varity fooled me. I did not know they had such a good crew. The New Yorkers certainly did fine work in the last mile. "Our varity crew went over the course a week ago in 19-06, which satisfied me they were fast enough to win. The time trials of the other crews also showed that they were fast. I expected the four-oared race would be rowed in 9-30, and it would have been if the motor boats had not been prevented from churning up the water. It was very rough for the first two races. The four and freshmen each had three inches of water in their bows when they reached the boat house. I am proud of our boys, they certainly did great work for the university."

Celebrators Are Arrested.
There was the usual amount of celebrating in town tonight by Cornell and Columbia undergraduates, consisting mainly of parading and singing college songs. Several young men who attempted to discharge firecrackers were arrested. Nothing more explosive than red fire was permitted.

Marshalltown Dry; Every Saloon is Closed by Sheriff

Deputies Seize Stocks in Sixteen Places Not Already Closed by Court.

MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., July 2.—(Special Telegram.)—The stocks of sixteen saloons of the city were seized this morning by the sheriff's deputy corps and constables on search warrants secured by County Attorney J. H. Egermeyer. The sixteen include all but three saloons in the city, which are already closed. In each saloon the owners rather than have the stocks removed from the building turned over the keys to the officers, who took formal possession and shut bars. The seizures are the result of the city council allowing twelve saloon owners to transfer ownership to "dummy" owners for the purpose of defeating litigation Egermeyer had started. In other cases abatement of nuisances are sought. For the first time in eighteen years the city is completely dry.

Young Hero Saves One Boy's Life

Second Boy at Fort Dodge is Carried Down Swollen Stream and Drowned.

FORT DODGE, Ia., July 2.—(Special Telegram.)—Meredith Lowrey, aged 10, son of Charles Lowrey, was drowned last night in Lizard Creek, now a swollen stream, and the body has not yet been recovered. With two other boys, he was spending the day in the creek. He and his brother lost control of themselves in the swift water and the third boy, Fred Etzel, made an heroic rescue of one lad, and then found the other had disappeared in the current.

IOWA STUDENT IS DROWNED

Bertram Groves Meets Death While Bathing in River at Iowa City.

IOWA CITY, Ia., July 2.—(Special Telegram.)—Bertram Groves, a student in the college of liberal arts of the University of Iowa, was drowned this afternoon while bathing in the Iowa river under the interurban bridge with a companion, Charles Palmer. Neither could swim. Groves had been working on the new building which is being erected. The body has not yet been recovered.

Slender Causes Suicide.

NEVADA, Ia., July 2.—(Special.)—From the effects of drinking a quantity of concentrated lye five weeks ago with suicidal intent, Miss Christina Larson, aged 30 years, died here today. The girl attempted to commit suicide because of despondency, brought on by persons living in the neighborhood, who attempted to harass her by starting scandalous stories about her, and by writing vile anonymous letters to her. The girl took the slender and abuse so much to heart that she grew despondent and wanted to die. Detectives have been employed to ferret out the persons who wrote the letters.

Boy Drowned at Fort Dodge.

FORT DODGE, Ia., July 2.—(Special.)—Meredith Lowrey, the 10-year-old son of Charles Lowrey, was drowned in Lizard creek late Thursday evening while attempting to save his younger brother, who was being carried down by the undercurrent. Burdette Lowrey, the younger boy, was saved, but at the expense of the life of Meredith, who made a heroic effort to save the lad. The body is still unrecovered, though search has been under way all night and today.

Court Enjoins a Brewery.

WAVERLY, Ia., July 2.—(Special.)—Judge Smith yesterday issued a perpetual injunction against the Waverly Brewing company, its officers, directors, agents, employees, restraining them from manufacturing and keeping and selling beer. This is the first injunction issued against a brewery under the new law.

Boy Drowned at Mount Pleasant.

MOUNT PLEASANT, Ia., July 2.—(Special.)—George Hollis, aged 12 years, was drowned last night in a swimming hole near here, when he jumped from a log with two other boys, both of whom were able to get across.

Iowa News Notes.

FORT DODGE.—Twenty acres of land near Fort Dodge sold today at public auction for $10,000, $200 an acre more than $25000 had been sold for here previously. It was land disputed in a partition suit by L. E. Armstrong and John Schupp, and the last session of district court ordered it sold at public auction, appointing N. C. Price referee. John M. Schupp is the purchaser.

CRESTON.—At the semi-annual meeting of the Creston National Bank, held Friday, President Scott Skinner was elected vice president of the institution, to a vacancy which has existed for some time. Baxter of this city was elected to fill the vacancy on the board of directors by the removal of E. A. Aldrich to Washington.

CRESTON.—At the home of the bride's parents in Creston, Wednesday, took place the wedding of Miss Nellie Hemphill, former Creston girl, and Mr. C. I. Miller of Chicago. The bridegroom is the son of Ed Hemphill, one of the best known traveling men in the state, and the groom is employed as a freight agent in Burlington. They will be at home in Chicago.

STUART.—Charles Jones of Stuart had bought the J. W. Black farm, lying two miles southeast of Menlo, just across the line in Adair county, for $25,000, paying the top price of $2,500 an acre, buying the farm in consideration of one of Adair county's best. What is known as the old Lincoln farm in Hardin county, Ellis township, consisting of ninety-eight acres, has been bought by Frederick Tipton of Tipton township, same county, for $11,200, or $115 per acre.

NAVAL OFFICERS RETIRED

President Taft Takes Summary Action in Several Cases.

FORTY VACANCIES CREATED

Executive Acts on the Recommendation of the "Sperry Plucking Board"—Record of Those Who Are Affected.

WASHINGTON, July 2.—Five captains, one commander and three lieutenant commanders of the navy, the selections of the Sperry "plucking board," today were retired under the navy personnel act after approval by President Taft.

They include Captain Edward F. Qualtrough, who was commander of the battleship Georgia during the trip around the world of the Atlantic battleship fleet and who was suspended from duty for six months following a court-martial at Tanager on charges of intoxication and unbecoming conduct.

The other officers retired are Captains Dennis H. Mahan, captain of the Puget sound navy yard, Bremerton, Wash.; Alexander McCahin, commander of the cruiser West Virginia; J. B. Collins, commander of the battleship Indiana and captain of the Philadelphia navy yard, and William S. Hoeg, formerly commander of the supply ship Glacier; Commander Leo D. Minor, inspector of machinery at the Mare Island navy yard, and Lieutenant Commander Glennie Tarbox, who has been under treatment at the naval hospital, Mare Island, California; William W. Bush, in charge of the navy recruiting station at Oklahoma City, Okla., and Charles T. Jewell, executive officer of the cruiser Chattanooga. The captains are retired with the rank of commodore, the commanders with the rank of captain and the lieutenant commanders with the rank of commander.

These retirements create the forty vacancies above the grade of junior lieutenant required each year by law. The voluntary retirements increased the number of vacancies made by deaths, resignations and other causes to thirty-two, making necessary the choosing of nine officers for compulsory retirement.

By the retirements William S. Benson becomes senior commander, Frank Marble senior lieutenant commander and Luther M. Overstreet senior lieutenant of the navy.

DOUBLE MURDER SHOCKS LONDON

testation of the crime, but, nevertheless, many of them are known to be active members of the London branches of the societies conducting a campaign of sedition and anarchy in India.

Scotland Yard recently received information which led to increased activity in investigating the movements and antecedents of certain Indian students here, who, it is alleged, had designs on prominent English officials. Lord Morley himself, for some time past, has been under police protection, and even when he left London he was attended by Scotland Yard detectives.

Political Agitation in Bengal.

CALCUTTA, July 2.—There is at present a recrudescence of political excitement in eastern Bengal, and meetings to express sympathy with natives who have been deported are of almost daily occurrence. Arabindo Ghose, one of the most prominent of the Indian agitators, is traveling through the country in the interests of an anti-government campaign. He is preaching that the "flat of God has gone out to the Indian nation to unite, to be free and to be great."

DEATH RECORD.

Lawrence Winkelman.

PERU, Neb., July 2.—(Special.)—Lawrence Winkelman, who died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. H. Resegine, Monday, was buried Wednesday. The funeral services at the home were conducted by Rev. Mr. Tyler of the Methodist church and at the cemetery by the Grand Army of the Republic. Mr. Winkelman came to this country from Germany in 1863 and to Peru in 1867. He served throughout the war in Company C, First Nebraska volunteers, and was orderly sergeant to Colonel T. J. Majors. In 1887 he removed to Omaha, where for a number of years he was employed in the Union Pacific shops. He made his home with his son, R. E. Winkelman, 315 North Forty-third street, during the last few years, and came here to visit his daughter, Mrs. Resegine, who was taken ill soon after he arrived and his condition became serious a week ago and his son was summoned from Omaha. He leaves a widow and four sons and two daughters. Out of respect to his memory the dinner given by Colonel T. J. Majors to the old settlers was adjourned in order that his old friends and comrades might attend the funeral services.

B. F. Furrow.

HUMBOLDT, July 2.—(Special.)—B. F. Furrow, one of the well known farmers of this section, who recently returned to Kimball, Neb., died in this city at the home of his brother-in-law, Joseph Williams, shortly after being brought in from the west suffering from cancer of the liver. Mr. Furrow was a native of Indiana, and was in his 64th year. He leaves six children, ranging in age from 21 years to a few months. The funeral services will be held here Saturday at the Christian church by Rev. George C. Aydelott, with interment at the Prairie Union cemetery.

Thomas Dudley Thornton.

SIDNEY, Ia., July 2.—(Special.)—Thomas Dudley Thornton is dead at his home in this city at the age of 82. He was one of the oldest residents of the county, coming here by the steamboat route in 1854 from his native state, Kentucky. He was formerly a farmer, but had resided in Sidney for a good many years. He was possessed of considerable property and had recently created the Thornton opera house in Sidney. He was twice married and the father of eighteen children, twelve of whom are living.

Mrs. Silas Corey.

FORT DODGE, Ia., July 2.—(Special.)—Mrs. Silas Corey, formerly Susan Grant, died here Saturday at the age of 88 years. Five children out of seven survive and she has living thirty grandchildren and fifteen great grandchildren. Her husband died about a year ago and the passing of this aged couple takes away two of the earliest settlers in the county and prominent spiritualists of Iowa.

Mrs. Jacob Schmoll.

FORT DODGE, Ia., July 2.—(Special.)—Mrs. Jacob Schmoll, 68 years of age, a native of Switzerland and a resident of Fort Dodge since 1888, died this morning after long suffering with intestinal disease. An operation was performed Tuesday as the last chance of saving her life, but age

-specials that fairly "pop"

3 "Pre-4th of July" attire needfuls that almost detonate with savings. 3 tempting specials that merely await to be "touched off" by you. As with dynamite explosions, the force goes "downward." Not "sizzers" but real trade attractors.

-special in Wash Coat Suits

$5.75—sizes made FOR "small women"
—we have yet remaining from certain large selling lines, 50 suits that have sold down to more or less "broken lots" and these are to be sold tomorrow at the price featured here—must admit that the reduction is thorough. The suits charmingly made up of sacked cloth in choice light and airy blues, tans, plaids, lavenders, greens and the like. Coats semi-fitted, 36 inch lengths; skirts plain gored; coat and skirt trimmed with pearl buttons, and coats with nicely tailored pockets. Have been our best sellers. Sizes broken but all sizes somewhere in the lot.

for suits worth $7.50 to $10.00

-special in Young Men's Suits

$10—the nifty "Sampeck" kinds
—we have taken from our most popular "Sampeck" clothes for young men, 80 suits to offer as a startling "Pre-Fourth of July" special. The suits in question are in sobriest of chevrons, tweeds, homepins, checks and stripes, and are cut on the lines that have made this season's "Sampeck" productions so unusually swaggar. There isn't a suit in the lot that has been selling for LESS than $15, and many of them have sold for $15. Yet, notwithstanding, they are to be placed in one lot tomorrow at $10 each. You, of course, by this time, know of "Sampeck" "make up".

for suits worth $15 and $18

-special in Boys' Knicker Suits

$3.75—many with 2 pairs trousers
—tomorrow should prove a gala occasion with mothers who superintend the clothing wants for boys. Any 85 knickerbocker suit for boys—any 80 suit for boys—will be offered at a mere $3.75 per suit. And mind you, MANY of these suits are equipped with TWO pairs of knickerbocker trousers. We are perfectly willing that you "look to the inside" of these garments—to see how infinitely superior they are in make up, in trim, in fit, and in pattern. This could not very well be otherwise, for every suit offered, even at this price, is of "Heather" quality.

for suits worth $5.00 and $6.00
