According to plaintiff, he engaged Carberg as his agent to sell a piece of property. Someone nibbled at the proposition and put up $100 as a deposit; then he backed down and forfeited the $100. Carberg, according to plaintiff, has the $100 and Saxton wants it.

Both men pleaded guilty to the respective charges. They have been in the Douglas county jail for several months.

Rains Interfere with Trains. Heavy rains of the last three nights have made railroading somewhat difficult and some of the roads have put their trains over the rails on time only by the hardest work.

Rock Island east of Council Bluffs had a washout Tuesday, which forced the trains to be run over the Northwestern into Omaha. The Union Pacific has a washout at Arapahoe, which delayed trains on the Kansas division nine hours. A slight washout on the Lane cut-off Tuesday morning caused the morning train to be sent over the old route via Millard.

Tax on Warrant Shavers. Councilman Berka is working on an ordinance intended to place a tax on warrant "shavers." The councilman believes that the men who make it a business to buy city warrants and advance money on them before they are earned should be compelled to pay for the privilege. He hopes to have his ordinance ready for the council at the time the regular occupation tax measures come up. Councilman Berka classifies his new ordinance among the occupation tax measures.

Charles T. Dickinson, former district judge, was agreed on by the mayor and the city prosecutor and thus became the key of the deadlock that opened the way for the appointment and confirmation of all officers under the mayor. This agreement was reached late yesterday afternoon and Dickinson's name went with the others at the council meeting last night. The list as printed above was confirmed and the war ended.

The confirmed list is the fourth sent to the council by Mayor Dahlman, the first list three weeks ago containing the names of present incumbents, most of whom the mayor wished to retain, the other two being composed of "dummies."

The stumbling block all along has been the position of city prosecutor, but late yesterday afternoon the mayor and the republican councilmen got together and agreed upon Judge C. T. Dickinson for that place, and the entire compromise "slate" as agreed upon Monday went through, except John J. Mahoney, present incumbent, was selected for clerk of the police court instead of his brother, Ed J., as agreed upon in the last conference.

Fifty-seven opportunities directly under control of the mayor were filled last night, the republicans getting nineteen of these and the democrats thirty-eight. These include many minor positions such as city hall janitors and elevator conductors. Only twelve changes are made in the list of city appointments from that which has maintained during the last three years.

Very nearly all the appointments were confirmed by the unanimous vote of the twelve councilmen. Councilman Schroeder voted against the confirmation of C. T. Dickinson for city prosecutor and Dr. J. F. Langdon for assistant health commissioner, and Schroeder, Johnson, Funkhouser and Brucker voted against the confirmation of J. G. Pegg for inspector of weights and measures.

Engineer's Additional List.
City Engineer C. T. Dickinson has a list containing the names of additional men needed in his department, and all were confirmed. The list was as follows: Rodmen, at $60 a month, Patrick Connell, Thomas Hausmann, F. W. Reynolds and Charles Pavlik; axemen, at $50 a month, F. P. Kelley, Valery White and Herbert Connell; clerk, at $25 a month, Leodore Zimmerman; inspectors of brick sewers, at $5 a day when needed, George Route and Ed Morris; inspectors of public works, at $3 a day when needed, John W. Long, J. C. Holt, Tony Back, John Swift, Ben Rein-schreiber, Joseph Vomacka, J. A. Dunlap, Dwight Rustin, E. J. Hatch, Carl Herman-son and George Gruening.

Paving Ordinances Passed.
Ordinances were introduced ordering the repaving of the following streets: Capitol avenue, between Eleventh and Twelfth streets; Jackson and Dodge streets; Thirteenth street, between Howard and Harney streets; Fourteenth street, between Howard and Davenport streets; Harney street, between Ninth and Fifteenth streets, and Howard street, between Ninth and Fifteenth streets. Ordinances were also passed ordering the paving of the following streets now paved: Eighteenth street, between Webster and Cuming streets; Webster street, between Thirtieth and Fortieth streets, and Thirtieth street, between Chicago street and Central boulevard.

Ordinances were introduced ordering the repaving of these streets: Capitol avenue, between Fourteenth and Sixteenth streets; Mason street, between Eleventh and Thirteenth streets, and California street, between Sixteenth and Twentieth streets.

Grading Bids Asked.
On the recommendation of the city engineer, the city clerk was instructed to advertise for bids for grading several streets upon which no bids have been received, though bids have been advertised for twice. These streets include Forty-second street between Emil and Bancroft streets; Pratt street between Florence boulevard and Twenty-fourth street; Mason street, between Thirty-fourth and Thirty-fifth streets, and Thirty-fifth street, between Mason and Pacific streets.

The city engineer recommended that the city council authorize accident insurance for men in his department engaged in hazardous work. The matter was referred to the committee of the whole.

Councilman Burnister introduced an ordinance prohibiting serving in saloons or in rooms adjacent thereto of free lunches or lunches for which a charge below the prevailing price is made. The ordinance also applies to places where games of chance are allowed. A penalty of $50 attaches for violation.

An ordinance changing the prevailing ordinance regulating the sale of intoxicating liquors to conform with the new stock closing law was introduced by Councilmen Berka and Hummel.

Meat Output of Packing Houses Increases for the Month.

PRICES FOR HOGS ARE HIGHER

Quotations Are Now Ranging Closer to the Chicago Market—Manager Buckingham Talks of Conditions.

"We have been having splendid receipts of cattle, a fair supply of hogs and a fine active market this month," said General Manager Everett Buckingham yesterday. "I don't think you could find a man connected with the South Omaha exchange, nor a shipper, nor breeder of stock who has a word of complaint. The packers have been good buyers. More cars of meat have been shipped out during the month than ever before at this season. This indicates a good outside demand. The packers buy readily as long as the demand warrants."

Mr. Buckingham thus described the general air of prosperity and good feeling which exists so noticeably in the South Omaha market. The South Omaha prices have ranged closer to the Chicago market than ever before. The output has brought South Omaha to third place, while for the greater part of last year this market was in sixth place. As to the rather large decrease in hog receipts last week, Manager Buckingham said that the supply here was normal, but that during the same week last year Kansas City was marooned by the big flood in the yards. During the ten days of the flood much of the receipts which would have gone to Kansas City came to South Omaha.

The weather last week was exceptionally fair all over the state and the farmers improved the time cultivating corn instead of marketing hogs. These two facts warranted the manager in saying that even last week the supply of hogs was normal. The supply is better so far this week. Yesterday there were about 12,000 head, with prices up to $7.50 for the top, and a bulk of about $7.00 to $7.20.

Negroes Fight in Box Car.
Alex Pierre and Sam Bowden, two South Omaha negroes, anxious to settle their differences according to the rule of the fist, met at the depot, and not willing to be disturbed by the formality of the law, nor to frighten the neighborhood by the sight of combat, took to a lonely box car on the Union Pacific track yesterday evening and engaged in battle royal. After they had been fighting about half an hour with honors even, they were discovered by workmen of the Union Stock Yards company. The word was sent to the police, but it was about twenty minutes before the officers arrived. The battle was still going full tilt. The men's clothing was torn to shreds and their faces badly battered. Neither was ready to quit nor to discuss the cause of the quarrel. They were arrested.

Board of Education Meets.
The Board of Education met in a special session last evening to receive the requisitions for supplies as recommended by the city superintendent. These supplies covered the fiscal year. The board will at once advertise for bids for the supplies. The superintendent made his recommendation covering repairs to grounds and buildings and a few claims were allowed.

Howe-Burnham Wedding Today.
The wedding of Arthur N. Howe and Miss Beesie E. Burnham will be celebrated at 2:30 p. m. today at the home of the bride's parents, Sixteenth and Missouri avenues. Miss Kate Schwartzlander of Concord, the only school year. The board will at once advertise for bids for the supplies. The superintendent made his recommendation covering repairs to grounds and buildings and a few claims were allowed.

Base Ball Games Wanted.
Manager G. S. Kennedy of the Union Stock Yards base ball team announces an open date for Sunday with any of the local teams. The date is open because a game scheduled for Saturday and Sunday at St. Joseph was shifted until July 10 and 11. The team plays at Fremont July 3 and 4. A game is to be played with Atlantic, Ia., in the near future.

Negroes Fight in Box Car.
Alex Pierre and Sam Bowden, two South Omaha negroes, anxious to settle their differences according to the rule of the fist, met at the depot, and not willing to be disturbed by the formality of the law, nor to frighten the neighborhood by the sight of combat, took to a lonely box car on the Union Pacific track yesterday evening and engaged in battle royal. After they had been fighting about half an hour with honors even, they were discovered by workmen of the Union Stock Yards company. The word was sent to the police, but it was about twenty minutes before the officers arrived. The battle was still going full tilt. The men's clothing was torn to shreds and their faces badly battered. Neither was ready to quit nor to discuss the cause of the quarrel. They were arrested.
