EIGHT IN ROW FOR ROURKES

Welch and Schipke Nip Game in Last Half of Ninth.

PITCHERS' BATTLE THROUGHOUT

Hollenbeck and Brennan Stingy with Safe Ones and Keep Them Scattered Except When Winning Run is Made.

Omaha, 1; Wichita, 0.

Eight straight for Omaha.

Harry Welch and Slugger Bill Schipke were the deciding factors in the pitchers battle at Vinton park Tuesday afternoon between Hollenbeck and Brennan. For eight and a half innings the two teams had battled with neither side able to score but in the last half of the ninth, Slugger Bill and the doctor furnished the dope. Welch hit a two sacker over second which nearly knocked the block off Brennan in passing and the trapper put a Texas Leaguer over the head of Holland and the game was won.

Hollenbeck and Brennan had a real battle. These two southpaws did some remarkable work and batter after batter faced them only to be subdued. Hollenbeck was hit safely five times. He did not issue a pass but hit one man. Brennan was hit for five safe ones and issued one pass to first. Hollenbeck struck out seven and Brennan nine.

Omaha had made but three hits off Brennan until the ninth inning when Pendry struck out. All reliance was then placed on the big doctor and cries went up from the stand for him to put it over the fence. He did the next best thing by hitting for a double. Up came the skipper. When the catcher was fixing up some signals with Brennan, Bill whispered into the ear of Umpire Jack Haskell that he was going to win the game and he did. He put the ball just out of Holland's reach and too far in for Cole to capture and Welch sprinted for home. It was a grand finish to a hotly contested game.

Wichita presented an entirely different front than for the last three games in Omaha. Brennan, who stopped off in Kansas City for a couple of days had returned and he was in fine fettle. Anderson, the shortstop who has been laid up with a strained ankle for some time was back in the game and shone brilliantly and Armstrong, catcher on the Wichita team last year, was brought forth from the tall and uncut somewhere to do the receiving act. Weaver has been out for some time and Monday he was hurt again so Holland was forced to set the wires in motion for a new catcher. These three strengthened the team in a large measure as the addition allowed Cole to return to right and Hughes to go to second.

Anderson started a triple play which worked like clockwork. In the second inning Kane had singled and King reached first when Brennan threw wild on his attempt at sacrifice. Franck was up and he hit a liner at Anderson who nailed it on the run, touched second and put Kane out and then threw to first in time to catch King. Wichita again today.

Notes of the Game.

Welch and Schipke secured four of the five hits made by the Rourke family.

A triple play is of such rare occurrence that the fans are talking about it yet.

Welch found one left-handed pitcher he could hit and he hit him at just the right time.

Holland was able to just get his finger on the game ball, but he could not fasten on it.

Hollenbeck was cheered every time he came to bat, but he was unable to connect safely on any of this attempts.

Not a base was stolen during the game. But then there were not many who reached first so they could try to steal.

LINCOLN LOSES GOOD CHANCE

Prohibitionists Have Opportunity to Get Out of Last Place.

LINCOLN, Neb., July 13.—The Lincoln club fell down on its chance to get out of the tail-end position today by dropping a game to Pueblo by an error, the score of 3 to 2. Three errors, two scratch hits by the visitors and Corhan's two-bagger netted Pueblo its three scores in the first inning. Lincoln then substituted a new battery and Pueblo was shut out to the finish. Jackson was steady, but was hammered for ten hits, the Fox tribe being balked by two dazzling one-hand catches of line drives. Clark captured one in the fourth inning, when the bases were full, and retired the side unassisted. Jackson stopped a rally in the sixth when he trapped Davidson's liner with his gloved hand and nipped Gagnier at first. Lincoln made a strong bid in the ninth, but fell short one run. McCafferty's fine fielding was a strong feature. Score:

SIOUX LOSE TO GRIZZLIES

Champions Are Unable to Hit Ford in Pinches.

SIOUX CITY, Ia., July 13.—Denver defeated Sioux City today in the best played game of the season, 4 to 1. Ford was hit hard, but not in the pinches. Sioux City had men on bases in almost every inning, but when a hit was needed the big twirler settled and the champions could not connect. Campbell made the only score for the home team in the first inning. He singled, went to third on two passed balls and scored on a wild pitch. The champions had the bases full in the ninth on successive hits, but could not get a run over. Four singles in the second inning allowed Denver its first two runs. Two more came over in the third on Jones' double, a pass on a single and a fielder's choice. Chabek was invincible after the third inning. Denver's fielding was gilt-edged, many fine stops and catches being made: Score:
