TOPEKA. Kan., June 18.—Wichita took the second from Topeka today, 5 to 2. Dumb playing by Abbott in the sixth, when he held the ball too long while thinking where to throw it, cost two runs. The rest of Wichita scores were made by heavy hitting at the right time. Topeka slipped one over in the sixth on two walks and a single and three hits in a row counted one more in the ninth. GAMES IN AMERICAN ASSOCIATION Columbus Takes Ten-Inning Game at Milwaukee, 4 to 1.

MILWAUKEE, June 18.—With the bases filled and two out in the tenth, Robinson booted Morarity's easy liner, permitting Nee to score. Kruger followed with a two-base bit, scoring Friel and Clarke, giving the visitors the game by a score of 4 to 1. Beth Geyer and Manske pitched superbball, Geyer being invincible in every inning but the seventh, when Milwaukee scored its only rub. Kruger's hitting was a feature. Score:

Game of All.

If it were possible to pick the leading player of the Western league the lot probably would fall upon Fisher. Omaha's fast that set by layed in this league. His remarkable a pace almost, if not quite, as swift as that set by Jimmy Austin, who left the Western league. He has mit a pace almost, if not quite, as swift as that set by Jimmy Austin, who left the Rourke's third sack to go to New York last fall.

Fisher holds three distinct records in the Western league. He has made more safe hits, more runs, stolen more bases than any other player. Up to Thuraday he had crossed the plate forty-two times, had hit the ball safely fifty-eight and the great field in average to go with it.

Fisher has become the terror of the leading average to go with it.

Fisher has become the terror of the leading average to go with it.

Fisher has become the terror of the leading to hit may be added, mile: Pinte (even) second, Jimes to be added, mile: Silk Hose the aid of the basemen, were doing their best to get him.

Fisher cannot keep up auch a record and stay in minor base ball. He will have the one advantage of Austin, that he is a much stronger batter.
