MONDAY NIGHT UNCLE SAM'S TROOPS SURRENDER TO KING
 General Morton and Colonel Glasford Will Lead the Capitulating Forces.
 Monday night will be military night at the den and Samson will entertain the general officers of the department of the Missouri, the officers of Fort Crook and the officers of Fort Omaha. The special guests of the evening will be General Morton, commander of the Department of the Missouri; Colonel Gardener, commanding officer at Fort Crook and Colonel Glasford, commanding officer at Fort Omaha.
 The den will be decorated in honor of the soldiers and Paprica Schnitzel will be garbed in an American flag and real soldiers will rescue her from the pirates.
 There was no regular session at the den last Monday night because of the nation's holiday and consequently there will be two weeks' grind of recruits to go over the burning sands and the night will be especially interesting.
 Gus Renze, chief artificer for King Ak-Sar-Ben and head torturer to Samson, has returned from a trip to New York, where he went in search of new staff for Ak-Sar-Ben and new tortures for the working crew of the den. Some changes will be made in the program because of the extremely large classes. The opera has been rehearsed several times during the last two weeks and the second act is now said to meet the approval of the high command.

Who Wants to Go to Buenos Ayres
 Here is a Chance at the Invitation of President of Argentine Republic.
 Anybody want to go to Buenos Ayres? A chance for real deep sea navigation unfolds itself to any of the hardy tars of this vicinity.
 The president and secretary of the Sociedad Rural Argentina have written the Commercial club, care of J. M. Guild, asking the Omaha organization to take part in an international agricultural exposition to be held next year in the capital of the South American republic.
 "I have the honour," writes President Emil Freu, "of specially inviting the Hon. association of which you desire to take part."
 In the absence of Mr. Guild, who is wrestling with freight rates at Charlevoix, and the further absence of Commodore Wead and his crew the invitation cannot be answered for a few days.
 After darning the Missouri, however, it is unlikely that a little sea trip will have any terrors for these navigators.

MOTHER HIPPO KNOWS HER OWN BUSINESS BEST
 Efforts of Keepers to Save Her Baby Result in Death of the Little One.
 "It has been proven from the experience of showmen and animal trainers, time and again, that animals can take care of their young much better than human beings," said George Conklin, who has charge of the zoological department of the Barnum and Bailey Greatest Show on Earth, which comes to Omaha Tuesday next. "So far as I know, there is only one place in the country where they raise hippopotami, and that is the Bronx park in New York.
 When the first hippopotamus was born, the mother developed the habit of taking the baby under water and holding it there for twenty or thirty minutes at a time. Now there was a bunch of wise keepers that watched the performance a number of times and became greatly agitated. They feared the old lady would drown the little one, so rather than endure the reproaches of the park authorities, or the agony of seeing its death, they took it from the mother. It was nowhere but on deck for that little fellow from thence on, the 'wise ones' having concluded they knew the game of bringing up baby hippopotami better than the mother. The result of their care and attention was an hippopotami funeral, with the attendants and the old beast for the chief mourners. The next time the trainers were wiser, and when the mother took it under the water for twenty or thirty minutes at a time their pulses behaved in a normal way, and the little fellow was allowed to soak. This one grew and was sent to Cincinnati.
 "Did you ever observe an hippopotamus closely? They are the nearest approach to the lethargic of prehistoric times that we know of among the animal family. The physiognomy is absolutely brutalized. There is nothing to the face except the snout and lower jaw, which is out of all proportions to the rest of the brute's makeup. In the region of the head where mentality is commonly located, that is, above the ears and over the eyes, there is a depression—less than nothing. The

Youths Caught Trying to Escape
 Two Boys Get Out of Window, but Are Captured After an Exciting Chase.
 Tiring of a few hours' confinement in a room of the matron's department at the police station, William Clancy and Harry Breek, 11-year-old runaway boys, whose homes are at Cheyenne, broke out of their room by tearing loose an iron grating, dropped to the ground twenty-feet below and were just on the point of escaping when police officers noticed them and took them into custody again after an exciting chase of three blocks through streets, behind buildings and into a patch of high weeds.
 The lads were picked up by Special Officer Tighe of the Union Pacific in the morning and attempted the jail delivery about noon. Assistant Turnkey Brady of
