(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, May 25 .- (Special.)-The police are making a vallent effort to clean up Lincoln and make of it such a place that parents will not be afraid to send their children here to the State university, Yesterday four drunks were arrested, according to a local paper, in five minutes, and last night a resort was raided and two women and a man were arrested.

Janitors at the state house have com plained that the lawn is so covered with broken beer and whisky bottles that they have great difficulty in mowing the grass without ruining their machines.

The police for a long time have been trying to prevent prostitution in the blocks down town and recently where raids have been made I nthe business part of town fiquor and ber have been found and the police have some evidence that in at least one instance this was being offered for

Because of the fact that Lincoln is a university town where boys and girls are sent to school from all parts of the state. the police realize that it is up to them to kep it as clean as possible morally, but the record of arrests shows that the town is about like it has been for a number of years. The police force is small and it is having great difficulty just now in trying to prevent the sale of beer and whisky. Under the rules of the excise board it is illegal for a druggist to compound a medicine in which whisky is one of the ingredients. It is illegal under these rules

Preventing the illegal sale of liquor and driving prostitution out of blocks and places where it has flourished for so many years is proving a big task for the police, hough they are buckling down to it hard.
