

TAFT TRIP NOW ARRANGED

President to Start Across Continent September 15.

IS GOING TO SEATTLE FIRST

Name of Omaha is Not Mentioned in Itinerary as at Present Planned—Will Meet President Diaz at El Paso.

WASHINGTON, July 10.—President Taft today, while enroute to Washington, gave an outline of the tentative plans for his trip through the west and south this fall.

As soon as the tariff bill has received the sanction of the president, Mr. Taft will leave Washington for Beverly. He will remain there until September 15, his 63rd birthday, when he hopes, if Mrs. Taft continues to improve, to begin his western journey.

The president will head direct from Beverly to Seattle, stopping for brief visits enroute at Denver, Salt Lake City and Spokane. After visiting the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition the president will swing down to the southwest, stopping for a time at Portland, where he will be the guest of Senator Jonathan Bourns, and proceeding thence to San Francisco, where he will spend several days in inspecting the rebuilding city. Leaving San Francisco the president will go direct to Los Angeles, where he will stop for several days with his sister. From Los Angeles the president will go to San Diego and then go into Arizona and New Mexico, the last remaining territories which are to be admitted to the United States.

Will Meet Diaz

Coming out of New Mexico the president will stop for a time at El Paso, where he expects to meet President Diaz of Mexico. Mr. Diaz and President Taft have never met. The Mexican president wrote recently to the White House suggesting a conference at El Paso and President Taft replied today that he would be delighted to meet the Mexican executive about October 15, the meeting depending, of course, upon the president's ability to make the western trip.

After his stop at El Paso the president will visit San Antonio, where he will inspect Fort Sam Houston. Mr. Taft while secretary of war was deeply impressed with the post and was instrumental in building it up to its present importance. After visiting Austin and Dallas, Tex., the president expects to spend several days on the ranch owned by his brother, Charles P. Taft, at Corpus Christi, near Brownsville.

At Waterways Congress

Continuing east the president will stop at Houston and go to New Orleans to attend the meeting of the deep waterways congress, the date of which will be fixed to suit his convenience. After attending the convention Mr. Taft wants to stop for a time in the Bayou Teche country of Louisiana, the land of Evangeline. From there the president will proceed to Jackson, Miss., thence to Montgomery, Birmingham and Macon. From Macon the president will go "home" to have a game or two of golf on the links where he spent so much time last winter. Leaving August, the president goes to Savannah and then begins his northward flight to the White House, stopping at Wilmington, N. C., and Richmond, Va.

Mayor Dahlman and Satellites Row on Offices

Followers Object to Executive's Plan to Pick Jimocrat Candidates for Summer Primaries.

Is the Dahlman club the democracy of Douglas county or is it merely the wise and chosen few?

Mayor Dahlman says it's the whole democracy, and John J. Mahoney, backed by P. C. Heafey and L. J. TePeel, says it is not, and they debated it back and forth for an hour at Friday night's meeting of the club until a compromise was effected and both sides got their plans into action.

Mayor Dahlman wanted a committee of five appointed, including the chairman of the county committee, to get out and hustle for the much needed candidates to fill up the ticket before the primaries. "We were betrayed at Lincoln last winter by our own men," said the mayor, "and with the primary laws which they put into effect we can't get democrats to file for office. There are 143 offices, and only three democrats have filed so far. If we get good men we've got to work hard to get them."

John J. Mahoney then declared that the people would complain if the Dahlman committee appointed candidates. "Let them kick," said the mayor. "The Dahlman club is the part of the party that does the work that counts, and if anyone has any kick let him get out and file for office."

"It's making a farce of our protests for having the people rule," objected Mr. TePeel. "That's not what we are after," replied the mayor. "I have no objection to calling a general meeting of democrats, but we can't let them take time to choose people to file."

It was finally decided to have the chairman appoint a committee of five, to be announced Saturday, which should get good men to file for the offices, and to have a general democratic meeting at the club rooms next Wednesday night at which the results of the committee's work could be made known. This compromise had a strong flavor of Mayor Dahlman in it, but was accepted by the majority.

The only men who were actually mentioned for office were Henry Merton, who will probably be the club's candidate for county judge, and P. C. Heafey, who was assured that he would be endorsed for coroner.

Frail Woman Gets the Best of a Constable

Successfully Bluffs an Officer and He Delivers Himself of a Disertation.

"Weak as woman is supposed to be, there are times when one of her sex rises up and does something that almost makes her entitled to some of the masculine honors for strength. Often when woman has the temerity to assert herself man is hanging around in the vicinity of action and gets a few holes punched into his pride and lengthy record."

This is the opinion of Constable John A. Woods, who was bluffed by a Mrs. Jay C. Kalpan, alias Grace Coleman, living at Ninth street and Capitol avenue. With an order of replevin for a trunk, issued upon the application of Jay C. Kalpan, Constable Woods marched boldly forth yesterday to the house of Mrs. Kalpan, where he met with unexpected opposition.

At the door Mrs. Kalpan met the constable and told him he had no business around her house; said the trunk was not there and that her husband, who was the complainant, could go to the region where the trunk was not in demand. Her appearance and talk were so fierce that Constable Woods meekly backed away from the house without gaining entrance to make a search for the trunk.

When Constable Woods was bluffed out it fell upon another man to get the trunk from Mrs. Kalpan, and Alvin R. Hensel proved himself big enough to do the job. He marched boldly to the Kalpan house, met the woman at the door and under his fire of words her bold front wilted. She apologized for her conduct in keeping Constable Woods out of the house and in trying to hold Hensel at bay, and, becoming mild meek, led Constable Hensel to the replevined trunk and helped him take it from the house.

MEMORIAL TO DR. HERZL

Tribute Will Be Paid to Founder of Zionism at the Russian Synagogue.

Memorial services in memory of Dr. Theodor Herzl, organizer of the "Modern Zionism," will be held Sunday evening in the Russian Jewish synagogue at Twelfth street and Capitol avenue, under the auspices of the Zionist societies of Omaha. The meeting will be at 8 o'clock and the public is invited.

Dr. Herzl, termed the "modern Moses," was born in Budapest May 2, 1860, and died July 3, death being caused by a stroke of the heart which he had been designated in which he was so deeply interested. His death is mourned wherever his work has been felt and Sunday has been designated by the societies as memorial Sunday the world over.

SANTA FE THROUGH OMAHA

El Paso-Chicago Train Takes Rock Island Tracks to Avoid High Water.

The Chicago special on the Santa Fe railroad, running from El Paso, Tex., to Chicago, went through Omaha on the Rock Island tracks at 9:30 Friday night, having been detoured around this way because of the floods in the south. This was the first through train the Santa Fe has been able to get into Chicago in three days.

The first Wabasha train that has been sent out of Omaha since Tuesday went south Saturday morning to Standberry, Mo., where it probably will be delayed several hours on account of the soft roads.

AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

Police Commissioners Discuss Enforcement of Liquor Law.

POSTAL RECEIPTS INCREASE

Report for June Indicates Gain of Sixty Per Cent Over the Same Month Last Year—Magico City Gossip.

The South Omaha Board of Fire and Police Commissioners held a conference yesterday afternoon in the office of T. J. O'Neil to arrange the details of the fire and police departments. The conference was secret and little that was planned was given out. The item of importance which will please the men affected by the 8 o'clock closing law was that the board is to require the strict enforcement of the law, and more especially the police department is charged with special vigilance to close all pool halls, clubs, private places where any liquor is dispensed after 8 p. m. It is charged by numerous saloon men that the keepers of certain cigar stores and of pool halls have kept liquor on tap for some of their thirsty customers, and that the same is sold to them, although it is a serious violation of the Stoumch law as well as the daylight saloon bill. The chief said last night that the department had always been on the watch to see that this class of business men kept strictly within the law. He said, further, that every doubtful case would be fully probed under the latest ordinance of the board. "It is only common justice," said the chief, "after we charge saloonmen $1,000 for having a place of business, to see that they are protected in the privilege, and not let everyone who may wish to break this law profit by his restrictions."

Dr. Faulk stated last night that at the time of the next meeting of the board had not been definitely fixed, but that the board was considering the time, which will probably be soon.

Firemen and Policemen Let Out

The axe fell on five firemen and five of the police department Saturday morning. The axe was wielded by the new democratic fire and police board. After several conferences, the board held a public meeting just before noon Saturday and announced the first list of changes.

The new appointees for the fire department are J. O. Laughlin, J. J. Buglewicz, Cornelius Starr, Henry Keller, John Donahue and Dave Duncan. These men relieve Lester Shambelin, John Bonick, Charles Lewis, James Bralitz and E. E. Norton. In the police department James Sheehan and Peter Powers were made captains, superseding Captains Nels Turnquist and J. C. Trouton. W. P. Corrigan and M. J. Corcoran were appointed jailers in place of William McCraith and P. M. Smith. Frank C. O'Rourke was made patrolman in place of Officer P. J. Harder. Officer P. E. Pierce was made patrol driver.

President J. J. Fitzgerald of the board said these were all the changes to be announced for the present. The two chiefs, Dave Garratt and J. M. Bralitz, were retained, and it is thought the character of the department for general efficiency will not be greatly changed in either direction. The board voted to erect a temporary stable for the patrol team back of the city jail and to equip the patrol team with harness.

Postal Receipts Increase

Postmaster E. L. Hows reported yesterday that during the last three months the postal receipts have increased fully 33 per cent. The postal receipts have always been looked upon as indicating the volume of business and the general prosperity of the city. If this is the case, the outlook on the optimistic side of the column. The receipts for June were $1,372.57, as against $1,037.57 in 1929, a difference of $335.00. This figure indicates a gain of fully 30 per cent. The greater portion of the receipts is yet to be received, but on the optimistic side of the column.

The funeral of Patrick McDonough was one of the largest in the history of South Omaha. All members of the Rites made a special effort to attend with the result that one of the most solemn and imposing marching columns was formed. The Ancient Order of Hibernians was out to a man. The service was conducted at St. Agnes' church, which was packed to the rafters. Father Cooney conducted the service, said mass and preached a short sermon. The brothers of the deceased from Kansas were present, as well as a large number of relatives from that state. The burials were Mike Corcoran, Patrick Corcoran, James Sheehan, Patrick McDonough, Dennis Ruddy and Tim McCarthy. The burial was in St. Mary's cemetery.

The Presbyterian church will observe the 40th anniversary of the birth of John Calvin Sunday morning. In the evening the officers of the Christian Endeavor society will be installed.

SOME MAN LOSE SILK DRESS?

Woman Doesn't Own the Garments for Which Two Cents Are Held in Jail.

Arrested by accident by police officers who were working on another case, charged with the theft of $200 worth of silk dresses from Besse Mitchell's house, 1211 Capitol avenue, and then found to be in possession of only duplicates of the goods they were alleged to have stolen, J. Davis of 1512 North Twenty-eighth street, Omaha, and Emmet Lindsey of 159 South Twenty-fifth street, South Omaha, are still being held at the police station.

It has been found, after the men were booked in the records on the Mitchell burglary charge, that the goods they had when arrested did not belong to the woman named. The latter is waiting for somebody to claim the goods and prove their ownership. Some valuable women's clothing is included in the lot recovered.

BAD MAN IS TAKEN TO JAIL

H. H. Powell, Who Terrorized Neighborhood with Shotgun, is Locked Up.

H. H. Powell, 22 Park avenue, suffering from the effects of a Fourth of July "hang over," became angered last night at some trivial affair at his home, and, securing a shotgun announced his intention of making a general cleaning up of that vicinity.

He terrorized the neighborhood for some time and then took his stand in a clump of trees nearby and defied the world at large to take him.

The police were notified and Officers Brinkman and Morris went to look after the case. Powell failed to terrorize them to any noticeable extent. They took his gun away from him, threw him into the patrol wagon and hauled him ingloriously to the station, where he was booked under the general head of drunk and disorderly. After conducting negotiations with the police...

PENSION ROLL IS DECREASING

About 25,500 Removals from List by Death Estimate for This Year.

On June 1, there were 947,765 pensioners on the rolls of the pension office. Of this number 54,411 were civil war invalids. The decrease of pensioners by death during the month of May was 2,354, which would indicate that the decrease during the entire year among the old veterans will reach about 28,000.

There were at the national homes for disabled volunteers on July 1, 1929, over 2,500 soldiers of the civil and Spanish-American wars. They are thus distributed: Dayton, O., 1,517; Pacific, Cal., 1,352; Leavenworth, Kan., 1,238; Hampton, Va., 1,090; Danville, Ill., 1,009; Togus, Me., 2,100; Marion, Ind., 2,650; Johnson City, Tenn., 1,523. These do not include the old veterans in the state soldiers' homes.

Nature Study Club Finishes Its Work

First Prize is Awarded to Clarence Darlow—Engineer Craig Makes an Address.

An interesting lecture by Prof. F. D. Barker of the University of Nebraska, who has had charge of the boys' nature study class, under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian association, and the awarding of prizes for the best collections made by the boys, marked the close of the work done by this season's class.

The prize winners and their awards were as follows: First award, for the best all round work in collecting specimens, studying nature, mounting specimens and constructing working apparatus and writing up the course of study, one year's membership in the boys' department of the association, to Clarence Darlow, three awards of $1 each, for the best collection of insects, best collection of leaves and best collection of pictures of birds seen and studied, to Maurice Frank, Mark Nebel and Burdette Kilkendall, respectively.

City Engineer G. W. Craig presided at the meeting and made a few remarks. Prof. Barker's talk was illustrated and covered the subjects of reptiles. An inspection of the work done completed the program.

A three weeks' course of study outdoors is completed with this morning's session, after which the boys will be the guests of their captain, Kenneth Craig, for a hot ride on Out-Off lake.

WOMAN'S NIGHTMARE

No woman can be happy without children; it is her nature to love them as much as it is the beautiful and pure. The ordeal through which the expectant mother must pass is so full of dread that the thought fills her with apprehension. There is no necessity for the reproduction of life to be either very painful or dangerous. The
