becoming heetle. Court Roasts Barrett.

"I appreciate the gravity and importance of this hearing," declared Judge Leslie on announcing his decision, "and I have undertaken to watch the evidence very closely throughout and in the conduct of the trial to keep on the safe side admitting all evidence, which from any phase, was entitled to be considered. Since adcomplete transcript but have not changed my mind with regard to material points.

"I was fortified indeed in my conclusion in regard to the testimony of Barrett. There is no room for mistake to have been made about the insurance. It was not a case of mis-statement and correction but of deliberate perjury.

"While the point was not in one sense material, yet it tended to discredit his whole evidence and were the state's case resting on him alone, it would not be sufficient to bind the defendant over.

"But he is cororborated as to the incidents of the meeting by VanCleve although there is a discrepancy between them as to the exact language of the du-"That the meeting occurred is also coroborated by the testimony of Keenan. The court added that the hearing was not one of the cause on its merits and discussed briefly the difference between a preliminary hearing and an actual fial. He concluded by declaring that there was "probable cause" to assume that a crime had been committed and "probable cause" to assume that the defendant committed it. Accordingly he would bind Keenan

Charges Henry Murphy with Inspiring Jury Bribing Suit.

Connell filed an affidavit trict court Saturday morning with regard to the trial of Stewart against the street railway company, as part of his showing why a new trial should not be granted The plaintiff filed last week affidavits by Barrett and VanCleve in regard to the alleged attempt of Al Keenan to bribe.

The motion for a new trial was before Judge Day Saturday morning, but on account of the size of the showing by Connell argument was not concluded and the motion will go over until next week.

Mr. Connell's showing includes a complete transcript of the evidence in the second trial, the finding of the supreme court dence of Barrett and VanCleve before the new stretch of track between Billings Judge Leslie in the Keenan preliminary and Great Falls, for the first time Sunday.
