Savings and Loan Association earn six per cent, credited semi-annually. One dollar starts an account. 1603 Farnam.

Commissioners Busy on Roads—The condition of roads has taken up a good deal of time on the part of the Board of County Commissioners, members of which say that complaints to them have not been as numerous this year as in the past. The chief work now in progress is the repair of the Military road from Irvington east, which has been torn up for a long distance and will have a tarvia surface laid.

Joe Levine Alleged Bankrupt—Creditors of Joe Levine, merchant of North 81st, tenth street, have filed a petition in the United States district court asking that he be declared a bankrupt. The petitioning creditors are the Luger Furniture company of St. Paul, the St. Paul Table company, the Art Store company of Detroit and the Brown Bed company of Kansas City, whose aggregate claims are about $1,200. The petition alleges that the firm is insolvent and already made an act of bankruptcy by transferring certain real estate to preferred creditors for the purpose of defrauding the petitioning creditors and others.

Little One Goes to Jail with Mammy—A 6-year old girl locked up at the police station is the circumstance in the case of little Lattie Moore, a colored child, who was just passed the pickin' time of her life. But she is not a prisoner, except that her mother is one, and the child is "staying with her mammy." Mrs. Anna Moore, the mother, whose home is at the Brown flats in the Third ward, was arrested for being intoxicated and disorderly and sentenced to serve five days in Matron Gibbons' department of the city jail. Her little girl is staying with her while she serves the term.

100 Years Hence

No More Drudgery—Just Live To Enjoy Yourselves.

Elia Wheeler Wilcox believes in a hundred years old drudgery will be done by machinery. We will fly through the air on the wings of the wind and have time to see and enjoy all the wonders of the world and perhaps of the heavens which are now sealed books to the majority because of the eternal grind of every day life.

Look back a 100 years and the changes made seem just as great. What we wear, how we travel, how we communicate, what we eat, sensible clothes, vehicles speedy and comfortable, wireless telegraphs, telephones, fast trains and mail steamers, and household foods.

Today instead of loading our stomachs with heavy, greasy breakfasts, that dull the brain and retard our morning's work, we eat delicious E-C Corn Flakes or Eggs-O-See Wheat Flakes, made by the famous Eggs-O-See process that insure perfect digestion, high nutrition and greater strength.

Always ready to serve, good for babies, best for invalids—the sensible breakfast for the business man or the busy, energetic housewife. Remember it's the Eggs-O-See process that makes the flakes so crisp and delicious.

SAME AS THE ZIMMAN BILLS

New Occupation Tax Ordinances Are Changed But Slightly.

FIVE PER CENT GROSS EARNINGS

Ordinance, If Passed as Drawn, Becomes Effective September Next, but Produces First Tax in March, 1910.

The new occupation tax ordinance introduced at the last meeting of the city council are practically the same as those fathered by Councilman Zimman in the last council. The public service corporations, under their terms, will be compelled to pay into the city treasury a tax of 5 per cent on their gross earnings.

If passed as originally drawn, the ordinance will become effective on September 1, 1909, though the first tax payments will not be made until six months later, or on March 1, 1910. The tax is to be paid semi-annually on March 1 and September 1 of each year on the gross receipts during the preceding six months.

Under the original draft of the ordinance and as passed the first two readings, interest of 1 per cent per month will attach if not paid when due. If not paid in six months an additional tax of 5 per cent will be added.

On the first days of March and September the affected franchise corporations must file with the city comptroller a detailed statement of income and gross receipts. Should this not be done the tax against the companies shall be fixed as follows:

Street railway companies, $5,000 per month.
Water work companies, $5,000 per month.
Telephone companies, $5,000 per month.
Electric companies, $5,000 per month.
Gas companies, $5,000 per month.
Telegraph companies, $5,000 per month.
The books of all franchise corporations occupying the streets and coming under the provisions of any of the six ordinances must at all times be open to the inspection of duly authorized city officials.

Changes May Make Trouble.

All the ordinances were drawn by Harry E. Busan, city attorney, to take the place of similar ordinances drawn and introduced by former Councilman Harry B. Zimman. But in three of them there appear to be changes which, according to Mr. Zimman, "the father of the occupation tax," might cause trouble. One section affecting street railway companies reads:

Said company shall pay 5 per cent of the gross receipts of the said company derived from its business as a common carrier of passengers and as a street railway company within the corporate limits of the city of Omaha.

No tax or portion of tax in the ordinance shall be levied upon or taken from any business done to or from points without the state of Nebraska, but the same shall, in all respects, be exempt and excepted from the provisions hereof.

According to Mr. Zimman, it would take a lot of figuring to ascertain what it was to pay on.

The ordinance governing telegraph and telephone companies specifies that a tax shall not be collected on business done outside the state, but only on messages sent from Omaha to points within Nebraska and messages received in Omaha from points in Nebraska.

Tax Within the City.
The water works company's ordinance provides for collecting a tax on receipts for water furnished to "inhabitants and consumers of water within the corporate limits of the city of Omaha." South Omaha, Florence, Benson and Dundee business is excepted.

The Omaha Gas company is now paying the city a royalty of 5 cents on every 1,000 feet of gas sold private consumers in the city, gas sold the city being exempted; the Omaha Electric Light and Power company is now paying a royalty of 5 per cent on its gross receipts from private consumers, and the Independent Telephone company is supposed to pay a royalty of 2 per cent on its gross receipts, but never has. The royalties required by existing ordinances or contracts are to be deducted from the receipts before the occupation tax will be assessed.

In 1908 the Omaha Gas company paid $26,671.37 in royalties. It sold to private consumers $3,274,415 feet of gas and to the city $3,141,190 feet, or a total sale of $64,781,176 feet. It charges $1.15 per 1,000 feet, making its total receipts $67,255.70. So a 5 per cent tax on this total would be $3,362.78. As it pays a royalty on city excepted business of $26,671.37, deducting this, the occupation tax, according to the receipts of last year, would be about $5,000 additional.

In 1908 the Omaha Electric Light and Power company paid $14,643.90 in royalties, on sales amounting to $481,825.72. The extra 2 per cent over the 3 per cent now paid, making the 5 per cent occupation tax, would be charged only on its total sales, which last year amounted to $253,800.23. A 2 per cent additional tax would amount, according to the 1908 figures, to $11,664.18. Receipts of the other public service corporations are not to be had, but the original Zimman ordinances were estimated to bring in a total revenue from all companies of approximately $250,000, of which the Street Railway company would have to pay nearly half.

COCKRELL HAS THE CAT CASE
He Gets It on Change of Venue from the Justice Temple of Eastman.

"Judge Cockrell has the cat case," is the way Judge Eastman put it in telling of the transfer of the case of Hazelton against German et al. from his court to the justice court of Judge Cockrell, where it will come up for a hearing Friday at 2 p. m. The change of venue was granted Tuesday at the urgent request of Mrs. Murray, one of the defendants in the case. Judge Eastman said Wednesday that the kittens in the litigation, born to the cat while in the home of Mrs. German, were now in the possession of Mr. Hazelton, lawyer of the feminine feline and plaintiff in the pending case.

Omaha Money Will Erect New Bank Building

Local Capital, it is Planned, Will Put Up Structure at Sixteenth and Harney.

John F. Flack, president of the City Savings bank, returned from Chicago Wednesday, where he went in company with directors of the institution to discuss building plans for a new banking house and office building at Sixteenth and Harney streets. C. C. George of George & Co., in whose hands the building proposition of the bank has been placed, did not return and nothing could be given out by Mr. Flack of a definite nature.

It is understood the latest plan is to have the building erected almost exclusively with Omaha capital, except the loan which it is usual to secure on such buildings, thus giving them an opportunity to help pay for themselves.

"Looking over Omaha, it seems to me the city is going forward at a rate not excelled by any city in the United States," said Mr. Flack. "From what I can learn at least four skyscrapers will be erected here within a short time, counting the Woodmen of the World and the Union Pacific headquarters buildings. All these buildings seem to be demanded to make homes for expanding business."

"As to Sixteenth and Harney streets, the plan is in the hands of Mr. George. Nothing has been signed up when I left Chicago, and I have been interested in the building proposition only a little more than three weeks, but it seems to me the plans will work out without trouble, and every one concerned is more hopeful than ever before of securing a good building at Sixteenth and Harney streets."

VETERINARIANS OF MISSOURI VALLEY ARE IN SESSION

Nearly One Hundred Delegates at Opening Meeting and More Come Later.

Nearly 100 veterinary surgeons are in attendance at the annual convention of the Missouri Valley Veterinary association at the city hall. The convention will close Thursday evening.

No set program was carried out at the opening session due to the lateness of arrival of some of the delegates, who put in the time visiting. The program called for election of officers at the first session, but this was postponed until Thursday morning as was also the annual address of the president, Dr. J. I. Gibson of Des Moines.

In the afternoon the veterinarians attended a clinic at Dr. C. C. Scott's hospital on Mason street, where there were cases of various kinds for surgical operation, for diagnosis, and showing the effect of previous operations.

Last night the visiting doctors attended a banquet at Hanson's cafe. The program for today is:
President's address, Dr. J. I. Gibson.
Discussion of Cryptosporidiosis, Dr. H. C. Animal Sera and Vaccines, Dr. J. I. Gibson.

PROPERTY OWNERS KICKING

Isadore Ziegler Asks Reduction in Assessment of His Harney Street Flats.

A plea by Isadore Ziegler to have reduced a $44,000 assessment on his flat at Twenty-third and Harney streets was the principal one which came before the Board of Equalization. Ziegler said he had bought the property not long ago for $20,000; that it had been assessed last year at $21,000 and could not fairly be deemed to have jumped over 100 per cent in twelve months.

County Assessor Shriver did not think the assessment unfair, figuring on a rental income basis. Action was deferred by the board.

Other complaints of the day were smaller. John M. Ware had $2,000 cut off his personal assessment. Last year he had $2,000 in bank and since then he put it into a building on a hitherto vacant lot, this improvement being, of course, duly assessed as realty.

J. S. COOLEY HOLDS THE SACK

Deputy Sheriff Stenls March on the Lawyer, Getting Away with His Client.

"But he can't have left town," asserted J. S. Cooley with vehemence. "He has left town," returned Sheriff Bralley.

Cooley had tried, through an insane warrant, to keep one L. C. Shroder from being taken west by a North Platte deputy sheriff on a burglary charge. The deputy heard of the other's maneuver and successfully dodged the lawyer until the train had departed, leaving Cooley to hold the sack in the form of the above conversation with the sheriff.

TRAIN ACCIDENT OR SUICIDE

Question Now is, Did John Brakefield Seek Death on Track?

NOTE SUGGESTS THE POSSIBILITY

Letter Found in His Pocket Gives Rise to Belief that He Was Despondent and Wanted to Die.

A note found in the pocket of John Brakefield, who was fatally injured in the Missouri Pacific yards near Fourteenth and Nicholas streets at 11 o'clock Tuesday night, and died this morning at the General hospital, indicates that he might have taken his own life in a fit of despondency. The note was scribbled on a piece of paper and was as follows:

"O'Neill, Neb., July 9.—Mr. Wadsworth: I have had a wrong deal out there. So I have quit."

The note was not signed and evidently was left unfinished. Brakefield was "dead broke," having spent his last penny for a box of snuff, which was found unopened in his pockets. He had evidently been looking for work and from the contents of the brief note had been disappointed in some "deal."

Coroner Heafey has taken charge of the case and in conducting an investigation to establish beyond a doubt the man's identity and locate his home and relatives. He will hold an inquest at 10 a. m. Thursday. A memorandum book found in a pocket of the train victim's coat give an address at O'Neill, Neb.

Communication by long distance telephone with O'Neill failed to establish any proof of the man's having lived there. No one by the name of John Brakefield or Wadsworth could be found.

SOME OLD CASES HANG FIRE IN THE FEDERAL COURT

One Against Union Pacific and Telegraph Companies Dates Back Twenty Years.

The oldest case pending in the United States circuit court for the Omaha district dates back to September, 1889. The title of the case is The United States Against The Union Pacific Railway Company.

The suit is based upon controversies between the Union Pacific Railway company and the Western Union Telegraph and Atlantic Telegraph companies relative to the merging of the interests of the telegraph companies under governmental sanction whereby the United States is forced into the attitude of plaintiff.

The case now stands on the mandate from the circuit court of appeals to amend the findings in the decree of the lower court. No action has been taken in the case for two years.

Another relic in federal legislation is the case of Annie Gross against Libbie Gross and others in a suit for an accounting of an estate. The case is a sort of a family affair and has been pending since 1889. Since the beginning of the case some of the children of the litigants have become lawyers and now appear as attorneys in the case.

The Grosses became possessed of considerable property in and about Omaha at an early day and through the death of some of the original possessors of the lands the case got in the federal courts with various groups of lawyers, some of whom have died or withdrawn from the case. In the meanwhile much of the property has become dissipated in court and attorneys' fees.

One of the later attorneys is ex-Senator W. V. Allen. Nothing has been done in the case for a year or two and the case now stands upon the exceptions to the report of the master in chancery. The records in the case occupy an entire lower half of one of the big book cases in the office of the circuit clerk.

DR. PRIBBENOW APOLIGIZES TO COURT FOR SWEARING

Uses What the Judge Terms Unparliamentary Language and Then Backs Up.

Dr. B. Pribbenow narrowly escaped a fine from Judge Kennedy in district court for "unparliamentary language."

Quizzed by H. H. Bowes, the doctor was moved to remark of the assumption in the question: "It's an infernal untruth."

A little later he employed an adjective more popular in England than America and brought down the wrath of the court.

The witness apologized. The suit is a small one over a building contract brought by John Routzen against Swan Swanson. Dr. Pribbenow was a witness for the defendant.

REPAIRING THE AIRSHIPS

Fort Omaha Aviators Are Mending Balloons Wrecked in the Last Flight.

Ballooning at Fort Omaha is taking a rest on account of the unfavorable weather. Repairs to the damaged dirigible balloon have not yet been completed. Parts of the machinery to supplant those put out of commission in the wreck of the balloon two weeks ago are of such a delicate nature they will have to be specially manufactured and the Fort Omaha authorities are awaiting their arrival daily.

Captain Charles DeForest Chandler, who has been assigned to duty as chief disbursing officer of the Signal Corps, will leave for Washington this evening. The actual balloon work will be left in charge of Lieutenants R. S. Bamberger, J. G. Winter, C. A. Dickinson and J. F. Ware.

As soon as the dirigible is again put in repair another detail of officer students will come to Fort Omaha from Fort Leavenworth for instruction in the art of ballooning.

1,500 PRIZES GIVEN AWAY.

Brandeis Stores Offer Fine Prizes for Children's Compositions.

Hundreds of cameras, tennis rackets, gold watches, gold rings, fountain pens, gold pins, base ball gloves and other things dear to the hearts of boys and girls will be given away at the end of two weeks' time. The prizes are prizes offered by Brandeis for the best compositions written by school children on "Gas and Its Uses." Hundreds of children have registered, attracted by the immense number of prizes that will be distributed.

An easy way to get a fine prize. Every boy and girl should know about it. Any clerk will explain it to you.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

Samuel Burns, Jr., has gone to Chicago. Lieutenant Colonel Eastman has gone to the Black Hills. The senior class of Creighton university will banquet at the Ritz Thursday evening.

Brigadier General Charles Morton will return from his eastern visit Thursday or Friday. William Flynn, Henry Reisel and M. W. Bradley left Wednesday morning for a trip to Tulsa, Cal.

Greenough Steals a Loving March

Superintendent of Rock Island in Iowa Slips in Town and Gets Married.

H. P. Greenough, superintendent of the Iowa division of the Rock Island, slipped into Omaha unannounced Tuesday afternoon, secured a marriage license and on Wednesday morning was married at Benson to Helen M. Blinn of that suburb. The marriage was performed by Father Moriarty. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Greenough left in their private car for a tour of the east.

EVOLUTION OF THE SEEKER FOR LAND IN THE WEST

From Wandering Prospector He Develops to Shrewd Man of Means and Purpose.

All trains to the north and west out of Omaha Tuesday afternoon and evening and Wednesday morning were filled to the guards and most of them carried extra cars to accommodate the large movement of land seekers. Tuesday was home-seekers' day and thousands took advantage of the low rates to go to Wyoming, western Nebraska, South Dakota and Montana in search of homes.

The movement this spring has been the largest in the history of the efforts of the railroads to build up the west. It is an entirely different movement from those of the early days, when a man with a one-horse wagon and a large family went to undeveloped regions and broke the virgin soil. Now the settlers are traveling in first-class railroad trains, with plenty of money in their pockets to buy the land the United States government and private enterprise are offering for sale. The new settlers are often a son of some prosperous farmer in the middle states, skilled in farming and supplied with plenty of money with which to erect himself a home and to buy farming machinery.

Irrigated land is in the greatest demand. The public has been educated up to this class of the new land and whereas, five years ago, it was almost impossible to sell an irrigated tract, now a large area of land is thrown open for settlement and is almost immediately gobbled up.

Seymour Park Attractions.
Green's band announces an entirely new program for its concert tonight at Seymour Lake park. The band, playing every night, as well as Saturday and Sunday afternoons, is proving a strong drawing card.

Several big picnics, notably that of the A. O. U. W., have secured dates at the park. The unequalled facilities for picnic parties, extensive wooded lunch grounds, a large dance floor, boating, fishing, a fine bathing beach and good roads, will make Seymour Lake park a popular picnic resort.

The park announces an innovation in the operation of its dance hall. On every Monday night an old-fashioned country dance will be held. Dancing is now indulged in every night at the dance hall.

As the result of great effort, the new street car line has been put in condition to handle any sized crowd. Three cars are now in operation, giving a quick service. In addition, the connecting link between the city system and the Ralston Interurban will be completed this week, and Sunday will see Seymour Park cars running to Sixteenth and Howard streets.

The Seymour Park theater will give its first performance Thursday night. The Tomson Comedy company, which will occupy the theater all summer, will present "My Daughter's Husband." A special scenic production will be given.
