First Regatta of Carter Park Club

Dahlman and Berryman Make Addresses, After Which There is Parade of Lighted Boats.

The Carter Park Outing club entertained nearly 5,000 guests at its first regatta on the west shore of Cut-off lake, Thursday night. The bungalows and cottages were decorated and the shore was hung with hundreds of Chinese lanterns. The formal program was begun about 8 o'clock when G. W. Elrod, president of the club introduced Mayor Dahlman, who congratulated the citizens of "Bungalow City" upon their progress. He was followed by Ed P. Berryman, who spoke for the Park board. Following the speaking thirty sail boats and launches gaily illuminated with lanterns and electric lights made a circuit of the lake, passing the Rod and Gun club and Courtland beach and returning to the mayor's reviewing stand on top of a house boat. During the fireworks which followed the crowd promenade up and down the beach where the lanterns were strung for a quarter of a mile. Music was furnished by a band and the J. C. AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

President Dunham of Union Stock Yards Makes Inspection.

TAKES ROSY VIEW OF FUTURE

Expects Big Increase in Receipts of Live Stock and Says His Company Will Be Prepared for It.

R. J. Dunham of Chicago, president of the Union Stock Yards company, was in South Omaha yesterday morning on one of the regular tours of inspection. He said, "I am more than usually pleased with the rapid progress in the South Omaha yards. With the work which is at present contemplated the South Omaha yards will stand equal to any in the west in matters of convenience and economy. It is the opinion of all who are acquainted with the west that Nebraska and the territory within reach of the Omaha market is entering on a period of prosperity such as the past has never known. Settlement is bringing all the fertile land into the fullest cultivation and prices are bound to remain on a higher plane than during the earlier history of western agriculture. "I expect to see the South Omaha yard do a record breaking business this fall. We expect to have all things ready to receive the consignments as they come. The plan we have is to keep the improvements up to date and a little ahead of the actual needs, because we expect a rapidly increasing business."

Was on Gambling.

Chief Briggs has adopted a relentless policy against gambling in South Omaha. A more rigid enforcement of the laws and ordinances may be expected from now on. Heretofore the police have done all in their power to check gambling. The department has forced the vice out, with the exception of games conducted strictly under cover. As a sample of what is to be expected, M. Palmer, who has a pool hall at Twenty-sixth and N streets, was arrested on the charge of running a poker game in connection. With him, James Wilson and W. M. Tryson were arrested on a charge of gambling. All parties are colored. The police are instructed to pay particular attention to card games and other common forms of gambling in pool halls and cigar parlors. Chief Briggs demanded $500 bail in the case of Palmer, and found $108.40 as the man's capital stock.
