PAGES 1 TO 8.

SINGLE COPY TWO CENTS -

SENATE-DOUBLES DUTY ON PAPER

Duty as Fixed by House is Increased from $2 to $4 Per Ton in Upper Body.

BROWN'S AMENDMENT BEATEN

Beveridge, Bristow and Burkett Stand for Removal of Duty.

DEMOCRATS HAVE TROUBLES

Charges of Bad Faith Provoke Protests and Denials.

PARTY LAUNDRY IS WASHED

Bryan's Name Lugged Into Debate, and Peerless Leader Fings Lone Champion in New Senator from Colorado.

WASHINGTON, June 18 .- Just before adjournment tonight the senate adopted, by a vote of 44 to 32, the amendment of the senate committee on finance, fixing a duty of H a ton on print paper, in place of the house rate of $2 a ton, but the other amendment to the wood pulp and print paper schedule had not been acted upon when the senate adjourned at 7 o'clock. the $4 amend-

The vote w	us as follows	on ment:
Yeas-
Aldrich, Porah. Bransago, Briggs, Bulkeley, Burtows, Burtows, Burtow, Carter, Clark (Wyo.),	Dick. Dilingham. Dizon. Plint. Frye. Gailinger. Gamble. Guggenhelm. Hale. Lodge. Lorimer.
Crane, Crawford.	Nelson, Nixon,	.5
Cullota, Nays-
Bacon,	Davis,

Owen, Payster, Hayster, Shively, Simmons, Smith (Mich.), Smith (B. C.), Store, Tillman 32. Senator Tallaferro was the only demo crat voting with the republicans for the while Senators Beverldge, Bristow, Brown, Burkett, Cummins, Curtis, Dolffver, La Follette and Smith (Mich.). republicans, cast their votes against It. Schators Borah, Clapp, Crawford, Gamble new litinois senator. Income Tax Again, adoption of an income tax amendment, and no agreement was reached.

By order of the senate adjournment is taken each day at 7 p. m., and that hour arrived, while the question was under dis-The Bailey income tax amendment, therefore will be the pending amendment when the senate convenes tomorrow. If a unanimous consent agreement, in accordance with the motion made by Mr. Aldrich today, is not then obtained, he probably will move to postpone consideration of these subjects to a certain day.

largely to the democratic side, and while technically based upon the tariff, had more pertinent reference to the democratic national platform. The important subject of the debate was an interview with former of the schedules in accordance with the charge of having murdered Mrs. Clemindeclaration of the Denver platform. Among those who were referred to were Senators Daniel of Virginia and Simmons of North Carolina, and each made response to the Senato: Bailey took occasion, also, to reiterate his independence of special declarations by the party, and Mr. Hughes, the new senstor from Colorado, was ulti-Mr mately drawn into the discussion. Bailey having said that the Denver platform had been the work of one man, Mr. Hughes entered upon a defense of Mr. Bryan and of the platform.

His remarks caused Mr. Bailey to again tion, he undertook to show that by his urer, Angus Sinclair, New York. vote for a duty on lead ore Mr. Hughen had himself not been entirely controlled by the official utterances of his party. He made reference to "trusts" and mas ters, which in turn aroused Mr. Hughes. Exchange of Compliments.

Defending his position, Mr. Hughes declared that "not even his bitterest enemy," would accuse him as had the Texas sena Disavowing his willingness to be classed senator. Mr. Balley was again met by a weary boy at the break. sarcastic suggestion on the part of his She was a brunette; rather tall and well letters:

ever had, who, in honeyed phrase, attempts serge, a sailor straw and a pair of tans to praise me, will not place me in such a Nor," replied Mr. Bailey, "am I the sweetest friend the senator ever had." Mr. Bailey declared that the trusts could only be regulated by putting in jail offenders against the anti-trust laws.

voice indicating emotion, Mr. linghes replied. He desired, he said, to in the rotunds in two cushion chairs. admonish the senator from Texas that no matter how large he is nor how high he rises in this senate," that he was no ance; he began to wonder how old she tailer than himself when it came to a was. She looked but one or two years bequestion of conduct and of conscience. Referring to Mr. Balloy's remarks in re- makeup hid the marks of a few more masters and "trusts" as "influences." Mr. Hughes declared that he never had any connection justifying such a suggestion in regard to him. He Knows No "Masters." I know no master. I have never had any association with trusts to provoke such an association," he said in effect.

Pacific exchange of words between the (Continued on Second Page.)

Stock Growers End Session in Blaze of Glory

Afternoon Given Over to Western Sports-Boosters Leave for Hot Springs, S. D.

ALLIANCE, Neb., June 18 - (Special Telegram.)-The third and last day of the Nebraska Stock Growers' association ended up in a blaze of glory, beginning first by world beaters, were certainly classy. The afternoon was given over to the western sports, such as roping and bronche ball grounds. These pastimes were certainly interesting, as they were hazardous, but, outside of a wild steer running into the crowd and slightly injuring an onlooker, all went on well. Few of the delegates departed yester day, and tonight the streets are thronged with people, presenting an appearance of activity that seldom occurs in the far

Mayer Dahlman of Omaha spoke tonight at the commencement exercises of the St. Agnes' academy, an institution conducted by the Sisters of St. Francis, and which ended their first school year. The opera house was certainly crowded and the audience greeted him in a manner that fully the aviators. Standing on a platform not repaid him for the trouble he took to remain over for the occusion.

The South Omaha boosters leave tomor ow morning for Het Springs, where they will spend Sunday, before returning home. That all stockmen, their wives, together James Allen, chief signal officer of the with the commission men and their friends, army, assigned by Secretary of War remained during the entire convention proves that the entertainment extended by the Wright brothers the gold medals au-

Before an attendance of 2,000 people, Alliance was defeated today by Sidney by a score of 4 to 1.

order, and that the convention was a grand

Train Robbers Kill Officer in Pitched Battle

They Try to Hold Up Crew of Freight.

MUSKOGEE, Okl., June 18.-In a battle between officers and three train robbers who held up St. Louis, Iron Mountain & and Nelson voted with the other republicans Southern freight train No. 168, near Bragg. for the duty, as did Senator Lorimer, the Okl., early foday, Deputy Constable Johnson Kirk was killed.

The object of the robbers was to get the After this vote had been taken there was money of the train crew, who had just an effort to reach an agreement upon a received their pay envelopes. The railroad ceremony. time of voting upon the various income and men resisted the robbers and the sound of corporation tax propositions. Mr. Aidrich firing soon brought Constable John Kirk crowds witnessed a parade of floats depictstand, she changed from a charming, as they attend the rought to maintain a general agreement and Deputy Constable Wicks to the scene. Ins. the development of fable woman to a woman of whims and to postpone the further consideration of Robbers and officers, armed with pistols. America. This was headed by an Indian caprices, ill tempered, not nice in her this question until after the disposal of engaged in a battle and Kirk was shot runner, and, after the various stages, from choice of language, overbearing and quarther the disposal of through the head and instantly billed the ox cart to the automobile had been the tariff schedules, but Senators Bailey through the head and instantly killed, the ox carb to the automobile, had been relsome. coupling with Paul Williams, one of the robbers was shown, was concluded by an aeroniane the agreement an understanding that there shot through the breast and captured. The with the suggestion that the next route for swore that one time he served his mistress should be taken a direct vote upon the other two robbers escaped, and a posse is speeding would be among the clouds.

> mobile. Braggs is fifteen miles south of Washington, where they are to resume here.

Dr. Cleminson

Today's tariff discussion was confined Chicago Physician Must Answer Asks Americans Charge of Murdering Spouse.

Representative John E. Lamb of Indiana, inson was today held to the grand jury in which that gentleman was represented by a coroner's jury at the inquest over as criticising some of the democratic sena. the body of his wife, Mrs. Nora Jane tors who had not cast their votes on some Cleminson. He has been in custody on a

> MECHANICS ELECT OFFICERS C. E. Fuller of Omnha is Placed First in List of Vice Presidents.

take the floor, and, in defending his posi- retary, Joseph W. Taylor, Chicago; treas- which she was entitled under the conven-

WRIGHTS GET THEIR MEDALS

Nation, State and Home City Uni Honor to Inventors of Aeroplane.

WILBUR MAKES SHORT SPEECH

He Breaks Rule of Silence and Expresses His Gratification.

a number of horse races, which, while no HAD MANY OFFERS OF HELP busting, all of which took place on the Even in Infancy of Their Invention Aid Was Tendered.

THEY FIND SOME TIME TO WORK

Even on Day of Celebration They Put in Some Hours in Workshop Preparatory to Departure for Washington.

DAYTON, O., June 18.-The nation, the state and the city in which they live today, paid tribute to Wilbur and Orville Wright, far from their unpretentious little aeroplane factory and almost within wight of a field where they first struggled with the problem of aerial navigation, General Dickinson for the purpose, presented to the Alliance people was certainly of high thorized by act of congress. At the same time were given them a diamond studded medal, bearing the official seal of the state ACTOR FARNUM DRAGGED IN Mrs. Kaufmann of Ohlo, and another from Dayton, their home city. The state medal was presented by Governor Judson Harmon of Ohlo, the Testimony Given that Mrs. Gould local medal by Mayor Edward E. Burkhart of Dayton.

In accepting the medals Wilbur Wright "It is naturally with a feeling of pride that we accept these tokens from the nation, the state and the city to which we owe our allegiance, and I wish to thank the people of the United States, of Ohio Three Bandits Meet Resistance When ventors usually do not receive the sympathy and encouragement which is their > infancy of our work we received offers of for separation brought by Katherine Clemfinancial assistance from people who could mons Gould against her husband, Howard have no hope of reward. While we did Gould, kept edging more and more toward not find it necessary to accept these of- Dustin Farnum, the actor, whose broad fers, they show that the world always is shoulders and mop of curiy hair have beready to offer a helping hand." Baron Kogoro Takahira, the Japanese

Although this, the second day of Day-Sheriff Ramsay with two deputies and a ton's "home coming" celebration, was liquors, which, he said, she drank at table. pack of bloodhounds left here for Braggs crowded with events arranged in their On cross-examining these witnesses, Clarflights for the government next week. Wilbur Wright said today they hoped to leave tomorrow. As soon as the government's requirements are fulfilled. It is expected they will sail for Germany to take Held by Jury pected they will sail for Germany to up work for the German government.

ence with Arrangements for Chinese Railroad Loan.

German and French bankers stand ready to take up. This request has been sent ing. to James Bryce, the British ambassador at Washington.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., June 18.—The rangements for this loan were concluded rapped on Mrs. Gould's chamber door at following officers were elected at the clos- after the greatest difficulty, entailing long the St. Regis, she called out: "All right. ing session of the Railway Master negotiations between the British, German dearle," and then, when she saw who it Mechanics association today: President and French bankers concerned and the was, excused herself with: "I thought it G. W. Wildin, New Haven; vice presidents, Chinese government. As America did not was Mr. Farnum." C. E. Fuller, Omaha; H. T. Bently, Chi- ask to join therein, it is presumed that cago, and D. F. Crawford, Pittsburg; sec- she did not desire to take the share to tion with China.

Old Case of Counting Your Chickens Too Soon

gowned. A big basket hat graced her head. Then," he said, "the sweetest friend I He was also tall and was attired in a blue The combination was attractive to the feminine eye-particular to this maiden's. She, as the elevator shot downward. started a conversation, which she gladly carried on. When they reached the lower floor they did not separate; they both were reated

As the conversation continued, he became better pleased with his new acquaintyoud 20. He suspected, though, that her years. He decided to find out her age.

"I believe I can guess how old you are, if you will not tell me?" he ventured boldly to say.

"You will be the first one to succeed, if you do," she shyly answered. "If I tell you your age you will buy me buy you the best one?" he proposed. "It's a go," she exclaimed.

The bargain was clinck

They-he and she-met in the elevator at | Then it was that he was to learn that it the Rome. The car was going down and does not pay to believe in some advertise- ing about 7:30 o'clock, she said, she saw as "the bitterest enemy" of the Colorado they were its only occupants beside the ments. He had read at the news stand on a man come out of Mrs. Gould's rooms and a small red sign this announcement in red take the elevator. She noticed that he was "When were you born?"

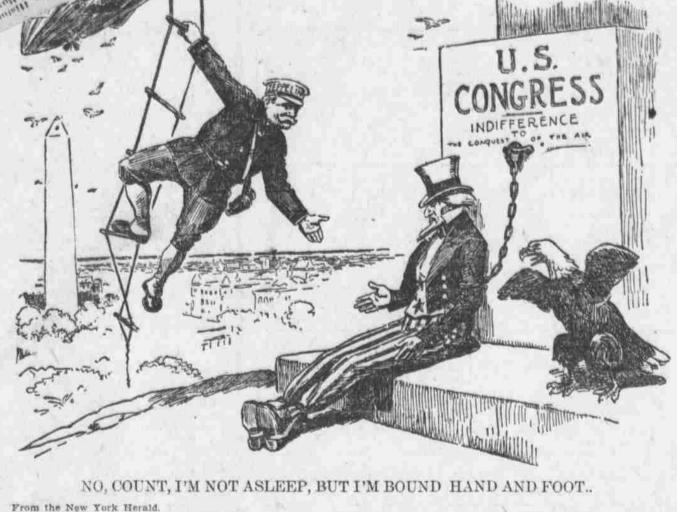

> smaller letters: "Buy the Red Book and you can tell your age or your friends'." He had read this sign the day before

She, as the elevator shot downward and thought of it before he had asked the of the hotel at that time, as they attempted though that smile was a C. Q. D. signal. girl her age. He was sure he had found to show by the next witness. Florence a way to tell anybody's age. When she agreed to his proposition for telling her age he excused himself and hurried to the news stand, where he paid 10 cents for a Red Book. He immediately hurried back to the girl, and there he opened the little red pamphlet. But a surprise-possibly not an agreeable one-awaited him. As he scanned the pages of the book such statements as, "If you were born in February you will wear diamonds; if you were born on the Fourth of July you will be a George M. Cohn actor," were what he read. He could not tell anybody's age-not even his own-by using that book.

"You're right," he lightly replied. "The have found out all about it-well, I don't."

Found Guilty of

Falls Brewer Ends with Hundred-Dollar Fine.

FLANDREAU, S. D., June 18.-The jury

he sensation of this part of the state.

Actors and Townspeople Goes to His Reward.

day's shooting, died early today.

which resulted from a feud between town men and several actors, who had been per

Dogs and Gasoline

Wipe Out Deficit of $21,000,000.

new tax of a cent a litre on the petroleum used in automobiles; a tax on dogs; administrative rearrangement and a stricter enforcement of the taxes on colonial obligations and mines and a new tax in connec tion with the inheritance of property.

Sloux Falls brewer.

forming here.

fense if brought to trial.

Called Him Her "Beau."

INCIDENT

HOTEL SERIOUS

Woman Clerk Tells of Events in Philadelphia Which Wear Decidedly Suspicious Air-Evidence of Servants.

NEW YORK, June 18.-The flow of testi This cannot be said of us. Even in the mony adduced by the defense in the suit come a familiar figure in the case.

There was also Iteration by servants and ambassador, and Carlos G. Velez, the ambassador, and Carlos G. Velez, the personal attendants that Mrs. Gould was Cuban minister, were among those at the repeatedly seen under the influence of liquor by them, and that when she had After the presentation ceremony, the been drinking, as they alleged on the

Mrs. Gould's one time personal vale with two quarts of Manhattan cocktails in as many days, besides the wines and at noon to assist in the pursuit of the houer, the Wrights found time to labor in ance J. Shearn, for Mrs. Gould, strove to robbers. The officers are using an outo- their workshop preparing for departure to prove either that they had a personal grudge against her or that they were under obligation to Mr. Gould.

Called Farnum Her "Bean," Endearing epithets twice marked the ter timony. John R. Kimball, an oil and paint dealer, who said he had known Mr. Gould for eighteen years, testified that he went to a performance of "The Virginian," in August, 1906, with Mr. and Mrs. Elljah Sells and the Goulds, at the Academy of to Keep Out the star in the play, joined the party outside of the play house after the perform CHICAGO, June 18.-Dr. Haldane Clem- Great Britain Requests No Interfer- the witness testified, and said to the witance, and spoke to Mrs. Gould. She smiled ness, "That is my new beau."

John Flynn, who said he was employed by Mrs. Gould as a chauffeur, and that he often drove her to meet Farnum after the LONDON, June 18 .- Great Britain has play, testified that once when Mrs. Gould Many New Taxes Proposed to Help asked America not to press her claim for was waiting in the automobile for Farnum participation in the Hankow-Sze-Chuen at the Hotel Somerset two men turned to allroad loan of $27,500,000, which British, the actor as he came out of the hotel door and asked him whose automobile was wait

"Oh," said Farnum, laughing, Flynn les tifled, "that is my new one." Great Britain points out that the ar- Another time, Flynn swore, when he

> Woman Wrote to Gould. Mary Elizabeth Harrison, who said she was a floor clerk in the Belleville Stratford hotel in Philadelphia, sald she had been Impelled by her conscience to tell what she saw at the hotel. Finally she wrote a lot ter to Mr. Gould.

"I said in the letter," she testified, " 'in obedience to the golden rule I write to you to help you if you are in trouble,' or some thing like that."

Mrs. Gould occupied apartments on the floor where she was stationed in September 1906, the witness went on, and one mornthe only passenger in the car and that the dial registered fourteenth floor when the Then below these words followed in car stopped. She described the man as tall. with dark, bushy hair, and wearing a soft hat and a long coat.

The defense contends that Dustin Farnum was staying on the fourteenth floor Garner, who also was employed as a floor clerk in the hotel. She testified that Mrs. Gould then had rooms on a lower floor.

"Did you take any means to find out if night?" asked Delancey Nicoll, Mr. Gould's

"No, but the maid reported that it had not been," the witness answered, Court adjourned at 6 o'clock until Monday morning and the prospect is that the "You're stung," gleefully shouted the trial will occupy more than a week more, The appellate division of the supreme court today confirmed the conviction of the best dinner in town, and if I fail, I bet is yours. The next time I make a Mrs. Margaret Teal, wife of Ben Teal, the wager on the strength of an ad before I theatrical manager, of attempted subornation of perjury in the divorce case of Helen

Kelly Gould against Frank J. Gould, Church Trouble at Ulysses Nearly Simple Battery Culminates in Violence.

REV. MURPHY COUNSELS PEACE Murder Case Against Wife of Sioux

Bishop Bonacum and Two Priests Who Came to Take Possession of Property Face an Augry Mob.

the Kaufmann murder case this morn ULYSSES, Neb., June 18.-Right Rev. ng, after being out all night, returned a verdict finding Mrs. Emma Kaufmann, ac- Bishop Bonacum of the Catholic diocese started an investigation. used of the murder of Agnes Potreis, a of Lincoln and Father O'Brien of Seward domestic, guilty of simple battery. She was and Father Kline of Brainard and Dwight at a late hour tonight, nor had Mrs. under this verdict, sentenced to pay a fine of $100 or serve fifty days in jail. The fine an angry mob of between 200 and 250 daughter had evidently been murdered by was immediately paid, thus ending a case people. The bishop and his priests had a Chinaman, became hysterical. The father which for the past three years has been come to Ulysses to formally take posses- in the meantime, was in conference with The jury in the first trial disagreed. The Murphy has held charge. second trial resulted in conviction of Mrs.

Raufmann of manslaughter in the second Catholics and non-Catholics, joined in the as much tenderness as possible, she cried, mob, and would have done injury to the "My God," and fainted. degree. Mrs. Kaufmann is the wife of a bishop and party had it not been for the strenuous efforts of Father Murphy, who ounselled the mob to do no violence, and More Victim

Who requested that the visitors be left alone. So threatening, however, was the aspect that Father O'Brien secured a livery of the murder, adding further to the mystery. The case has many unusual rig and, taking Bishop Bonacum and features, notably among which is the favo Another Man Shot in Fend Between mobile with church enemies of the bishop- sanction of the parents. It was overtaken three miles from town. out his passengers. When last seen, the throw some light on the case, several FAIRFIELD, Ill., June 18 .- Frank Mcbishop and his party were walking north, years ago, when he conducted a cane rack Cullough, the second victim of Wednesalong the road toward David City. They at an amusement park at Fort George. Charles Leininger was killed and Dick Sloan was wounded in the same fracas, hem to various indignities.

> Church Closely Guarded. The trouble of tonight had its origin in more than a year ago.

the long church feud between Bishop Bon-Herbert O. Pinnick, who did the shooting acum and Rev. William Murphy, for sevis still in jail, the coroner's jury not having eral years priest in control of the parishes reached a verdict. He will plead self-deexcommunicated Father Murphy, and was sustained at Rome, and recently secured a uling in the civil courts ousting Father Murphy from the parish property. The majority of the parishioners, throughout the to Aid France long controversy, have stood with the priest, the trustees at Seward at different times refusing to permit priests sent by the bishop to occupy the church. The storm broke tonight when Bishop Bonacum, accompanied by Fathers O'Brien and Kline, came to install them, respectively, at Ulysses and Seward. Father O'Brien was sent out from the hotel to reconnoiter. He found PARIS, June 18 .- The budget of 1910 introduced in the Chamber of Deputies today shows a deficit of $21,000,000. Nine million dollars of this is charged to the budget of 1911. Finance Minister Caillaux recommends that the remaining $12,000,000 be raised by a formality was begun. The mob on the outside of the hotel grew threatening. Threats were made to "egg" the bishop, and at the most critical moment, when it seemed that violence would be done, Father Murphy arrived and

(Continued on Second Page.) ,

Neighbors Go to Court Over Ownership of Cat

Hazelton, 1002 South Twenty-fifth street, may have it when it does,

Such was the verdict of Judge Cockrell in the "kitty" case tried in his justice court yesterday afternoon and in which Oliver Hazelton brought action against William home of Mr. Murray.

Judge Cockrell was much disgusted with kitty, kitty, kitty." the case and was forced to utter a tirade Mrs. Allen, who was the original owner against all cats in the city. In the testi- of the cat, was next called on to testify. She remembered that one morning Farnum mony of Hazelton it was shown that the Her testimony brought the case to a close, came up in the elevator rather early, and cat owned by him had been in the habit for she said that she had given the mother appeared to her "less well groomed" than of wandering around to the neighboring cat to Mrs. Oliver Hazelton, but that she Judge Cockrell stopped the proceedings trouble arose. Mr. Farnum's room had been occupied that long enough to say that nobody had a Attorney Haller, when Mrs. Allen had right to allow a cat to run around after concluded, informed Judge Cockrell that dark, or any other time.

the judge warned, as he directed his words toward Hazelton. "Hazelton may have all the cats he sligel, but he said he could not Mentify by cats in my neighborhood a great deal them. They have the history the history the history the history has been been because it them. "You ought to kept your cat at home." they did not want them. by cats in my neighborhood a great deal them. They have the kittens now, and if it, though he knew his daughter wore a during the last week and I have no patience they can find the cat they may have it. with any cats, kittles, kittens, or any too."

disturbing peoples' slumbers."

The cat has not come back, but Oliver W. | Hazelton, who claimed to be the owner of the cat in question, was the first witness called up by the attorney for the plaintiff. Hazelton explained that the cat over which the trouble arose had been staying at his house since Christmas

He testified that Mrs. German, who lives Murray et al., Fifty-sixth and Morse next door to him, had over four weeks ago streets, to secure the title to a gray and got the cat to leave its happy home and kittens, the same having been taken to the she had done it by calling over the fence offered as borne out by the bloody corpse his clients did not claim the cats and that "P. C. S." (the letters were worn and felines that go prowling around at night | Judge Cockrell then ruled that the plaintiff was entitled to the cat and all its appeared from home Jone 10. Two days The small court room of Justice Cockrell kittens, but that he would have to pay the later the family got word from her in was crowded with a large number of men costs of the case. The defense had been Washnigton saying she was safe and would and women, most of whom were witnesses fighting only to keep from paying the be home the following Monday, June 14.

GIRL'S BODY FOUND IN TRUNK

WEATHER FORECAST.

Granddaughter of General Franz Siegel Victim of Bloody Murder in New York.

IS BUTCHERED BY A CHINAMAN

Endearing Letters Left in Room Where Body is Discovered.

RESULT OF A LOVE AFFAIR

Outer Garments Removed and Body Wrapped in Blanket.

VICTIM WAS A MISSIONARY

Bibles and Prayerbooks Left Behind by Murderer in His Flight-Ghastly Tragedy Uncarthed by Police.

NEW YORK, June 18.-Elizabeth Seigel, daughter of Paul Seigel of this city and grand daughter of the illustrious General Franz Seigel, the German warrior who served with the union army during the civil war, is, according to all indications tonight, the victim of one of the most bloody murders in the history of New York. If she is not the victim, the police are confronted with a remarkable series of coincidental fact. Taken from a trunk in a room of a Chinaman in a chop sucy restaurant. In the tendertoin, the body is in a state of decomposition, which makes identification difficult. Detectives are collecting BISHOP FORCED TO LEAVE the threads of a tangled story involving the girl and her associations with Chinese. An envelope addressed to the girl, found in the room where the body lay, a locket bearing her initials, her disappearance on June 10 and a note found in the room, signed Elsie, all seem to indicate that Seigel's daughter was murdered. Body Tied with Ropes. The body was partly stripped of its dothing, tied with ropes, wrapped in a faded blanket and placed into a dilapidated old trunk where it lay for a week, at least, before the odor crept through the building, arousing the suspicion of the proprietor who summoned the police and Mr. Siegel had not identified the body sion of the church here, over which l'ather the police. Mrs. Siegel's condition was such, that it was impossible to interview her Sympathizers of Father Murphy, both and when the story was told to her with Chinaman Has Disappeared. Sun Leung, proprietor of the restaurant, who also conducted the rooming house

Father Kline, left in the direction of David that a Chinaman has been known to call City. This rig was followed with an auto- at the Siegel home, presumably with the Elisabeth was 20 years old and was and the bishop and priests were forced greatly interested in work among Chinese to get out and walk, and the liveryman It is understood that she became a quainted was made to drive back to Ulysses with- with one Chinaman who may be able to

were not harmed, but threats were made | The Siegel home in Wadsworth avenue, o "egg them." "mob them" and to treat the Bronx, is not far away from that resort. Neighbors said tonight that the calls of the Chinaman at the house ceased

The house in which the body was discovered is at 782 Eighth avenue, in the Tenderloin district. Sun Leung, the proof Ulysses and Seward. Bishop Bonacum prictor, brought about the revelation of the crime. He noted a peculiar odor and fearing that some one had committed suicide notified the police. They ascended to the top floor, entered a room and pried open a steamer trunk. There laid the body, clamped and partly decomposed, with a rope wound tightly about the throat and also tied about the knees and arms.

The body was covered with blood and the clothing was torn, indicating there was s struggle. The man who had occupied the room evidently had left hastily, for there had been no effort to remove anything. H had evidently been converted to Chris tianity, for there were about the roon. the church strongly guarded and the as- Bibles and prayer books, containing names pect threatening. It was then decided to written in both English and in Chinese hold the formal ceremonies of taking pos- which gave the information that he was session of the church at the hotel, and this known in English as William H. Lion and in Chinese as Leong Loo Lim.

> Love Note is Found. Scrawled on a card in fairly good English was an unsigned note which read: "I hope you do not get mad at me, because all the trouble come from me. Hope some day the happiness come to us both." There was great excitement among the Chinese in the vicinity when the murder was discovered, but with the exception of the proprietor, they could not be induced to view the body Examination showed that it was first wrapped in a bide blanket, although the outer clothing was removed. The feet were bare. Dragging the trunk out into a hall, detectives began a more minute inspection Decomposition had progressed so far, however, that except for the whiteness of the feet it would have been difficult to ascertain whether it was the body of a white woman. Soon after Mr. Sigel had been notified, it was removed to the morgue.

Butcher's Cleaver Found. Turning their attention again to the room, officers found a butcher's clever, white cat with its litter of four or five take up quarters at her place. He said which gave further color to the theory from her backyard and saying, "Come The house where the trunk was found is a three-story structure, used mainly as a chop sucy restaurant. The upper floors are rented to Chinamen.

Paul Sigel went to the Eighth avenue house late tonight and examined the clothing the woman were. He was unable, uses. When this fact was brought out had not done so until after the present however, to identify any of the things as having belonged to his missing daughter, Elsie. A locket with the initials "F. C. S." or locket when he last saw her. Disappearance of Girl.

According to Mr. Sigel, his daughter dis Nothing, her father said, had been heard