Waldron hit the first ball pitched an King let it glide gracefully between his legs and that was the start of the trouble Davidson fell down on an attempt at sac rifice and then Lower hit Jude and passe Thomas. Gagnier hit to Lower, who held Dave on third for a moment and then sub dued Gag at first, but Dave scooted for home and the ump said he was safe.

The third was the really bad inning of the game, for in that inning Skipper Bil had his only fielding chance in the gamand he signalized the event by making runners to cross the plate. Davidson had opened with a long two-base fly to right, which was out of Welch's reach. Jude hit to the pitcher and Dave went to third. Thomas singled and Davidson scored. Gagnier singled and went to second on the throw to catch Thomas scooting for third. Then came the Skipper's famous throw. Sullivan bunted one in his direction and Schipke made a nest, one-handed Wichita Lost to Topeka, Six to Two, pick-up and then threw the ball away,

SIOUX CITY, Ia., June 5.—Sioux City finished its long string of home games to-day by losing to Des Moines, 5 to 1. It was a pitchers' battle, From and Clark twirling fine ball, though the latter had the best support. Three runs were made in the ninth by the Boosters, but they were all gifts. Hunter and Shea made glaring errors which should have refired the side and allowed the score to remain 2 to 1. Bader's home run and the fielding of From, Neihoff and Edmondson were features of the game. Score:
