

Iowa GIRL RUNS AWAY FROM HOME

Miss Grace Shannon of Council Bluffs Arrested in Des Moines.
TRUE TO HER SOLDIER BOY

She Says Her Parents Attempted to Make Her Marry an Old Bachelor—Lover Killed in Philippines.

From a Staff Correspondent.
DES MOINES, Ia., July 3.—(Special Telegram.)—Miss Grace Shannon, daughter of a well-to-do farmer living near Council Bluffs, is in charge of the police matron here. According to the story she tells the police she ran away from home because her parents attempted to force her to marry an old bachelor when she had promised the son of a neighbor that she would marry him when he returned from the Philippines. She is still waiting for him to return. Miss Shannon ran away from home Thursday and was arrested here. Nine years ago, when Dan Mapleton, left for the Philippines as a private in a Nebraska regiment, she promised to marry him. According to Philippine veterans, Mapleton probably lost his life by his bravery at the head of a scouting party as sergeant trying to capture Agutnoid. Miss Shannon claims she will remain true to her promise not to marry another if Mapleton ever comes back. For when her relatives tried to force her to receive the attentions of a neighbor bachelor she ran away from home. She will be taken back to Council Bluffs Monday.

Miss Harriet Lake of Independence, Ia., one of the most prominent club women of the state, may be elected as superintendent of the industrial school for girls at Mitchellville. She is regent for the State Daughters of the American Revolution. The board has been considering applicants, but will not make the selection for a few days. Because of the necessity of letting the contract for an ice plant at Mount Pleasant, which has interrupted.

Crabtree Case Referred.
The secretary of war and Attorney General Wickham will have to say what to do with Lieke Crabtree, who shot and killed Captain Raymond at Fort Des Moines. In times of war he would have been court-martialed. There is no provision in the law to do with him in times of peace, so his case has been referred to Washington.

Two Soldiers Hurt.
While crossing the Great Western railroad tracks in South Des Moines in an army wagon from Fort Des Moines, Privates John C. Finnigan and Joseph Burns were struck by a Great Western engine. Burns was slightly hurt, but Finnigan was quite seriously injured.

Campaign for Pure Milk.
Prosecution was started today by the state food and dairy commissioner's office against L. E. Bennett of Frasier, Ia., on the charge of selling cream in Des Moines that was below the standard required by the state. Bennett sold by wholesale to ice cream parlors and other concerns. Arrangements are being made to secure some prosecutions of dealers for selling milk with dirt in it. The state food and dairy commissioner is endeavoring to make the enforcement of the pure milk laws so rigid from now on that it will be impossible for dealers to impose on the people. Hereafter, the inspections by the state inspectors have been made once a month and usually at about the same time each month. Now it is proposed to make the inspections, at any time, during a month and keep the inspectors busy nearly all of the time. It is believed that this will be the only means of securing pure milk.

Governor Carroll to Guthrie Center.
Governor H. E. Carroll is in Guthrie Center today making a speech and leaving for the people at the celebration there. By proclamation of the governor Monday will be generally celebrated through Iowa as the Fourth and the state house offices will be closed on that day.

State Superintendent John F. Riggs and a delegation of Iowa educators left today to attend the convention of the National Educational association in Denver.

Force Vacation to Children.
Children attending the summer vacation school in the Lincoln school building will have to take a vacation Monday, though they have signed a petition which they presented to their superiors asking that there be no vacation. The children are enjoying the work of studying nature at close range by making gardens and the like.

Drains 25,000 Acres.
Among the decisions of the supreme court yesterday was one which makes possible the drainage of 25,000 acres of land in Des Moines county. The supreme court affirmed the action of the district court, which approved the action of the supervisors in arranging for the drainage district.

Polk County First.
Polk county seems likely to be the first county in the state to establish a county hospital under the new law. It was the expectation that mainly the county hospitals would take care of the tuberculous patients in the state at present in the state in such large numbers (about 10,000 in all) that there is no other way to care for them. It is part of the plan of campaign to rid the state of tuberculosis.

CRESTON, Ia., July 3.—(Special.)—At the annual business meeting of the Southwestern Iowa Firemen's association held Friday morning in Osceola, Villisca was awarded the tournament for 1909, the only other town in the race being Red Oak. C. C. Green of Villisca was elected president of the association; C. Teaseld of Red Oak, vice president; H. T. Bunker, Villisca, secretary; J. S. Cooke, Red Oak, treasurer. Reports were received from the officers and routine business transacted. Special interest was aroused by the action taken against Atlantic, which entailed the firemen last year, but is not represented this year at Osceola. A committee was appointed to investigate the charge made against Atlantic that part of the property of the association used there last year should not be returned. The committee was empowered to act. Good weather conditions marked the opening day and fully 7,000 visitors came in, which number is expected to be doubled Saturday. In the contests yesterday first places were won by Red Oak and Villisca and the second places by Creston firemen.

IOWA CITY—Mary Lucas, daughter of Iowa's famous territorial governor, Robert Lucas, died here yesterday at the old Lucas homestead on Kirkwood avenue. She was 82 years of age and was the last child of the noted executive.

CRESTON—Milton F. Leonard, one of the business men of this city was married in Mount Hope, Pa. to Miss Nettie Shuber. They have spent a number of weeks visiting points in the east and have arrived in this city, where they will make their home.
CEDAR RAPIDS—Mrs. Green, wife of Rev. Dr. Thomas E. Green, was severely injured in an automobile accident in Honolulu, Ia., making a wonderful recovery, according to telegrams received in this city. If Mrs. Green continues to recover she will sail for this city, where the family is very prominent, about July 15.

MT. PLEASANT—The Fremont Voters' association of the First Congressional district of Iowa will hold its annual meeting on September 13. Elaborate preparations are already being arranged for this gathering, which is an unusually large one for the restricted territory that it represents. J. A. Keck of Stockport, Van Buren county, is president of the association.
FORT DODGE—Clara Cloh, the 15-year-old daughter of William Cloh, mail carrier on route 2 of this place, was severely injured through electrical storms of the entire week of June 20 to 23 she pluckily traversed the muddy country roads and never failed to do the work required of her.

FORT DODGE—John Lenhan, aged 75, a native of Macomb, Pa., died here today, who came to Fort Dodge in 1852, died here this morning. He took up a large homestead farm near here and has lived there since 1871, hiring managers for the farm while he continued with his chosen trade, that of stonemason and contractor. He laid many of the first foundations in the city. His wife died two months ago. She was Miss Katharine Coleman, aged 75, whom he brought here as a bride in 1857.
CRESTON—A ridge fully three feet in height has been raised in the pavement at the intersection of two streets in this city. The paving is brick with a cement coating. It is leaning in the direction of the expansion of the brick. For a block in each direction the terrific heat of the last two days caused the paving to swell together, meeting at this point with enough pressure to raise up and sustain the weight of the heaviest traffic.

CRESTON—Tom Dumphrey, a well known farmer living southeast of this city, was found this morning unconscious by the side of the road half a mile from his home. By a rural mail carrier on that route the mail cart was utilized as an ambulance and the man was taken to his home today. It was discovered that he had had a stroke of apoplexy, a condition he had started to work at O'Clock and probably had lain unconscious till 10:30 when the carrier passed.
OTTUMWA—Iowa druggists are planning a three day session of business and fun at Ottumwa, July 6, 7 and 8, the occasion being the thirtieth annual meeting of the Iowa Pharmacopoeia. The opening day will be given over to the reception and entertainment of the visitors. E. G. Moon of Ottumwa will give the address of welcome and Hon. H. Tober of Dubuque will respond for the visiting fraternity. An address will also be given by the president of the association, Edwin Frank.

CORNING—At a large family gathering held here in honor of the 8th anniversary of Thomas Wilson, a highly respected citizen of this place, his son, who is the father of fourteen children, had forty-five grandchildren and all of these were present at the family gathering. ### Gingies Girl Makes Charge Against Employer

Testifies Miss Barrette Tried to Lead Her Astray—Almost Breaks Down.
CHICAGO, July 3.—"I want you for a man in French Lick Springs. He will give you lots of money."
Ella Gingies, the 18-year-old Irish lace maker, testified in Judge Brant's court here today that the above remark was made to her by Miss Agnes Barrette, proprietress of a lace store in the Wellington hotel at the time the Gingies girl was found gagged and bound in the bath room of the hotel, January 5.

"It was taken to a room by Miss Barrette and Mrs. Kenyon," said the girl, speaking of a visit prior to the binding and gagging incident. "Later a man came into the room and I cannot tell what else happened. I only know a man named Charlie called up the man in the room."
Miss Gingies claimed on the stand that the larceny charge against her was part of the plot to drive her into going to French Lick Springs. The relation of this story visibly affected the witness, and at one time she seemed on the verge of a breakdown.

Miss Gingies was cross-examined by Assistant State Attorney Short, who attempted to make light of the alleged attack upon her, showed that she had not mentioned it until two days afterwards, although she had met Miss Barrette with a policeman in the meantime.
The girl's past history was raked up and she was confronted with many incidents that tended to darken the clearness of her story, but she calmly denied every-

Thousand Homeless in Cobalt Fire

Tents and Blankets Rushed to Stricken City for the Sufferers.
COBALT, Ont., July 3.—Prompt measures have been taken for the relief of the 1,000 persons made homeless by the fire which swept the northern part of the town yesterday. One hundred tents and 300 blankets furnished by the provincial government, are en route in charge of relief corps, which will keep the government in touch with the situation. The Toronto city council started two carloads of provisions last night and is ready to send more if necessary. The local relief committee also is receiving support from the business men and others who did not suffer from the fire.

Seventy-five buildings were destroyed, and the loss is estimated at from $200,000 to $400,000.
Starting in the kitchen of a Chinese restaurant in Halseybury road, the flames swept both sides of the street clean for half a mile.
Dynamite was resorted to to check the flames. An unidentified foreigner, who rushed into a building just as a charge went off, was killed. The fire was extinguished with the assistance of apparatus from Halseybury and New Liskold the fire was finally controlled.

Not more than one-tenth of the loss is covered by insurance.

PINDELL GETS BIG POSITION

He is Named as Chief Appointment Clerk in Federal Census Bureau.
WASHINGTON, July 3.—Robert M. Pindell will be appointed in a few days appointment clerk of the bureau of census, the most important positions of the kind in the government service. Mr. Pindell for several years has been deputy appointment clerk of the Department of Commerce and Labor.

The appointment of Albertus H. Baldwin to be chief clerk, in succession to William S. Roessler, resigned, also was agreed upon at a conference between Secretary Nagel and Director Durand.
Charles S. Bloane, now serving as geographer of the census, was appointed permanent geographer under the new census act. Director Durand announced also the appointment of Arthur E. Seymour as expert chief of division, and of Hugh A. Brown as the director's personal secretary.

NO RATES FOR OTHER ROSTS

One Common Carrier Must Pay Usual Schedule Over Other.
WASHINGTON, July 3.—A ruling was made today by the Interstate Commerce commission that one carrier shipping fuel, material or other supplies over the lines of another carrier must pay the legal tariff rates applicable to the same commodities shipped between the same points by an individual. If carriers insist upon making or maintaining preferential rates they may confidently expect that such voluntary action will be accepted as evidence of the unreasonableness of higher rates which they may undertake to enforce against other shippers.

Night Riders' Case is Reversed by Supreme Court

Eight Convicted Defendants, Six Sentenced to Death, Are Granted New Trials.
JACKSON, Tenn., July 3.—The case of the eight night riders, six of whom were under the death sentence, charged with the murder of Captain Quentin Rankin, at Walnut Log, on Reelfoot lake, October 19 last, were reversed by the supreme court today and were remanded for new trials.
The six men who were under the death sentence are Garrett Johnson, alleged leader of the night rider organization in Obion county; Arthur Clair, Fred Pinson, Sam Applewhite, The Burton and Ray Hanson. The other two, Bud Morris and Bob Huffman, were convicted of murder in the second degree. The opinion in the case was delivered by Special Justice Henry A. Craft of Memphis.

Brandenburg to St. Louis.
NEW YORK, July 3.—Broughton Brandenburg, the magazine writer, acquitted last week of larceny in connection with the publication of a letter purported to have been signed by Grover Cleveland, was taken by detectives to St. Louis today to face the charge of enticing away his stepson, James Shepard Cabanne III.

WANTS TILL THE LAST DAY

Files Suit Just as the Statute of Limitations Begins to Run.
The statute of limitations was evaded by just one day by Per A. Anderson, who filed suit in district court for damages against the Model Steam Laundry company. The alleged injury occurred on July 4, 1908, and notice of suit was filed Saturday, Anderson claims that he suffered a fall while doing some brick work for the laundry and wants damages to the extent of $5,150. If Judge Schlaugh, Mr. Anderson's attorney, had waited one more day the statute of limitations would have made the suit invalid.

Fortune Telling

Does not take into consideration the one essential to woman's happiness—womanly health. The woman who neglects her health is neglecting the very foundation of all good fortune. For without health love loses its lustre and gold is but drops. Womanly health when lost or impaired may generally be regained by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.
This Prescription has, for over 40 years, been curing delicate, weak, pain-wracked women by the hundreds of thousands and this too in the privacy of their homes without their having to submit to repugnant questionings and offensively repulsive examinations.

MOTHER'S FRIEND

Every woman covets a shapely figure, and many of them deplore the loss of their girlish forms after marriage. The bearing of children is often destructive to the mother's shapeliness. All of this can be avoided by the use of Mother's Friend before baby comes, as this liniment prepares the body for the strain upon it, and preserves the symmetry of her form. Mother's Friend makes the danger of child-birth less, and carries her safely through this critical period. Thousands gratefully tell of the ben-fit and relief derived from the use of this remedy.
