PITCHER GILLEN LOST A GAME

Was Wild and Gave Wichits a Lead that Was Too Much.

DENVER. Cole., May 29.-Gillen's wildness mave Wichita a long lead in the open ing innings of the same today. After Jackson went in for Denver the tocals played a strong, unhill game, and managed to reach a tie in the ninth, mainly on Wesrail's bad throw and Belden's three hase hit. All chance to win was lost in the first of the ninth, when Denver bunched it's errors giving Wichita four unearned runs. Though Denver struggied manfully in the ast half of the inning it could make up but half of the lead thrown away. The score:

ing in the National league who were born under the Union Jack of England, Harry Smith, the Boston catcher, being the other, The dainty little center fielder is not Briton, but a Canadian, Toronto being his home.

In securing O'Hara Manager McGraw obtained quality and not quantity. William weighs only about 150 pounds, but can his a ball remarkable hard, and is the fastes man on bases the New York club has had since the days when George Browne was at his best. O'Hara is the classlest center fielder seen in a white uniform at the Pole grounds for many seasons. He judges fly ball quickly and accurately, and as soon as the bat rings against the shore he is on the move if the hit goes in his direction

A fielder who thus gets into position quickly makes many catches appear easy. whereas a fly chaser less skilled has to make his sprint at the last moment, and either misses the ball or makes a hard catch of it. O'Hara is sure of himself, and he can also make those fancy catches. His one-handed capture of a short hit in the Chicago series was the fanciest hit of fielding turned at the Polo grounds this season.

O'Hara made an enviable record in the Eastern league last season, stealing fiftythree bases and hitting 282 in 143 games He is not a "phenom" or anying of that sort, and his success is due to hard work Three years ago he was a member of the Toledo team in the American association, and was purchased by Cleveland, but was turned down by Manager Lajole the following spring. He is a well educated, quiet little fellow of clean habits and minds his own business. Withul, he is aggressive in a way, but seldom runs afoul of the um-

O'Hara has a peculiar batting position and does not pull away from a ball. He hits many line drives. Jack Dunn, manager of the Baltimore team, declares that O'Hara is one of the most capable players that ever worked for him, and is positive that the young man will be in the National league for many years.
