45 for Boys' Wash

—here's a streak of "buyer's luck." A few days ago our representative picked up an exceptionally well made line of samples of boys' 1909 wash suits. They had served their purpose in a maker's sample line—the maker took the first price we offered him—and that price was low enough so that YOU will be able to purchase REAL up to $2.50 suits tomorow at $1.65. These in Eussian models, in duck, linen chambroy and Galatea. Tans, browns and blues in ages 2 to 6.

-our "double trousers" suit idea

-we furnish TWO pairs knickerbooker trousers with each boys' suit, instead of ONE pair. This idea has proven an instant success. Farents of boys, particularly those who have to "foot the bills," thank us every once in a while for this forethought upon our part. "2 pairs instead of 1." —our present stock of boys' suits is so large; so wisely assorted; so attractive, that we would like to have YOU enthuse with us.
