COOPER UNION IS CROWDED

District Attorney in Extended Speech Tells Why Insurance, Traction and Ice. Trust Men Were Not Prosecuted.

TO THE HONDHOLDERS OF THE Sheridan Coal Company—The holders of the bonds of the Sheridan Coal company are hereby notified that the undersigned trustee, under trust deed of The Sheridan Coal company, dated June II, 1908, and recorded June 28, 1868, in book 25 of mortgage records, on page 428, in the office of the county clerk of the county of Sheridan and state of Wyoming, has received notice from the Sheridan Coal company that it will, on or before June 20, 1909, respit the undersigned $18,000, to take up and retire twenty-four bonds, as provided in said trust deed. Notice is hereby given that the undersigned has drawn and selected by lot the following twenty-four numbers of twenty-four of the bonds outstanding, secured by said trust deed, 1, e., 108, 286, 500, 68, 491, 113, 212, 486, 580, 366, 37, 546, 165, 193, 366, 104, 217, 120, 510, 170, 429, 537, 222, 384 for payment from the sinking fund to be paid to it by said The Sheridan Coal company under said trust deed, and upon such payment of said $14,000 to the undersigned will, at its office at the corner of Dearborn and Madison streets, is the city of Chicago, Ill. on the 1st day of July, 1909, pay to the holders or registered owners of said bonds, numbered as aforesaid, the principal and accumulated interest thereon, upon the surrender and delivery thereof to the undersigned, uncancelled, and accompanied by all unpaid coupons thereto belonging. Interest on each of said bonds numbered as aforesaid, the principal and accumulated interest thereon, upon the surrender and delivery thereof to the undersigned, uncancelled, and accompanied by all unpaid coupons thereto belonging. Interest on each of said bonds numbered as aforesaid, the principal and accumulated interest thereon upon the surrender and delivery thereof to the undersigned, uncancelled, and accompanied by all unpaid coupons thereto belonging. Interest on each of said bonds numbered as aforesaid, the principal and accumulated by the said bonds numbered as aforesing the said will be accumulated by the sa NEW YORK, May 26.-Nonchalantly hewing gum, William Travers Jerome, district attorney for New York stepped n the platform at Cooper Union tonight to give an account of his stewardship, The district attorney dwelt mainly on the Metropolitan Street Railroad investigation, during which he said that Thomas F Ryan, who had been charged from time to time with various traction manipulations. iever committed any crime. Referring to the life insurance investisations, he said that there was no evilenge whatsoever to warrant the indict ment of John A. McCall, former president of the New York Life Insurance company "I have found," said Mr. Jerome, "fiftysix Indictments against insurance men, in NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS-NOTICE fact, I indicted every important insurance man in New York except four-one dead, one insane and two against whom there

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS—NOTICE is hereby given that sealed bids will be received by the Board of Commissioners of the South Dakota State Soldiers' Home at Hot Springs, South Dakota, at the office of the commandant of said home on or before the 1st day of June, 1908, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, for the erection of a stone and brick smokestack for the State Soldiers' Home, according to phans and specifications prepared by Joseph Swartz, architect, Sioux Falls, S. D.

For the furnishings and settings of three was no evidence." Mr. Jerome then took up the so-called ice frust investigation, the anxiety to force which, he said, became apparent only after William J. Conners and Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany hall, lost $84,000.

"Then," said the district attorney, 'Fingy Conners started after the ice eople, but they couldn't get a grand jury o find any indictment."

Swarts, architect, Sioux Falls, S. D.

ALSO

For the furnishings and settings of three new boliers and high pressure work for the South Dakota State Solders' Home at Hot Springs, South Dakota, according to plans and specifications prepared by Ben Cowler, chief engineer. Bids will be received for steel stack according to specifications separately. Bids can be made in lump sum for the whole amount of the work except for the brick or steel smokestack, which must be a separate bid. All bids must be accompanied by a certified check equal to 10 per cent of the amount of the bid. The board reserves the right to reject any and all bids. Plans and specifications can be seen and examined at this office of the commandant or state of the Sioux City Journal, Sioux City, Ia.; Sioux Falls, Argus Leader, Sioux Falls, S. D. Dated this 7th day of May, 180, by order of the Board of Commissioners. J. B. GEDDIS, Commandant. Mildist Then followed a rising vote, the district attorney put aside his carefully prepared nemuranda and devoted his entire attention to making reply to questioners who arose in every part of the hall to demand why he failed to do this, or that particular thing. The 2,000 or more persons who packed Cooper Union declined to register a vote of confidence in Mr. Jerome, An attempt to bring about such a vote was made, but it was hissed down by Jerome opponents.

What effect this will have on Mr erome's political ambitions is problematical. He has been desirous for some time it is understood, of seeking a renomination OF FICE CONSTRUCTING QUARTER for district attorney on an independent

Current Literature

"The Little Gods," by Rowland Thomas, is a powerful and stirring book of life in the Philippines, having for its first chapter, 'Fagan," the $5,000 prize Collier short story. It is a book written with the same realism that made Kipling's stories of India world-famous. Little, Brown & Company is the publisher.

"The Gun Runner" by Arthur Stringer author of the "Wire Tappers," has a plot which centers around one of those mushroom-like South American revolutions. It's a sea story; most all of it takes place aboard the Laminian, the tramp steamer on which Ganley, "The Gun Runner," is secretly smuggling arms into Locombia How Mckinnon, the wireless operator of the Laminian, and Allee Boynton, the girl in the case, thwart him-that's the story Published by B. W. Dodge & Co.

The Strain of White." by Ada Woodruff Anderson, author of "The Heart of the Red Firs," had its scene laid in the Puget sound country, Mrs. Anderson's homeland. The story hinges on the conditions in the Pacific northwest in the fifties and has for its heroine "Singing Bird,"-the daughter of the commandant of an American garrison near Fort Nisqually,-whose mother was a Yakima Indian maiden. Singing Bird has to endure the conflict in herself between the two races from which she sprung. The story is a wonderful picture of the life of the settlement and of the native Indians of that day. It ends with an Indian attack upon the Fort, Littie, Brown & Co. is the publisher.

"Sebastian," by Frank Danby, author of The Heart of a Child," is the story of an English family of the upper classesof a plain, hard-working, self-effacing "city" man, of a refined, over-sensitive. not very experienced mother, of a son who Inherits his mother's Intellect and his father's simple nobility. The slow awakening of the mother from her cold literary dream, achieved through her love for her son, the development of Schastian from a conceited and very "green" Etonian into a strong, capable and justly self-reliant man, with the "heart of his father," are the underlying themes of a story rich in incident, color and characters. The vividness of the characters created by Frank Danby is enhanced by her skill in drawing the background for them. The realism of her pen pictures of London life is now too well recognized to need comment. Published by the Macmillian Company, Simeon Tetlow's Shadow," by Jennette Lee, author of "Uncle William," is the story of a man and a railroad. Tetlow is the president of the "R. & Q."-"an intellect without heart or soul or con science, his co-workers would have told you"-and his shadow is John Bennettsuch a rare, brave, tender fellow. Much of the story passes in the inner offices of the "R. & Q;" and the vivid picture of life at the heart of a great corporation will make a wide appeal. There are glimpses, too, of a beautiful home life in speak of one another in the second person, a little village, and of days of healing of was called to the attention of the senate mind and body out in the silence of the today by Vice President Sherman. A woods. The humany quality of the book between Senator Cummins and places it quite beyond the rank of ordinary standards. Published by the Century Company.

This "Journal" FOR FATHERLAND TRIP is real, bitingly, convincingly genuine, so much so that there are passages poignant that the mere reading hurts. There is no in the mute entries of this diary; it tells only the simple things of a quiet. His. everyday things; but they're true to lifetirst's the secret. Published by B.

> > In "The White Sister." F. Marlon Crawford's latest novel, is a love story of mod-ern Rome, locale of his greatest successes, the city which he doubtless knew better than any other living writer. At the outset he presents a heroine who cannot fail ing and beautiful girl. Angela is the daughter of the Prince Chlaramonte, an aristocratic old adherent of the clerical party, "more papist than the pope." The prince is killed in an accident, and it transpires that in his proud allegiance to the church he had refused to have his marriage legally ratified by a civil ceremony; consequently his only child has no legal status as his heir. On this curious but perfectly possible situation, complicated by the girl's love for a penniless young officer, Mr. Crawford has built a story which has been successfully dramatized and was recently presented at one of our local theaters. The Macmillan Company is the publisher.
