start. Langford had a shade the better of it until the end of the round, when Last American in Golf Champtonship Hingue reached him with a hook to the jaw. This seemed to encourage the Britisher and, although no damage was done in the second round, he showed more cleverness than the colored man.

Langford opened the third round with a hard left to the face and he used this blow effectively several times before the gong sounded. Hague, however, partially closed the American's eye with a hard right swing. The men came together in a fast mixup at the opening of the fourth round and Langford put a terrific right on the Yorkshireman's chin which ended the contest. A record crowd saw the fight and the American was a warm favorite, considerable money being bet at 2 to 1 and 5 to 2 on him to win. It became worse when I went to England and I have consulted a specialist, who tells me an operation will be necessary or my lungs might become endangered. Some years ago I The ball broke my nose and the doctors say this has superinduced the trouble. Some sawing of bones will be required to relieve me. When I arise in the morning I have difficulty in breathing clearly and have to do too much breathing all the time through my mouth instead of my nose. So I have determined that as soon as I can I will get to the operation. It will be done in Minneapolis. One side of the nose will be attended to and then some weeks later the other side. So it will be really two operations. Time will be necessary to heal these properly and give me the required relief. I regret the necessity of canceling my engagements, but my health comes first."

Gotch wrestles Tom Jenkins in Des Moines June 11. And after that will go directly to Minneapolis for the operation.

Toys with Olson. Gotch won in straight falls at the Auditorium Monday night from Charles Oison of looking into the barrel, which was parin an exhibition which was full of interest tially filled, and while doing this lost his because of the game defensive fight put balance and fell headfirst into the barrel. up by Olson. The time was 21:42 and 14:30. Gotch is making a trip of one-night stands across the country because of the demand of so many of his friends to see him in action, and is meeting all comers. Olson was the most available man for the Omaha date and the choice was good, for, while Olson had no chance to throw the champion, weighing only about 185, he is deceptive, as he is really a good man, good enough to throw Beell in straight falls, today, seriously injuring five occupants. He squeezed out of several tight holes last night. Several times Gotch secured dif- going down a hill and the big machine ferent varieties of his famous toe holds just to show that he could, and then let

NEW TRAINS AND NEW SALOONS Alliance People Pleased with Better Train Service.

ALLIANCE, Neb., May M .- (Special Telegram.)-As a result of the additional and improved conditions that became effective with the Burlington new time card, which was fully operative today, four new electric sighted trains are added to the service together with an additional local train each way from Denver. This not only adds greatly to the public convenience, but as well is a boom to the city, for a number of crews received promotions as a result of the numerous changes.

In consequence of the recent election in the city, six salcons opened up here today to crowded houses. While the new state daylight law is not effective until July 6. all saloon proprietors have entered agreement between themselves to comply with 'he law from the start and therefore TWENTIETH CENTURY FARMER 'all closed promptly at 8 o'clock.
