The board intends to rearrange the division of the Burlington property by arbitrarily fixing the main line and branches of that system. Heretofore these corporations have been so divided up that in one town frequently the same tracks had a line would be $120,000 a mile, but that deducdifferent value.

How Result Was Reached.

The board spent most of the morning arriving at its conclusion. When the Shallenberger motion to increase the Northwestern $4,000 a mile was brought up. Mr Junkin moved the following amendment The Northwestern to be assessed at $36,-214,420. Union Pacific at $80,012,385 and the Burlington at $119,290,500, Governor Shallenberger insisted that the motion be divided. Junkin then moved to assess the Union Pacific at $78,031,210, but this motion received no second.

Brian moved to assess the Union Pacific at $75,767,325. This carried unanimously after the treasurer explained that the increase was on the Central City branch and new mileage.

Junkin moved to decrease the Missouri Pacific from $37,200 to $35,200. The voteon this was as follows: Year, Shallenberger, Junkin, Cowles. Nays, Brian and
