

TEMPERANCE WORKER CONSIDERS PERUNA A SUPERIOR PRESCRIPTION.

Mrs. Mary M. Brown, 148 Grosvenor Ave., East Providence, R. I., President of the Y. W. C. T. U. of East Providence, Rhode Island, Captain Woman's Relief Corps, and Past Department President of the W. M. C., of the state of Rhode Island, writes:

"Socially as well as officially, I meet a large number of women, old and young; bright, intelligent women who do their own thinking and form their own opinions. You will therefore be pleased to know that Peruna is a favorite remedy among women, and that it is generally considered superior to any prescription known in cases of catarrh and weakness peculiar to the sex."

Talks on Teeth BY DR. E. R. L. MURPHY

We want to know if you want good teeth, as perfect as the handsomest set you ever saw in any mouth.

Will you follow instructions in order to get these good teeth? You are not going to be asked to do the impossible thing, or suffer the tortures of an operation, or submit to some unheard-of procedure. Ours is a reasonable proposition.

First, you must come to our office and allow us to examine your teeth, to make an intelligent diagnosis. No charge, no obligation, no discomfort.

But if you have two or more roots of teeth in either jaw, we can restore all you have lost, by means of our wonderful method of supplying missing teeth without the use of plates or ordinary bridge.

These teeth will look like teeth and act like teeth when in your mouth, and be as firm and serviceable, in all respects, as nature's teeth.

We propose to give you something that would puzzle an expert to tell from nature's. Add all we ask is a few minutes of your time. It isn't much to ask.

How can we prove that we can do these things? There are ten thousand or more people who will vouch for our ability to do what we claim.

If you are a victim of pyorrhea, commonly known as Riggs disease (loosening of the teeth and sore and bleeding gums), by our method we are able to lighten your loose teeth and cure your sore gums, in a simple and comfortable manner. It is a simple method and not in the least discomforting. By a plan of adhesion we are enabled to make each tooth solid, and a preparation of our own discovery does the work of curing the diseased condition of the gums. We can prove this to you in one sitting in our office.

Good teeth, good looks and good health follow each other in regular order. We will gladly send you our handsome book, "Dr. Murphy's New Method," which goes into details, if you are too far away to call.

It is free. Write for a copy. Don't put it off. Do it now.

SUIT OVER COURT HOUSE PAY English to Bring Mandamus on Solomon for Contractors.

Comptroller Says He Should Hold Warrants for Public Protest. County Attorney Says Pay First of Month.

Following a resolution adopted by the Board of County Commissioners, the county attorney will bring a mandamus suit in district court Monday to compel County Comptroller Solomon to pay Caldwell & Drake $7,700 without delay as the first installment for contractors' work on the new court-house.

Under the law of claims, Mr. Solomon maintains it is his duty to hold the warrants issued to the contractors for ten days before paying them, but the county attorney has given an opinion that the installments of the contractors' pay for their work after they have been approved by the architect and the county board, are not properly claims, but debts which must be paid immediately to avoid violating the contract. According to his view of the case, Caldwell & Drake should have received their money on the first of the month.

Comptroller Solomon makes no protest against the action of the board, but insists he cannot give up the money to payment of the warrants before the ten days' wait without a special order from the court. "According to the former law," says Solomon, "any taxpayer had a right to take exception to any action of the county board by a protest after the warrants are delivered, but now the ten days specified are all the time that is given. It should be found that the contractors were not fulfilling their obligations in some particular, this is the only time allowed for protesting the warrant and its payment by me is the only time for taxpayers or officials to make objection. The amount now is only about $7,000, but later on the warrants will amount to some like $20,000, and under the law I cannot pay these unless the public has had its chance of protesting on each warrant."

Little Girl Pines to Become a Boy

Begs Mother Until She Abandons Dresses and Gives Her Male Attire.

A little girl of 10 years, attired in boy's clothes, attracted considerable attention at the Burlington station. She was with her mother, Mrs. G. W. Lehr of Cotocora Springs, and a 3-year-old brother, Sidney Lehr. Her name was Alice.

It was easy to tell at a glance that she was a girl, although her hair was cut rather short and she was dressed exactly like her brother, in brown pants and tan shoes and stockings. Her girlish looks and manners betrayed her.

When Mrs. Lehr was asked why the girl wore boy's clothes she said: "Alice has always wanted to be a boy like her brother Sidney. She has begged us to put her in boy's clothes for over a year, and so when summer came this year we decided to let her have her way. We bought her an outfit just like her brother's and she has been happy ever since. She has been wearing pants for two months now and has never wanted to change back to dresses."

UNION PACIFIC WILL BE IN NORTHPORT WITHIN FEW DAYS

Tracklayers Are Finishing Work and End is in Sight, Says Mohler

"The Union Pacific will be into Northport with its rails in a few days," said A. L. Mohler, general manager and vice president of the company. "The grading is nearly done and the tracklayers are keeping up with their end of the work."

The Northport line of the Union Pacific is the line started about two years ago west from North Platte along the north fork of the Platte river. It runs through a rich country largely under irrigation.

Mr. Mohler also says the forty-five miles of double track along the Union Pacific from Rawlins to Wamsutter was completed Friday, making another link in the extensive double-tracking work the Union Pacific has been doing in Nebraska and Wyoming during the last two years.

Asked when he was going to have the public reception at the Union Pacific shops of which announcement was made some time ago, Mr. Mohler said: "Just as soon as the city finishes its part of the sewer which is being run through so the shops yards may be closed up."

BOARD PUTS SMITH IN CLEAR

Gives Him Credit for Collecting Fees, Justifying Large Office Force.

The county board, at the request of Robert Smith, clerk of the district court, has granted his office credit for $3,000 necessary in fees for making copies of decrees in the scavenger tax cases.

The action of the commissioners was merely to give the clerk a chance to show on his books why he keeps such a large office force as the money is collected from the county and paid immediately back to the county. Under the scavenger law it is necessary that a great many copies of decrees be made in the clerk's office to be turned over to the county treasurer.

Mr. Smith says as his office was not credited with fees in this case his force of clerks, which takes care of this work, was as far as the records go a useless expense to the county. The action of the board credits him with receipts to cover his extra work and by a simple change in bookkeeping saves his record as an economical official.

Who Set Fire to W. E. Dyer's Grocery Store?

Whoever Did Will Confer a Favor by Informing Assistant Fire Chief Dineen.

"Who is the incendiary who set fire to some empty boxes in the rear of William E. Dyer's grocery store and butcher shop, 1717 Canton street, early Saturday morning?" is the question foremost in the mind of Assistant Chief Dineen of the fire department, who is investigating the origin of the fire.

Dyer, the storekeeper, says he believes someone who was springing traps, broke into his store and stole a small quantity of camping supplies and that they then set fire to some boxes in the basement, after moving them from one side to the other of the basement room and pouring oil over them.

Fire insurance to the amount of $1,000 is carried by Dyer, the Peters Trust company being the agents. At 5:10 o'clock the alarm announcing the fire was sent in and shortly afterward Captain Pat Coan of engine company No. 9 arrived with his men and found that lack of draught had caused the oil-soaked boxes and other material from burning much, smoke being about all there was to the fire.

Dyer owns his stock of goods, but the building belongs to John Petersen.

Come On, Burglars! Baldwin is Ready

Man Twice Visited in Two Weeks Acquires Arsenal and Sleeps in Shoes.

"The next burglar that calls on me will find himself in an arsenal, with all my valuables in my shoes, in which I may have to sleep after this," declares A. E. Baldwin, 268 Poppleton avenue, who has unwillingly been the host of a burglar twice within two weeks.

Mr. Baldwin's suit of clothes, his watch and chain and a pocketbook containing some coins were taken from his room while he slept one night last week. Taking the hint from the prowler's visit, the cautious Mr. B. slept after that with his valuables under his pillow—that is, with what valuables he had left among his ordinary pocket possessions.

But, sure as fate, when he awoke Saturday morning there wasn't any pocketbook under his pillow. It had been stolen by someone thought to have gained entrance to the house through a dining room window.

Although there was a $10 bill in the purse, its loss is not felt so great by Mr. Baldwin as that of a white onyx stone watch chain, engraved with the Baldwin family's English coat-of-arms, a white bear sitting on its haunches with a rugged stick in its paws.

Many in Dark as to Assessor Job

Several File Thinking Elective Position is Big Thing, Says County Clerk Haverly.

The exact nature of the new elective office of assessor has been much misunderstood and County Clerk Haverly says that some men are filing for it, believing that they will get a four-month's job, when, in fact, the work must be done in sixty days or less. The assessor must begin his work April 1 and have his reports in by the last Monday in May. At $3 a day, the highest possible stipend that the job can bring is less than $200, and will average about $150. It was announced by mistake that the work lasted for four months.

Those who have filed so far for the office are E. M. Robinson, republican, Twelfth ward, Second and Third precincts; A. H. Willis, republican, Sixth ward, First and Second precincts, and Charles Tholecke, democrat, Millard precinct.

Laura Porter Gets Four Years

Negress Who Killed James Chenault Goes to Penitentiary on Manslaughter Charge.

Laura K. Porter, the South Omaha negress who was convicted of killing James Chenault with a hatchet, has been sentenced to four years in the penitentiary by Judge Sutton.

County Attorney English made the statement in court that the recommendation of the jury for mercy was the result of the chivalry of two men and the excessive heat of the night in July when the jury was out.

Benjamin S. Baker, attorney for the woman, took strong objection to the statements of Mr. English and said that in his experience in a criminal lawyer this was the first case in which he had heard a prosecutor try to influence the judge to ward a heavier sentence. The choice of the court for imprisonment was between one and ten years' imprisonment.

FENCES AND GATES AT DEPOTS

System of Union Station Adopted by Burlington for Omaha and Lincoln.

The Omaha and Lincoln Burlington passenger depots are to be equipped with fences and gates on the platforms for keeping people from going out to the trains unless they have business there. The local fence and gates will be similar to those at Union station here, and will be installed before September.

The fence at the Burlington depot will be erected at the end of the pavement, about ten feet from the main platform entrance to the depot, and will extend east and west to both ends of the building, a distance of 150 yards. It will be eight feet high and probably will have two main gates.

Falls to Get Second Divorce—The divorce asked in Judge Troup's court by Gale C. Lawver, who married Maud W. Ellsworth, daughter of E. G. Ellsworth, a prominent citizen of Friend, was denied, and his wife was granted a separation, and the custody of their child. Judge Troup took occasion to declare his disapproval of the life and conduct of Lawver, who was married and divorced once before when he was only 15 years of age.

Perkins Here to Meet Marvin—Inspector Perkins of the Postoffice department, who had charge of the investigations into the Overland Limited mail holding in Omaha on May 22, has arrived in the city from the west. He has been looking into the Marvin end of the case in Idaho and will remain in Omaha until the arrival of Marvin Sunday evening. Marvin is now en route to Omaha in charge of the United States marshal of the Idaho federal district.

Cows Get Your Tag On—Copies of Governor Shallenberger's proclamation requiring examination of all cows for dairy and breeding purposes brought into the state have been received by Dr. Paul Juckett, state veterinarian. The proclamation will go into effect August 1 and under its provisions all cows brought into the state must bear a tag showing they have been subjected to the tuberculin test and have passed examination. Cows not tested will either be deported or sent to slaughter houses and killed under government supervision, all portions of the carcass showing infection to be condemned.

HOUSE OF HOPE OUT OF DEBT All Paid For Within a Week and Free of Any Sort of Incumbrance.

Rev. Charles W. Savidge has announced that within a week payment will be made of the last indebtedness on the House of Hope, which was bought July 17, 1906, for $5,000. The purchase was considerable of a bargain, for Dexter L. Thomas built it at an expenditure of $25,000 and Edgar L. Means of Orleans, Neb., spent $1,000 more in improvements on the building.

Creche Vacancies Filled in August

New Directors to Be Elected at Meeting Next Month—Merger Seems Not at All Probable.

Vacancies in the board of directors of the Creche will not be filled until the regular meeting of the association, which will be held the first Thursday in August.

Until then at least the situation will remain as it is now, with all the directors who have not resigned—fifteen of twenty-five—opposed to consolidation with the Child Saving Institute.

Neither side has receded in the least from its position and neither seems in the least likely to. The merger therefore is a consummation not likely to be reached.

POPULARITY PROVES A BANE Story Begins with Contest Between Banker and School Children and Ends in Divorce.

John A. Paul, former mayor and banker of Florence, thinks little of his judgment of popular women or that of the Omaha school children.

The latter voted Mrs. Nellie Risley a trip to Florence, Italy, as the most popular teacher in the Omaha public schools, and just as Mrs. Risley was about to embark on her long journey to fair Italy Mr. Paul got into a little voting contest with himself, cast one ballot and the lot fell upon Mrs. Risley, and instead of going to distant Florence as the most popular school teacher Mrs. Risley sailed away to Florence, Neb., as the wife of Mr. Paul.

But that was nine years ago. Mr. Paul has had another voting contest and again has cast a single ballot, and the lot, as before, falls upon the same woman, only this time it is for unpopularity.

Mr. Paul files a divorce petition in which he clearly sets forth that Mrs. Paul is entirely too popular with other men to make a hit with him. He is willing now that she sail off to Florence, Italy. Mr. Paul is several years her senior.

WILLARD'S ADVISER IN CITY J. P. Rice Comes to Omaha to Discuss General Business with Burlington Officials.

J. P. Rice, adviser to Vice President Willard of the Burlington, has arrived from Chicago for a brief stay in Omaha. He left for Lincoln Saturday afternoon.

"My visit here," said Mr. Rice, "is simply to confer with the local officials regarding the general business of the Burlington in Omaha. There is no importance attached to it at all."

"From here I shall go to Lincoln and then on out through the state."

OMAHA HIGH IN BUILDING Gains Twenty-Four Per Cent in June as Compared with Same Month Last Year.

Building permits issued in the principal cities of the United States for June, 1909, as compared with June last year, show a gain in Omaha of 24 per cent and a loss at Denver of 26 per cent. Des Moines, whose total is $25,752, against $20,200 in Omaha, gains 131 per cent. Last June its new buildings amounted to only $38,475.

New York is the banner city. Twenty and one-half millions in round numbers to the figure there for June of this year. The gain throughout the country is 19 per cent.

Battle Creek Man Awaits Salt Lake City Girl to Wed

Waiting at the Gate—City. Edward Briesse of Battle Creek is waiting at the Burlington station for the arrival of Mollie Allison of Salt Lake City, who is a girl that he has never seen and who is to become his wife when the two meet and return to his home city.

For two days Briesse has been waiting here for the girl. Yesterday he received a telegram from her saying she would be here this morning. She failed, however, to come on the stopping train and Briesse believes she will not here this afternoon.

Although Briesse has never seen his fiancée he thinks she will be true to him and come as she said she would. He declares he does not know what she looks like, but he says she is pretty, for she told him so in a letter.

Briesse became acquainted with his bride-elect through the kindness of friends who visited Salt Lake last summer and on returning to Battle Creek told him about the girl. He soon after started a correspondence with her and their courtship was carried on through the mails. The Battle Creek man is afraid that Miss Mollie will go to Lincoln and that he will miss her. He has told all his troubles to Passenger Director Joe Mik, whom he is depending upon to find his fiancée when she arrives.

When Miss Mollie did not come this morning Briesse told the passenger director that he "would make it all right with him" if he would be sure to find the girl when she gets to Omaha. Joe Mik assured him that he would get the girl if she proved true to her word and came here.

Briesse is about 32 years old and his Salt Lake sweetheart is, he says, about 24 years old.

Afraid of Ghosts

Many people are afraid of ghosts. Few people are afraid of germs. Yet the ghost is a fancy and the germ is a fact. If the germ could be magnified to a size equal to its terrors it would appear more terrible than any fire-breathing dragon. Germs can't be avoided. They are in the air we breathe, the water we drink.

The germ can only prosper when the condition of the system gives it free scope to establish itself and develop. When there is a deficiency of vital force, languor, restlessness, a sallow cheek, a hollow eye, when the appetite is poor and the sleep is broken, it is time to guard against the germ. You can fortify the body against all germs by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It increases the vital power, cleanses the system of clogging impurities, enriches the blood, puts the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition in working condition, so that the germ finds no weak or tainted spot in which to breed.

"Golden Medical Discovery" contains alcohol, whisky or habit-forming drugs. All its ingredients printed on its outside wrapper. It is not a secret nostrum but a medicine of known composition and with a record of 40 years of cures. Accept no substitute—there is nothing "just as good." Ask your neighbors,
