Lambs, First of the Year-

Prices Steady to Ten

Cents Lower.

SHEEP AND LAMBS—It was a slow, lifeless market this morning and the unusually backward demand afforded buyers an opportunity to force small declines. Receipts, however, were moderate and this feature made a bearinh raid of any consequence out of the question. A few lots of killing stuff sold at comparatively steady prices, but the scarcity of supplies last week makes it extremely difficult to draw a true comparison of values. The general market this morning is quotable at steady to a dime lower than last week. HOGS SLOW TO FIVE CENTS LOWER EARLY MARKET IS ARTIFICIAL Frience Seaton of Teach
