

BAN ON LURID POSTERS

F. A. Baird Gets Bill Companies to Concede Their Abolition.

HE WILL ASK FOR AN ORDINANCE

Proposes to Call on City Council to Pass Drastic Measure Against This Demoralizing Influence Upon Youth.

Lurid and exciting posters advertising what are commonly termed "blood-thunder" theatres...

Attorney F. A. Baird of the Board of Education, has secured this concession from the bill posters...

Sometimes ago former President David Cole of the Board of Education wrote the board calling attention to the exciting nature of many of the posters...

The city of Washington has recently adopted a bill poster ordinance containing the following provisions:

That hereafter no posters or placards shall be publicly displayed or exhibited which are lewd, indecent, vulgar or which pictorially represent the commission of or the attempt to commit any crime...

Five Hundred Rioters Are Paid

Long Lines of Veterans File Into the County Clerk's Office for Pension Papers.

The office of County Clerk Haverly presented a patriotic appearance Monday by reason of the 500 old soldiers who filed in during the first half of the day...

About twenty-five veterans were waiting for the county clerk when the office was first opened at 7 o'clock.

PATRIOTISM BUBBLES OVER LAW IN ONLY FEW CASES

Four or Five Arrests Are Made, but None is of Serious Character.

Few arrests were made by the police in connection with Fourth of July celebration. The cases of five men were disposed of in police court Monday...

Walter Elsworth, 418 North Seventeenth street, had been advised again and again by his mother not to carry a revolver, as she declared it would get him into trouble...

Roddy L. Brown and W. H. Wright, two South Omaha youths who celebrated with toy pistols and blank cartridges on a street car going to Courtland Beach...

A. C. Boor of Kansas City, Mo., was arrested for placing torpedoes on street car rails. He was released on a $5.00 cash bond...

Tom Holman, 27 North Twentieth street, charged with carrying concealed weapons, was fined $5.00 and costs and deprived of his revolver.

JUSTICE IN ONE SHOP ONLY

Scales Are Hung Up for Day in All the Local Courts, but Clocks Tickle.

There is one court in Omaha that is open for business on the Fourth. That is the justice court of Judge Cockrell.

"This is no legal holiday," said the judge, "and I am going to keep open all day. Some fellow may want to get a little justice today and I am here to give it to him."

The five other justices of the peace closed their shops for the day. Some of them, including Judge Altstad and Bachman, left the city to celebrate.
